Honored for board service

Leonard Frahm (right) receives a plaque commemorating 16 years of service on the Board of Directors for the Raeford Southern National Bank. Frahm, who retired from the board in May, receives the plaque and a handshake from fellow board member Ken McNeill (left), while Burlington Manager Bill Archer (left of center) and Sarah

Leach (center) look on. Frahm is retired from the House of Raeford, where he served as president and manager. He is considered to have been one of the key figures in bringing the turkey industry to North Carolina. That industry now ranks first in agriculture in the state.
