Martha Upchurch retires

Sam Morris (right) highlights some of the events around The News-Journal during the 30 years Martha Upchurch (left) has worked for the newspaper. Morris made his remarks during a retirement party held Monday to honor Upchurch. The day was also her birthday, and plenty of food and cake were on hand as well as gifts. Upchurch was also honored on Friday at a dinner held at the JFR Barn in Southern Pines. She was hosted by 12 of her co-workers and former employees of Dickson Press. She was remembered with a gift from the group. During Monday's party, fellow employees gathered in the Dickson Press office. Here Dell Karshner, Sonya Falls and Tammie Ellis listen, while Morris speaks.
