Woodmen enjoy outing on Emerald Isle beach

Woodmen of the World National and State Officers from across North Carolina enjoyed a four-day outing at Emerald Isle last week. Members who attended from local Lodge 6179 were President Mary Ruth Haire who is also a National Delegate and Secretary Evelyn Ashburn who is a member of the Jurisdictional Fraternal Committee.

A meeting was held Saturday afternoon with fifty-six officers in attendance. State president Charles Maxwell presided. East N.C. State Manager Harvey Bedsole and West N.C. State Manager Bob Payne both spoke to the group.

After the meeting adjourned, the group enjoyed a delicious seafood dinner at Captain Bill's Seafood Restaurant in Morehead City.

Catholic youth host teens

On August 31 the youth of St. Elizabeth of Hungary Catholic Church hosted an overnight experience with the youth of Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church from Newton Grove. The evening began with a parish buffet/swimming party held at the Hoke Swimming Association Pool. After the pool party the youth gathered at the parish house for videos and popcorn. The fellowship together culminated with a Youth Liturgy. The teens participated as lectors, altar servers, ushers and gift presenters, as well as signed (sign language) the communion song. The teens from Newton Grove were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Hamp Giddons and Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Stevens. Mrs. Stevens is the former Carolyn Cabana of Raeford.

DIET FACTS & FALLACIES

ARE YOU A VICTIM OF THE "YO-YO" SYNDROME?

Do you feel as though you are constantly on a diet? That you keep losing and gaining the same ten pounds? That, no matter what you do, you will never be slim?

If so, you may be a victim of what has been termed the "yo-yo" syndrome. People have been dieting for years, seeking every solution imaginable to magically burn off extra pounds. Each year, BILLIONS of dollars are spent on diet pills, foods, books, magazines and exercise equipment. Unfortunately, few of these so-called solutions work on a permanent basis.

What is the secret for success? Diet Center believes the only solution is PERMANENT WEIGHT CONTROL. You can gain this control by becoming nutritionally aware of what, and how, you eat. Stop counting calories! Instead, ensure your body receives adequate nutrients. Follow a diet that includes fresh fruits and vegetables, lean meats, whole grains and polyunsaturated fats.

You, too, can conquer the "yo-yo" syndrome. Start today by calling your local Diet Center for more information.
