Turkey Olympics seeking trainers

The Raeford-Hoke Chamber of Commerce wants you to race a turkey. They can't ask you to run against a turkey, that's not fair. What you can do is get a free turkey to race against his peers on your behalf. You can also use the bird to march in the first Turkey Parade on Wednesday, September 18. Turkey pick-ups will be handled through the Hoke County Parks and Recreation Department. On the day of the parade, a bird may be picked up anytime from 1-6 p.m. If you do not plan to keep the bird at your home until Saturday, it can be returned to the Old National Guard Armory right after the parade. They can be picked up again at the same place beginning at 2:30 p.m. on Saturday, the day of the olympics. The olympics start at 3:30 p.m. These birds will be collected after the olympics. So come on. Call the Raeford-Hoke Chamber of Commerce for details. Race a turkey. You might win.

Payne serves as state page

Kimberly Payne of Third Avenue in Raeford served as a page recently in Raleigh with the Department of Cultural Resources. The daughter of Nancy A. Payne, Kimberly is a senior at Hoke County High School. Governor's pages are chosen on the basis of merit by their high school teachers. Pages assist the various departments in their communications with other State government offices.
