Community spirit

Miss NC to host Robeson pageant

Fayetteville's Joni Parker, the 1985 Miss North Carolina, will serve as master of ceremonies for Robeson County's first fair queen pageant during opening night of the Robeson County Fair.

The pageant is scheduled for 7:30 p.m., Monday, September 30 at the fairgrounds on N.C. 41 in Lumberton. Admission is $1.

Parker, who recently returned from competing in the Miss America contest in Atlantic City, N.J., will also perform during the pageant, according to fair committee member Jack Johnson. During the Miss America contest, the 5-9 blue-eyed brunette sang "The Shadow of Your Smile."

Parker, 24, competed in the Miss North Carolina pageant as Miss Fayetteville, winning the crown June 30 in Raleigh.

Library emerged in festival

The Hoke County Public Library was most involved in the North Carolina Turkey Festival.

The library was the setting for the Opening Ceremonies featuring Agriculture Commissioner Jim Graham and Miss North Carolina Joni Parker.

The Cooking Contest and entertainment on Saturday were also highlights of the festival for the library. We enjoyed being in the midst of the activity throughout the festival.

All comments expressed were certainly positive ones - we were delighted about that!

The library would like to thank came for the Opening Ceremonies and Cooking contest on Wednesday.

The library staff was wonderful. They gave directions, watched food, made phone calls, calmed nerves, and saw that everyone received what they needed.

The library begins STORY HOURS for the children this week. If you are in doubt as to the day and time of the story hour for your child, please call the library 875-2502 and ask for Betsy McNeill. She will be glad to fill you in on the schedule. Do not forget the DIAL-A-STORY number - 875-2039.
