

Changing weather
Clouds darkened blue skies Sunday with bellowy forms as a cold front moved through Hoke County.

Plummer begins with W.O.W.

John Plummer of W. Edinborough Ave., Raeford, a field representative for Woodmen of the World Life Insurance Society, has just returned from a special "Sure Start" Home Office School for new field personnel.

Omaha, Nebr.

Plummer hopes to make contact as soon as possible with present members of the Society in this area and offer his services, both from a fraternal and insurance standpoint. In addition, he will be contacting any new members who wish to join the Woodmen of the World.

20 years service
Glen J. Sanderson has completed 20 years service at the Raeford Plant of Burlington Industries. Sanderson started work with the company as a Loom Cleaner in the Weave Department and has spent his entire 20 years in that area. He presently works in the Weave Department as a Warp Changer - Worsted/Decorative. In recognition of his service, he was presented a pearl pin, certificate and gift by Plant Management to Commemorate the achievement.

Directory help now costing more

American Telephone and Telegraph Co. (AT&T) has increased its charge for interstate directory assistance calls to 60 cents from 50 cents, under an AT&T plan recently approved by the Federal Communications Commission.

distant calls that month.

Carolina Telephone customers who call AT&T's interstate directory assistance service will be billed for these calls by Carolina Telephone, which acts as a billing agent for AT&T.

The new charge, which went into effect on October 1, applies to telephone customers nationwide who call AT&T's interstate directory assistance service.

Any truth to the proverb, "Going to rain if horse rolls over?" You bet there is.

Animals often get edgy long before a storm hits because they're able to hear the low frequency sound waves given off by approaching storms.
