Woodmen attend NC meeting

Twenty-three members of Woodmen of the World Lodge 6179 attended the Cape Fear District Convention in Benson on Thursday, October 17.

Mary Ruth Haire, president of our local Lodge and also president of the Cape Fear District, presided at the 6 p.m. business session.

Three reports covering activities since the last convention were selected to be presented during the business session, and the report from Lodge 6179 was one of the three selected.

This was presented by Secretary Evelyn Ashburn, and this was the second consecutive year Lodge 6179's report was selected.

Dr. Thomas E. Shaver, National Trustee from Mt. Olive, N.C., was Master of Ceremonies for the 7:30 p.m. evening session. Milton Collier, president of Benson Lodge 480, gave the welcome from their Lodge, and Charles Matthews, Mayor of Benson, gave the welcome address.

National Director and East N.C. State Manager Harvey Bedsole recognized the guests and introduced the guest speaker, National Treasurer James L. Mounce from Omaha, Nebraska.

Election of Youth Camp Board Members was held and Evelyn Ashburn was elected to serve on this Board.

Patti Lunsford, Adult Leader for our local Youth Lodge 1404, was presented a plaque and a gift for her outstanding work with the youth. They received #1 honors at camp this summer.

Dr. Shaver presented the attendance award which was won by Lodge 6179. President Mary Ruth Haire accepted the award on behalf of the members of Lodge 6179.

Herb Pate, Cape Fear District Chaplain from Atkinson, N.C., gave the benediction.

There was real good attendance, with a great number of visitors to the homecoming worship service at Galatia Presbyterian Church Sunday. Dr. Albert Edwards of The First Presbyterian Church in Raleigh and television Minister brought an inspiring message to the congregation.

The Bell Choir also from First Church in Raleigh, directed by Betty Fuller added to the inspiration, followed by Joni Parker who gave a beautiful testimony and also sang a solo.

Following the worship service, a picnic lunch was enjoyed.

Fall Revival begins Sunday, November 3 at 7 p.m. at Tabernacle Baptist Church. The speaker will be Rev. James Pardue, Pastor of the First Baptist Church in Clinton, North Carolina. The revival will be held through Wednesday night, November 6.

If you have not done so please visit the Heritage Room at Tabernacle Baptist Church and also Galatia Presbyterian Church. There is so much history of the churches and community preserved there to be enjoyed.

Sandy Grove Methodist Church will hold a Bazaar Saturday, November 2 beginning at 9:30 a.m. at the church. Handmade crafts, baked goods and other items will be for sale. A hot lunch of homemade soup, hot dogs, ham biscuits and sausage biscuits will be for sale.

Those from the Rockfish Homemakers Club who attended the Achievement Program at the Civic Center in Raeford, Tuesday, October 22 were Mrs. Jimmy Culp, Mrs. Amos Grant, Mrs. Clarence Koonce, Mrs. Roscoe Bundy and Mrs. Lawrence Barnard.

E.T. Brock Jr., was ordained a deacon during morning worship service at Tabernacle Baptist Church Sunday.

Approximately 60 family members and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E.T. Brock Jr. Sunday for a "picnic dinner" on the lawn.

Little Abigail Sheppard, known as "Baby Abby," who has had surgery recently, was able to attend. She really enjoys getting mail and a request has been made that anyone who would like to, please send a card to: "Baby Abby," Box 61-A, Aberdeen, N.C. 28315.
