Lumber Bridge News

By Lib Sumner

Baptist Church
December 1 - 8 is a week of prayer for foreign missions. On Monday evening at 6:30 the Womens' Missionary Union met for a Prayer Program at the home of Mrs. Henry L. Foster in St. Pauls.

Mrs. Foster gave an interesting talk on missions, also gave an outline for our work during the week of prayer. Following the program - a sit down Thanksgiving dinner of turkey, dressing - and all the trimmings was enjoyed by all. The place mats were printed with flags of countries of the world. The center of the table was beautifully decorated with three printed world balloons hung from the chandelier and a printed world balloon in a container with miniature figures of people of different countries around the balloon.

Those present - Pearl Dew, Ver-va McGougan, Lois Sumner, Dot McGougan, Mary Ammons, Mary Prevatt, Phyllis Blanton, Wanda Ammons, Betty Lou McGougan, Billie Sue Woolley and Lib Sumner.

Gifts being collected for Christmas project

Christmas gifts for Hoke foster children will be collected by the recently reorganized Hoke County Foster Care Association.

Christmas trees decorated with stars giving foster children's sex and size will be placed in Raeford at United Carolina Bank on Main Street and other locations. The stars can be removed from the tree by those who want to give gifts and return a gift to go under the tree.

Collections will be completed by 5 p.m. on December 23.

Mrs. Vicki Jones was elected President and Mrs. Ola Mae Jones, Vice-President, when the Association met in the T.B. Lester Building last week.

If information is needed about the group or its Christmas project, please call Ronda Pickler or Vicki Jones (875-6155 or 875-8198).
