Hoke High Yule Concert scheduled for December 12

The Hoke County High School Chorus and Chorale will present their annual Christmas Concert on Thursday, December 12, at 7:30 p.m. in the McDonald Gym at Hoke High School.

This year's program entitled "For Unto Us a Child is Born..." will feature many sacred Christmas favorites, as well as dancing and a visit from Santa Claus.

The program will begin with a 14th processional heralding the birth of Christ. The combined groups will sing "Gloria" from Haydn's Helligmesse (1776).

Other highlights include the Choral's performance of "For Unto Us a Child is Born" from Messiah. (Handel) and a moving benediction from the contemporary English composer John Rutter.

Admission is only $1.

Indian Affairs promoting ABE Sandhills Col. program

The N.C. Commission of Indian Affairs is sponsoring a program on Adult Basic Education in conjunction with the Hoke County branch of Sandhills Community College.

The primary goal of the Literacy Awareness ABE program is to increase community awareness, support and commitment and to increase Indian participation in the N.C. Community College ABE program.

The program is designed to help lower the high illiteracy rate of the Indian population.

Students will be encouraged through the activities appealing to an employer.

A positive strategy of convenient class schedules will allow students to work and upgrade their educational level at the same time.

A student of the month will also be named in each of the target communities during the program year and will be featured in the local newspaper and Indian news letters.

In anyone is interested you can contact Patsy Jacobs at 452-3708 or 452-3303.

There are now 270 species officially listed as "endangered" in the United States. Among these endangered species are 38 mammals, 72 birds and 71 plants.

High school equivalency pushed for migrant workers

The N.C. Commission of Indian Affairs, in cooperation with the Sandhills Community College is starting a Migrant and Seasonal Farm-worker High School Equivalency Program (HEP), in Hoke County.

The primary goal of the HEP is to increase the educational status of migrant and seasonal farm-worker drop-out students. To help them obtain the equivalent of a secondary school diploma and subsequently gaining employment or be admitted into an institution of higher education.

The students who are qualified for the program will receive monies for mileage and class time spent.

For more information contact Lorrie Jones at the N.C. Commission of Indian Affairs Office in the Federal Bldg. Room 212, 875-2581 or 875-5742.
