Suppose you should walk down the street wearing the swellest looking suit of clothes ever seen in your community—a suit tailored right up to the very last minute in style such as no tailor in your town could possibly turn out, to say nothing of the ready made clothing stores—don't you have an idea that such a suit on you would attract considerable attention? In fact, don't you know that dozens of your friends would stop you, examine the material, fit, style and workmanship, ask you who made it, how much it cost, where they could get clothes like it and a lot of other questions about it?

Our agents tell us that is what invariably happens when they start out to represent us, dressed in the swell, stylish suits we make for them as samples of our work. We furnish entire sample outfit absolutely FREE.

Now suppose that you should tell your friends that the suit you had on was a sample of the fine tailoring work done by the Great Central Tailoring Company of Chicago, that you were its sole representative in your town, that you had a big lot of samples of the finest suitings ever shown and that you could take their orders for suits just as stylish as your own and have them made to their own individual measure, at prices from $8.00 up—can't you imagine how they would open their eyes and ask to see the samples? And you can depend upon it, that orders, and a whole lot of them, would follow mighty quickly. For they would at once realize that they couldn't get such swell looking hand-tailored suits, such fine material, such snappy styles and faultless fit from local tailors or clothing stores, no matter what price they paid. They will be glad to order from you, especially when they find they can save from $5.00 to $20.00 on a suit.
