Hebrews Won.
Yesterday the Hebrew team outplayed the Boy Scout aggregation in a game of ball. A look at the score sheet at the close of the game showed that eighteen Hebrews had passed over the initial sack which only half this number of Scouts had come home. The game was only a seven inning affair and did not hold a great deal of interest. Especially was this true after the third inning, for at this stage of the game the Jewish players took the lead and proceeded to climb away from the scooters. Batsey for Hebrews, Zuckerman and White. The Boy Scout battery refused to give their names as they were afraid they would be worried by scouts from the big leagues.

Ladies' Attention.
For today and tomorrow H. Miller, the progressive dry goods man of East Main street, is offering bargains in several articles of ladies' wearing apparel. These are bargains that are not offered every day and it will be worth your while to read the ad in this morning's paper and then attend to the sale.

NOT A TWINGE OF RHEUMATISM SINCE TAKING RHEUMA

"I suffered from Rheumatism for six years; tried different doctors with no relief. I saw your advertisement and decided to try RHEUMA. I have taken three bottles and am entirely free from the disease. I was so bad I could not sleep nights; now I sleep well, and my kidneys work perfectly."—P. W. Miller, Catawissa, Pa.
"For 14 months I was so badly afflicted with rheumatism that much of the time I was 'obliged' to use a cane. I used one bottle of RHEUMA and THE CANE IS IN THE CORNER NOW. No one could be happier to be rid of the pain, swollen knees and badly swollen ankles. I certainly believe there is no remedy for the disease like RHEUMA."—Mrs. Daniel S.nox, Severance, N. Y., August 8, 1912.
Haywood & Boone guarantee RHEUMA to cure Rheumatism, Gout, Lumbago, Sciatica, Arthritis, Chronic, Neuralgia and Kidney disease or money back—and only 5 cents a bottle.

False Report Corrected

This is to certify that I had a life insurance policy on my son, Samuel D. Mangum, with the North Life Insurance company, of Kinston, N. C., which my son had taken out on July 24th, 1911, for the amount of $500. After taking said policy, we were told and advised by people who were in opposition to this company, that the policy was no good, and we would simply lose the premium on said policy. My son died on April 5th, 1913, and I was still told and advised that the company had gone to the bad, and that I would not get my money, and lose what I had paid. On April 19th, fourteen days from the death of my son, Mr. W. H. Tilley, manager of this district for the North State Life Insurance Company, handed me a check for $500 in full settlement of the above said policy held on the life of my son. And as it has been rumored, that they would not pay this claim and as I deemed this rumor very damaging, I feel it my duty, both to Mr. Tilley, and the company, to make the above statement.

BEFORE AND AFTER MARRIAGE

Advice Given Mother in Regard to Young Daughter, Proves Valuable to Daughter Even After Marriage.

Pollock, Tex.—"When I was a girl, about 14 years of age," writes Mrs. Winnie Delaney, of this town, "I was in awfully bad health. I tried different treatments, but they did me no good.
A friend advised my mother to give me Cardui, the woman's tonic. She gave me one bottle, and it straightened me out all right.
I did not have any more trouble until after I was married. I had several bad spells then, but I began taking Cardui again, and my health started to improving right away.
I can safely recommend Cardui to all women sufferers, as I think it is the greatest woman's medicine on earth.
You may publish this letter if you wish."
Cardui is good for young girls, as well as older women, because it contains pure, harmless, vegetable ingredients, which act gently, yet surely, on the delicate womanly organs. It is a tonic prepared exclusively for women.

For more than 50 years, Cardui has been widely extended use, by women of all ages, and has given entire satisfaction, as a remedy for rebuilding womanly health and strength.
You can rely on Cardui. It will do for you, what it has done for thousands of others. It will help you. Begin to take Cardui today.
