

LAD MAY RECOVER FROM SERIOUS AUTO ACCIDENT

RICHARD HEMRIC CRUSHED THROUGH PLATE WINDOW BY CAR

NEGRO IN JAIL

Dan Harris Held Without Bail Pending Outcome of Boy's Injuries

Physicians at the Wilkes hospital state that unless complications develop, Richard Hemric, thirteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Hemric will recover following an accident late Saturday afternoon when young Hemric was run down by an automobile driven by Dan Harris, colored in front of the Snyder-Spahnour store.

The lad was badly cut by glass when the big plate glass window in the window to the right of the door entrance, shattered as he was pushed through it by the oncoming automobile. The boy's back was horribly cut and the glass penetrated and punctured one of the ribs were said to have been severed.

Harris claims that the steering wheel of the car became locked as he neared the place but Louis Graves, also colored, who owned the car, said he gave Harris permission to use the automobile only on condition that he get someone who knew how to drive the car, thus it appears that Harris did not know how to operate a car.

Young Hemric was standing in the doorway of the Snyder-Spahnour store and did not have time to escape when the onrushing machine made a wild lunge into the store front pinning him down and crushing him through the window.

Harris was arrested at once and taken to the Peace R. L. jail where he was bound and for an assault with a deadly weapon, and reckless driving. It was first thought the Hemric boy would die as little hope was held out for him when he was rushed in the Reich-Hayes-Boren ambulance to the Wilkes Hospital.

Bailey Defeats Simmons by 65,000; Hancock Wins for Congress; Higgins Solicitorship

Politicians of North Carolina are slowly but surely digging in to the debris of last Saturday's primary to find the whys and wherefores of some of the startling upsets of that balloting. Chief among the upsets was the defeat of the veteran senator Furnifold M. Simmons, by Josiah William Bailey of approximately 65,000. Even the staunchest Bailey supporters had not visioned so much of a landslide.

Carlyle Higgins, Sparta attorney has won a signal victory over J. M. Sharpe of Reidsville, carrying all but two of the six counties of the solicitorial district and getting a majority of around 5,000. Mr. Higgins carried all but Rockingham and Forsyth counties and won huge pluralities in Ashe, Alleghany, Caswell and Surry. S. Porter Graves, who has been solicitor from this district for over twenty years did not stand for reelection.

Frank Hancock of Oxford, won the Democratic nomination for congress in a walk-away race over A. F. Sams, of Forsyth who carried only his own county. On the Republican ticket, Congressman Pritchard has a big lead to win the senatorial nomination of his party. On the face of almost complete returns, Pritchard had 11,471 votes against 4,195 for Butler and 2479 for Tucker and 759 for Dorsett. For the Democratic senatorial nominations the same precincts gave Bailey 190,835; Simmons, 124,553 and Estep 1,395.

Surry county Republicans are perplexed over the joint senatorship because neither of the candidates received a clear majority and, according to the new law, a second primary must be run off unless some of the aspirants withdraw. Attorney David Hiatt of Mt. Airy had a total vote in Surry and Stokes county of 951 while Senator Joyce had 569. Rev. Joe Hall 710 and Surry County Chairman Jackson, 73. Mr. Jackson who entered the race at the eleventh hour withdrew his name just before the voting. In Surry county Joyce received but 24 votes, this being accounted for because it has been a custom from time immemorial to rotate the office between the two counties and Mr. Joyce, of Stokes, had the honor last session. Surry gave Hiatt, 359 votes; Hall, 312 and Jackson, 29.

The Surry vote was as follows: Solicitor, Higgins, 2840, Sharpe 615, Congress, Hancock 2575, Sams, 871, Senator, Bailey, 2397, Simmons, 1057 and Estep 6, Corporation Commissioner, Pell, 2378 and Holloway, 243. On the Republican ticket for senator, Butler received 428, Pritchard, 147 and Tucker, 83 and Dorsett 30.

Elkin township gave Bailey a plurality of 65, the Raleigh attorney receiving 279 votes against 215 cast for the veteran senator, Carlyle Higgins carried the precinct in a landslide, getting 461 votes against 35 cast for Sharpe. For Corporation Commissioner, the precinct gave Pell 371 votes against 27 cast for Holloway while Sams carried the township for congress over Hancock by a vote of 287 to 221. For joint senator on the G. O. P. slate Joyce received 6, Hiatt, 12, Hall 27, and Jackson 13.

On the Republican ticket also Tucker led the way winning 28 votes against 24 for Butler, 5 for Pritchard and 1 for Dorsett.

BUY ANCIENT S. C. MANSION TO MOVE IT TO TWIN CITY

MRS. HUGH CHATHAM AND SISTER, MRS. MARGARET KAVANAUGH, PURCHASE OLD HOME

Mrs. Hugh Chatham and her sister, Mrs. Margaret T. Kavanaugh, have purchased a century old Colonial mansion in South Carolina and will move it piece by piece to Winston-Salem and will reside in it. The following story relative to the home appeared in last Thursday's Winston-Salem Sentinel.

An ancient modern house will be erected in Winston-Salem during the next few weeks. It will be ancient for the house was first built in 1827, one hundred and three years ago. It will be modern, for it will be erected in Winston-Salem with all modern conveniences in the near future.

The house for the last hundred years has belonged in the Middleton family at Clark's Hill McCormick county, South Carolina. It now belongs jointly to Mrs. Hugh Chatham and her sister, Mrs. Margaret T. Kavanaugh.

To Be Complete The two Winston-Salem ladies recently purchased the place and have commissioned architect Harold Macklin to tear it down and rebuild it here exactly as it has stood on the banks of the Savannah River for the past hundred years.

Instead of the Savannah River, this time it will overlook the lake which separates the estates of Ralph and James G. Hanes, on the Brookstown Road. The house is two stories high, constructed of clapboard and is of typical South Carolina colonial design having as its particularly distinguishing marks a remarkable doorway and an equally remarkable and beautiful stairway.

Long Show Place The house was formerly owned by Robert H. Middleton, of the family of Middleton's who own Magnolia Gardens, at Charleston. It has long been a show place and has a rich history for its brilliant assemblages. It was known in the olden days as

ELKIN TOWNSHIP TO BE DIVIDED IN TWO PRECINCTS

HAS OUTGROWN LONE VOTING PLACE WITH INCREASE OF INHABITANTS

1400 REGISTERED

Surry County To Have 20 Instead of 18 Voting Places

When Elkin township voters go to the polls next fall, they will find two voting places instead of the one that has prevailed since times immemorial, according to a news dispatch from Raleigh which says that many new voting precincts have been outlined and increases the Surry county precincts from eighteen to twenty.

The Elkin voting places will be called "Elkin No. 1" and "Elkin No. 2." It is understood that the other new precinct will be at Dobson.

It is pointed out that the Elkin has outgrown its single precinct and that it is becoming almost impossible to vote all the citizens in the single precinct in the ten hour election day.

When the Elkin precinct was established there were but some 700 voters but now over 1400 are on the registration books in this township. It will be necessary to take a new registration before fall to separate the two precincts, it is said.

AUTO IS CALLED DEADLY WEAPON BEFORE RECORDER

COLORED MAN SENTENCED FOR DRIVING CAR INTO CROWDS

The automobile as a deadly weapon was used in Recorder's court Tuesday morning to bring Louis Graves, colored, to the bar of justice on the charge of assault and reckless driving, the specific charge being that Graves used the automobile as a deadly weapon when he ran into a group of people at a medicine show in the bottom near the river bridge. It was brought out in the trial last week, Graves drove an old Ford car down the incline into the bottom land and struck several people, knocking several of them down. Graves avers that his foot slipped from the brakes causing the car to go forward hitting the people. The car in question was the same ill-fated vehicle that was used by Dan Harris, also colored, when he struck and seriously injured Richard Hemric on the Snyder Spahnour corner Saturday evening. It is said that the automobile did not have brakes but Graves denied this. He was found technically guilty of assault and of reckless driving and was given a ninety day road sentence suspended for two years upon payment of $25. and costs.

Charlie Chatman paid a fine of $10.00 and costs when he entered a plea of guilty to a charge of public drunkenness while the cases of drunkenness and operating cars recklessly against Marvin Martin and Isaac Adams were continued until next Tuesday.

TO GIVE CONCERT

A class of orphans from the Odd Fellows Home at Goldsboro will give a concert in Elkin on next Tuesday evening, the place to be announced later.

Several hundred extra copies will be printed as last year to be sent to all persons in the summer colony and a copy of it is sent by the management of Graystone Inn to all persons asking about the summer resort.

As usual the edition will carry complete stories of every angle of Roaring Gap and its environments as well as all available photographs. Because of the heavy advertising which will be carried, Elkin merchants are asked to get their copy to the Tribune at the very earliest possible date, preferably this week.

BIG DELEGATION FROM ALL CHURCHES HAVE SESSION IN ELKIN TUESDAY

The Mt. Airy district meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of the Western M. E. Conference convened in the Methodist church in an all day session last Thursday. Practically all the churches in this part of the district were represented by delegates totalling seventy-eight. Mrs. J. L. Woltz of Mt. Airy, District Secretary presided over the meeting with a well planned program. Rev. L. B. Abernethy led the opening devotionals. Mrs. R. G. Harris, Mrs. H. A. Dunham and Miss Amy Hackney of Asheville and the pastors of the district were introduced. The business session opened with the election of Mrs. R. G. Smith of Elkin as secretary for the meeting. Splendid reports and amounts of pledges were given from auxiliaries present. Mrs. H. A. Dunham gave an inspirational talk on the gains and advancement of the work. Mrs. Weaver was pleased to announce that three young people would enter the Scarritt Bible and Training school this fall to become missionaries. Promptly at 12:30 o'clock the meeting adjourned, following a most bountiful lunch which was attractively served by the ladies of the church. The afternoon session opened at 2 o'clock. A song from the Elkin Light Bearers and a reading by Sarah Atkinson introduced the program for the afternoon. Miss Hackney Supt. of the Children's work, gave a brief talk "What the Children Are Doing." Other talks were made by Mrs. W. R. Harris, editor of Woman's Page in Christian Advocate, Mrs. C. C. Weaver on different phases of our missionary work, Rev. W. E. Poorey gave an outline of the circuit plan. This meeting was an echo from the annual meeting held in High Point April 22-25. Pledges for carrying on the work both the local and foreign were very gratifying. An invitation for the meeting June 1931 was accepted. Dobson and Pilot Mt. extended invitations also but the entire delegation voted on going over the "road of roses" to Sparta next year. The meeting closed with a consecration service conducted by Mrs. W. R. Harris. In her message she sent the truth straight home in a way that will not soon be forgotten.
