SECOND PRIMARY TO BE RUN OFF ON JULY 5TH-UNLESS

NEITHER HALL NOR HIATT WILLING TO WITHDRAW FROM G. O. P. RACE

TALK POLITICS

Both Parties Lining Up Timber For Race For County Offices

Unless either Rev. Joe Hall, of Westfield or Attorney David L. Hiatt of Mt. Airy withdraw within the next few days, a second or "runoff" primary will be necessary in Surry and Stokes county to determine who shall be the Republican candidate for joint senator.

Mr. Hiatt led in the three cornered fight for the joint senatorship nomination but did not receive a majority in the primary a few weeks ago and hence another primary must be called to determine the winner, unless some way or other is found to pick the candidate. To that, neither Mr. Hall nor Mr. Hiatt has seen fit to step down from the race. Unless something develops within the next few days, the election officials will call the second primary for Saturday July 5 when the Republican voters of both Surry and Stokes will go to the polls to vote for either Hall or Hiatt.

The Republicans of Surry are planning an active campaign for this fall, at a meeting of the county executive committee recently, Edward M. Linville of Mt. Airy, was named as assistant to Attorney W. M. Jackson as county chairman.

It appears likely that Sheriff A. M. Smith will be renominated by the Surry Republicans without opposition and the same is true of T. M. Marsh register of deeds. S. O. Maguire of this city is slated to be nominated for clerk of the court without opposition although there is some talk that R. L. Lovelace, also of this city would toss his hat in the ring to oppose Mr. Maguire.

Chairman Lindsay of the board of county commissioners, says he will not be a candidate to succeed himself although he may be drafted and it is almost a certainty that Commissioner J. of Pilot Mountain will again be candidates. County Chairman, A. Somers of Elkin and Joe Pell, W. M. Jackson may be nominated for the House.

On the Democratic side, much interest is attached to the sheriff's race with the chief interest focused on former Sheriff C. M. Haynes but his pro-Simmons activities has alienated him from a group of strong Bailey supporters. Gray Folger of Dobson, has already announced himself as a candidate for sheriff, J. N. Freeman of Dobson, has already announced himself as a candidate for the Democratic House nomination while friends of John Folger are out to get the nomination for the Mt. Airy attorney. Raymond Smith and Archie Carter are both being mentioned for the joint senatorship nomination.

Worth Gray of Elkin, already announced as a candidate for Register of Deeds will probably be opposed by W. F. Lawrence. Frank Jewellly it seems, will be renominated without opposition for clerk of the court while the lineup for commissioners seems to be W. J. Byerly of Mt. Airy, Alex Chatham of Elkin and Oliver Hauser of Pilot Mountain.

ART EXHIBIT TO BE A FEATURE OF PICNIC JULY 4TH

Some wise-cracker has said that the inalienable rights of every American citizen are: "Life liberty and pursuit of Happiness" European highbrows, and some of our own too, are continually reminding us that we are a bunch of money mad yokels totally devoid of any appreciation of the finer things of life. The South, especially has come in has always been considered a car for its full share of criticism. It ren soil for the production of art.

But those who think there is not art in the South have not searched very thoroughly. To an observant mind there is everywhere noticeable a rapidly developing interest in things aesthetic it is most noticeable in the more artistic types of houses that are being built and in the interest people generally are taking in landscaping their grounds. Not so noticeable, but still to be found here and there are quite a number of amateur artists who are producing work of more or less merit. These amateurs don't work for money—though God knows most of them need it—nor as a rule do they care for notoriety. But they are not so eccentric that they are not a little appreciation once in a while. And I believe the people in our small towns are more interested in art than is generally admitted.

Anyhow, the artists and near artists of Elkin and the surrounding neighborhood are going to put on an art exhibit. And it is too bad Mr. Sinclair Lewis can't be here to see, for it is going to be held right on Main Street! We can't hope for it to come up to the Metropolitan Museum nor the Louvre, but I am sure there will be a showing of a wide range of subjects, something that should interest everyone.

The time is the week of the 4th of July and the place is the building formerly occupied by the Carolina Stores, kindly loaned by Mr. Jim Greenwood, up till now, Elkin's only active patron of Art. And the price of admission will be nothing. However as is customary, there will be on sale catalogues listing the names of the pictures and the artists, and other valuable information. The returns from the sale of these catalogues will all go to the orphans. 'Nuff said. Anybody with a heart will buy one. But if you don't have a heart nor a dime come anyway and show the world that Elkin is a center of Art as well as industry.

ALL BUYERS TO BE REPRESENTED ON ELKIN MART

LAST OBSTACLE REMOVED IN WAY OF REOPENING OF MARKET

ARE ENTHUSIASTIC

Big Companies Assure Warehousemen They Will Send Their Best Here

All doubt was removed this week regarding the Elkin tobacco market when N. F. Fulton and J. G. Messick, representing the Liberty Warehouse and J. G. Flynt and W. G. Lindsay, representing the McNeer warehouse, were in town and each group of men announced that they had lined up all buyers known to the weed marts and all had signed to be represented on the Elkin floor.

The big buyers seemed to be enthusiastic over the reopening of the Elkin market and agreed without a moments hesitation to have some of their best buyers on the local floors.

Managers of both the warehouses plan to move to Elkin within the near future and begin an active campaign to cooperate with the farmers in planning their marketing this fall at a meeting of the warehousemen and buyers within the next ten days at Norfolk the opening dates for the various marts will be decided upon.

MANY PROMINENT MASONS TO COME FOR BIG PICNIC

LETTERS POUR IN FROM OVER STATE INDICATING BIG ATTENDANCE

With letters coming in every day from prominent Masons from over the state and others it appears that the Surry-Yadkin Wilkes Masonic Picnic which will be held in Elkin on July 4 this year, will attract a record breaking crowd of notables. C. K. Procter, past grand master and now superintendent of the Masonic Home at Oxford and John Phoenix, another past master of the state lodge, have already announced their intention of being in Elkin for the celebration while Mr. R. Bailey, manager of the picnic this year, has received scores of letters from persons from all over the state advising him of their intention to be here on that date.

There will be everything in Elkin on July 4 for the annual picnic event. There will be oratory in the afternoon with the address of Rev. J. R. Jester, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Winston-Salem, one of the best speakers in the state. Of course the big dinner will feature the whole day as heretofore when diners will partake of the best of everything possible. The picnic has long been known for its great dinners and this year will be no exception.

The annual horseshoe pitching contest in the afternoon will attract fans of this sport for many miles. Prizes for the winners of these events have been offered by F. A. Brendle & Son, Elkin National Bank, Elkin Furniture Company, J. C. Penney Company, Chatham Manufacturing Company, Surry Hardware Company, Snyder-Spahnour Company and the Snow Clothing Company. A double header baseball game will be played in the afternoon while the Lee's Riding Devices will furnish amusement throughout the day as well as the week of the picnic.

Music will be furnished by the Mt. Airy band. The chief attraction at night will be the big boxing carnival under the auspices of the American Legion headlined by a ten round fight between "KO" Conway and "Little Boy" Safriz besides three strong preliminaries and the "Free-for-All" fight between five local negroes.
