Joan Crawford, Clark Gable Show At Lyric

The attraction at the Lyric theatre starting today is "Possessed," in which Joan Crawford and Clark Gable have the leading roles. This picture, which was adapted from the Edgar Selwyn stage success, "The Mirage," is believed to be Miss Crawford's most ambitious effort in the straight dramatic field.

Wallace Ford, New York stage player; Skeets Gallagher, well-known talkie comedian; Frank Conroy, Marjorie White, John Miljan and Clara Blandick are important members of the supporting cast.

Wallace Beery and Jackie Cooper as a team! Such is the unique combination heading the cast of "The Champ," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's vivid drama of life on the Mexican border, which will be shown Monday and Tuesday, January 11th and 12th.

Beery plays a broke-down right champion, and the hero of "Skippy" is seen as his son in a poignant heart-interest tale in which much comedy and a few thrills are intermingled. King Vidor directed the production, from an original story by Frances Marion.

ADVERTISING

It would be difficult to find a business authority in these times that would not say that advertising is one of the very essential features in business. It performs a certain service that needs to be performed for successful operation, and if that service is lacking business suffers.

When you advertise a business among the people you desire to reach, you attract public attention to the merchandise provided by that business. The result is to draw people to see those goods, and to increase sales. A well advertised store ought to sell twice as many goods as one that is not advertised.
