Leap Year Dance at Hotel Elkin on Friday Evening

The most widely attended and enjoyable social affair of the week was the Leap Year dance given in the ballroom of Hotel Elkin on Friday evening. About thirty couples were invited and dancing was enjoyed from nine until one o'clock.

Mrs. Chatham Honors Son on Fourteenth Birthday

Mrs. Richard Chatham entertained at a delightful party at her home on East Main street Saturday evening, honoring her son, Richard Chatham, Jr., on his fourteenth birthday. The guest list included fourteen intimate friends of the honoree. Interesting games were enjoyed during the evening, after which delicious refreshments were served.

Presbyterian Auxiliary Observes Week of Prayer

Mrs. W. R. Wellborn was hostess to the members of the Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church at her home on Bridge street Monday afternoon. The program was in special observance of Week-of-Prayer and self-denial. Those taking part in the discussion were Mrs. Morgan Hanks, Mrs. Walter Greenwood and Mrs. W. R. Wellborn.

During a pleasant social hour, tempting refreshments were served.

Sunday School Class Holds Enjoyable Social Meeting

The L. B. Abernethy Sunday school class of the Methodist church held a delightful social meeting in the church parlors on Wednesday evening of last week. Various contests and games were enjoyed. The entertainment was under the direction of Mrs. Charles Robinson. Miss Kathleen Bailey was awarded a novelty prize for the most correct answers in the contest.

Refreshments, consisting of punch, cakes and mints were served at the conclusion of the meeting.

Call-Pointexter

Mrs. Veele Call of North Wilkesboro and Mr. C. Gray Poindexter of Booneville were married on October 28, 1931. Announcement of the marriage has just been made.

Mrs. Poindexter is the daughter of Mrs. Isaac Smith of North Wilkesboro and is popular amid a wide circle of friends. Mr. Poindexter is the son of Mrs. Kate Poindexter of Booneville and is prominently identified with the merchandising business in Virginia and Kentucky.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Poindexter are well-known here.

Mrs. Bryan Entertains at Club Luncheon

Mrs. Albert Bryan entertained the members of her bridge club at a delightful luncheon at her home on West Main street Wednesday. A beautifully-appointed collation was served upon the arrival of the guests. In the afternoon bridge was played at two tables, the honors falling to Mrs. Ruohs Pyron for making the highest score.

Those playing were: Mrs. Raymond Chatham, Mrs. Thomas Roth, Mrs. Alex Chatham, Mrs. Richard Chatham, Mrs. Carl Poindexter, Mrs. Ruohs Pyron and Mrs. Paul Gwyn.

Baptist Circles In Inspirational Meeting

The monthly inspirational meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church was held in the church parlors Monday afternoon, with a good attendance. Mrs. T. G. Harris, president of the society, presided over the business meeting.

An inspiring program was presented by the Lou Bray circle of the society, under the direction of Mrs. Roy West, assisted by Miss Ella Cockerham, Mrs. R. L. Poindexter and Mrs. C. A. McNeill. The lesson for study was taken from a current issue of the Royal Service.

Mrs. Jones Hostess to Thursday Book Club

Mrs. W. E. Jones was a charming hostess on Thursday afternoon, when she entertained the members of the Thursday Book Club at her home on Church street. Following the usual business meeting and the exchange of club books, the members hemmed linens for the Hugh Chatham Memorial hospital.

A salad course, with coffee, following a sweet course, was served the following guests: Mesdames Mason Lillard, W. R. Wellborn, W. N. Sherrill, Fred Colhard, George Royall, Harry Barker, F. W. Graham, E. C. Grier, Worth Graham and J. L. Hall.

Mason Lillard Class Guests of Mrs. Allen

The Mason Lillard Bible Class of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Marion Allen on Church street Monday evening, with Miss Bettie Allen as associate hostess.

ASPIR-MINT

"I was suffering from a bad Cold...
Dr. Miles' Aspir-Mint relieved Me."

These two sentences are from a letter sent to us by Gypsy Simon Smith.

Mr. Smith spends his public life in the germ-laden atmosphere of crowds in hall, church or tabernacle. He goes from an overheated meeting place into the outer air spiritually uplifted, but physically exhausted.

His profession demands that he do the very things that he should not do if he wants to avoid catching cold. He is in position to speak with authority on the subject.

If you have a Cold, or if you suffer from Headache, Neuralgia, Neuritis, Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lumbago, Toothache, Backache, Muscular Pains, Periodic Pains, Dr. Miles' Aspir-Mint will bring you relief.
