Mrs. Hayes Honors Out-of-Town Visitors at Luncheon
Mrs. Errol Hayes was a charming hostess on Thursday of last week when she entertained at a beautiful luncheon at her home on Church street, honoring her guests from nearby cities. Lovely pink and blue ragged robins, iris and California poppies were used in the dining room and living room of the home. The table held as a centerpiece a bowl of ragged robins and covers were placed for eight. An elaborate three-course luncheon was served.
The guests included Mrs. W. W. Whitaker, mother of the hostess, Mrs. D. C. Lewis and Mrs. Carl Snyder, Mt. Airy, Mrs. R. A. Frye and Mrs. George Reid of Pilot Mountain and Mrs. Matt Tuttle of Martinsville, Va.

Baptist Missionary Circles In Inspirational Meeting
The circles of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church, met in the church parlor on Monday afternoon for the regular inspirational meeting. The president, Mrs. T. G. Harris, presided over the meeting. Only routine business came up for discussion.

Mrs. F. M. Norman conducted the devotionals and Mrs. W. F. Reece, chairman of the Fannie Heck circle, presented a program from a current issue of Royal Service on "Christ in the Orient". She was assisted by Mesdames J. F. Mosley, I. S. Gambill and Ida Cockerham. A vocal duet, "Must I Go Empty Handed", by Mesdames F. M. Norman and H. G. Harris, concluded the program.

Twenty-six members of the different circles were present for the meeting.

Lucy Hanes Chatham Club in Initial Meeting

The Lucy Hanes Chatham Club, which was recently organized by the young women employed by Chatham Manufacturing company, held its initial meeting on Monday evening in the League room in the Methodist church. Miss Claudia Austin, who is leader of the Winston-Salem club, was present for the meeting and assisted in perfecting plans for the organization.

Following a brief devotional period the meeting was devoted to the election of officers. They are as follows: President, Miss Estelle Powers; vice-president, Miss Marguerite Lowery; secretary, Miss Irene Eldridge; treasurer, Miss Juanita Billings and reporter, Mrs. Catherine Brannon.

The meeting will be held weekly on Thursday evening and it is planned to construct a club room at an early date.

Miss Myrtle Norman and Miss Louise Transou were in charge of the devotional period after which Mrs. E. B. Lawrence presented the program for the month, using as her subject, "Christ in the Orient". She was assisted by Misses Martha

Will She Be First to Wed?

At Wellesley College for women, tradition is that the girl who wins the annual hoop-rolling contest will be the first bride of her class. Mildred Marcy of Newton Lower Falls, Mass., is this year's smiling winner.

Maguire, Eva Howard, Myrtle Norman, Ruby Norman, Mary Maguire, Hazel Byrd, Marguerite Lowery and Elizabeth Harris.

Following a brief business session the meeting closed with the hymn, "We've A Story to Tell to the Nations".

During the social hour the hostess served tempting refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Royall Honor Miss Harris and Mr. Farrell at Dinner
Honoring Miss Margaret Harris and Claude Farrell, whose wedding will be solemnized on Friday, Mr. and Mrs. George Royall entertained at a dinner party at their home on Church street Tuesday evening.

Covers were placed for eight at the beautifully-appointed table, centered with a miniature garden representing an out-door wedding. A color scheme of pink and white was carried out in detail in the decorations, pink roses and sweet peas being used in profusion throughout the home. A four-course dinner was served, the last course consisting of individual wedding cakes and moulded ices further accentuated the wedding motif.

The bride and groom-elect were presented with a pair of book-ends as a guest of honor prize.

Covers were placed for Miss Harris, Mr. Farrell, Miss Anna Atkinson, Mr. William Justice, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Freeman and Mr. and Mrs. Royall.

Mesdames Johnson and Freeman Hostesses to Mason Lillard Class

The Mason Lillard Bible class of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Harry L. Johnson on Church street on Tuesday evening, with Mrs. R. C. Freeman as associate hostess. Nineteen members, two visitors and one new member, Mrs. W. B. Lentz, were present.

The meeting opened with the hymn, "It Is Glory Just to Walk With Him," followed by the Lord's prayer in unison. Mrs. H. P. Graham, class president, read the scripture lesson and presided over the business meeting.

Mrs. Fletcher Harris presented a beautiful and inspiring program on "Prayer." Miss Blanche Dixon read the introductory paper, "The Hunt for the Beautiful." This was followed by a vocal solo, "An Evening Prayer," by Mrs. Fred Colhard. Two poems, "Someone Had Prayed" and the "The Evening Meal," by Grace Noll Cromwell, read by Mrs. Harris, concluded the program.

During a pleasant social hour the hostesses served an appetizing refreshment course.

Mrs. Graham Honors Miss Harris at Club Meeting

Mrs. F. W. Graham entertained the members of the Thursday Book Club and several additional guests at her home on West Main street, Thursday afternoon, honoring Miss Margaret Harris, whose wedding will be solemnized on Friday of this week.
