FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MISS PEGRAM

Well - Known Woman Died Friday After Short Illness

Miss Mollie Pegram died Friday night at nine o'clock, at her home east of Elkin, following a brief illness from ptomaine poison. She was about sixty years of age, and she, with two of her sisters, lived at the parental Pegram homestead. She was a daughter of the late Rev. Wesley Pegram and Mrs. Nancy Bryan Pegram, pioneer settlers of Elkin.

The funeral services were held from the home on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. In spite of the inclement weather approximately 700 people attended the service. Interment was in the family cemetery.

Miss Pegram was a member of the Methodist church and lived a consecrated life.

Surviving are three sisters: Misses Shirley and Aurora Pegram, of Elkin; Mrs. H. H. Baughan, of Dillard, Georgia, and three brothers: W. H. B. Pegram, of Alhambra, California; C. M. Pegram, of Goffery, South Carolina and Dr. R. W. S. Pegram, of Canton, N. C.

SURRY TO NAME REPRESENTATIVES

Six Primaries Will Have to be Held in State to Settle Senatorial Races in Other Counties

Raleigh, June 12.—Fairly complete returns on the legislative tickets in the 33 senatorial districts and 100 counties have been collected by Henry M. London, legislative reference librarian, as a result of the primary last Saturday.

The reports from the Senate districts show that six primaries will be required to complete the 50 senators, if the second men demand them including the 6th, 9th, 10th, 15th, 16th and 33rd, and one convention, in Randolph.

Eleven of the counties, Surry, Alexander, Burke, Caldwell, Cabarrus, Chowan, Clay, Randolph, Stokes, Watauga and Yancey, are yet to hold conventions to name Democratic candidates for representatives.

Wilkes Youth Wounded In Right Hand And Leg

North Wilkesboro, June 13.—Sheriff W. B. Somers was investigating the shooting today of Lester Bauguess, 23, who was shot in the right arm and leg late today as he was at work in a field. The sheriff said he had been told that the youth's father, Joe Bauguess, substantial Traphill township farmer, had fired through a crack in the granary, the shot striking his son. No explanation of the shooting was available.

RABBIT BREEDERS PLANNING A SHOW

Expert Delivered Interesting Talk At Last Meeting Here

An interesting meeting was held several days ago in the recorder's courtroom by the Progressive Rabbit Breeders' association here, the feature of the meeting being a talk on the rabbit industry by C. Roy Smith, rabbit and poultry expert of the Spartan Grain Mills, of Spartanburg, S. C.

Plans were made to hold a lawn rabbit show here August 25, at which time Mr. Smith will be present and bring with him a licensed judge to judge the various entries. A fee of 25 cents per rabbit will be charged non-members of the association who wish to enter their stock in the show.

The local association was formed for the purpose of securing a charter from the American Rabbit Breeders' association, which will entitle the local breeders to a registrar for this community.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday night, June 28. Approximately 800 rabbits are now owned by members of the association.

Hectic Days-Sleepless Nights

TOO MUCH work, too much mental strain, too much worry... then "NERVES". How they torture you, tire you, keep you awake nights!

"NERVES" make you irritable, restless; give you Headache, Indigestion... "NERVES" make you look and feel old... weaken resistance and pave the way for serious nervous or organic trouble. J. M. Foster, a druggist, suffered tortures from Over-wrought Nerves. He had dozens of so called "Nerve Remedies" in his store. One by one he tried them without relief until... But let Mr. Foster tell his experience in his own words.

"I think Dr. Miles' Nervine is the best nerve medicine made, and that a better one cannot be made. Dr. Miles' Nervine was the only medicine on the shelf or in the prescription case that put me on my feet." J. M. Foster, Druggist, Marysville, Ohio

Refutes Story About Drunken Brawl, Killing

A news story said to have been carried several weeks ago in a local daily to the effect that Clyde H. Cockerham, formerly of Surry county, but now in Piraeus, Greece, where he is connected with a tobacco company, had killed one man and wounded another in a drinking and gambling brawl there, and had himself been placed in a hospital with wounds, was declared absolutely untrue in a cablegram and letter received here by W. M. Allen, local attorney, several days ago.

Mr. Cockerham stated that, he didn't know how the report started.
