SOCIETY.

Junior G. A. Elects Officers
The Junior Girls' Auxiliary of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church held the December meeting at the home of Blanche Myers on North Bridge street, with sixteen members present.

The devotionals and program were in charge of Edwina Lawrence and Frances Scott Tilley.

During the business hour the following officers were elected for the new year: Leader, Mrs. F. M. Norman; president, Frances Scott Tilley; vice-president, Frances Alexander; pianist, Blanche Myers; secretary, Oleen Norman; treasurer, Edwina Lawrence; personal service chairman, Virginia Lawrence; program chairman, Ruth Buelin, and literature chairman, Louise Laffoon. During the social hour tempting refreshments were served and each member was given a small gift.

Woman's Club in Departmental Meetings

The departmental meetings of the Elkin Woman's Club were held on Tuesday afternoon in the following homes:

The Civics Department met at the home of Mrs. Cora W. Ipock on Bridge street, with twenty-one members and two visitors, Mrs. Enzo Jemma, of Rome, Italy and Miss Edith Neaves, present.

Mrs. E. F. McNeer, department chairman, presided over the meeting which opened with the club hymn, followed by the collect. A report from the committees of various departments concluded the brief business meeting.

Mrs. George Royall was program chairman for the month and she presented Miss Emma Cooke, who gave a most interesting and educational paper on the "Gardens of the Bible", closing with Christine Rosetti's beautiful poem, "Paradise". Mrs. Enzo Jemma of Italy, who is the guest of her mother, Mrs. L. I. Wade, told in a most entertaining manner of the gardens of Italy, particularly those of Rome. A vocal duet, "In Little Bethlehem", by Peggy Royall and Lena Sale; two vocal solos, "I Love a Little Cottage" (O'Hara) and "Miss Mary Won't You Come Into My Garden" (Bostelmann) by Miss Josephine Paul, with Miss Edith Neaves as accompanist and a piano solo "Apple Blossoms" (Ingleman), by Miss Neaves, completed a most enjoyable program.

During a pleasant social hour fruit cake and coffee were served by the following hostesses: Mrs. Ipock, Mrs. George Royall, Miss Emma Cooke, Mrs. H. F. Laffoon and Mrs. Roy Barker.

The Department of Citizenship met at the home of Mrs. E. B. Lawrence on Gwyn Avenue, with thirteen members present.

Mrs. Paul Gwyn, department chairman, presided over the meeting and Mrs. Albert Bryan was program chairman. Mrs. Bryan introduced Attorney A. D. Folger, of Dobson and Elkin, who gave a splendid talk on "Government", which was the topic chosen for the month.

Mrs. Walter R. Schaff sang two beautiful selections, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Bryan.

The Department of Education met at the home of Mrs. Mason Lillard on Gwyn Avenue, with fourteen members present. Mrs. C. S. Currier presided over the meeting and gave an introductory paper on "Events in Music", which was the subject for study.

This was followed by a paper on Millie Strickland, a southern composer, by Miss Ruth Eads. Miss Eads also played one of Miss Strickland's compositions as a piano solo. Mrs. George Wilson sang her composition, "Linda Lou", accompanied at the piano by Mrs. J. H. Beeson. Mrs. Wilson followed with a paper on Mrs. Beach and the concluding number was a piano solo by Miss Carolyn Lillard.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mesdames Mason Lillard, Lula Weir, J. S. Atkinson, R. L. Hubbard, W. A. Shore and Miss Elizabeth Harris.
