Questions Answered By State College

Question: Do you recommend black locust for forest planting?

Answer: Yes. The black locust grows very rapidly and is one of the most durable of woods in contact with the soil. This makes it desirable for fence posts and other building material that is put in or on the soil. It is also one of the legumes of the tree family and will enrich poor, eroded, or other depleted soil. A mixed planting of black locust, with pine is recommended for piedmont and eastern Carolina.

Question: Should a cow be milked clean up to freshening time?

Answer: Some dairymen follow this practice but it is not advisable as it always reduces the milk production during the following lactation period and is a heavy drain on the vitality of the cow. Each cow needs from one month to six weeks time before calving to build up bodily strength and to store up energy needed for calving and future milk production.

Question: How many eggs should a hen lay to pay the cost of her feed?

Answer: The number of eggs required naturally fluctuates with the cost of feed, but a good formula to follow is to divide the price of 100 pounds of feed by the selling price of eggs per dozen and multiply the result by three. This will give the number of eggs 100 hens should lay each day. From this the number can be figured for any size flock. If the flock is not paying feed costs, cull out the low producers. If it is paying, cull anyway and increase the profit per bird.

TO STAGE ROCKING CHAIR MARATHON

Will Begin At McNeer's Warehouse Here Monday, May 22nd

A "Rocking Chair" marathon, said to be the second of its kind ever to be staged in the United States, is scheduled to get under way here in McNeer's warehouse Monday night, May 22, and continue as long as any contestant remains rocking.

Sponsored by Lippincott, the Magician, well-known here, the marathon will also feature a museum of oddities, gathered from Surry and Yadkin counties, which anyone wishes to enter.

An added attraction in the form of hill billy entertainment as presented by Garley Foster, of Taylorsville, will also be on tap during the duration of the marathon.

Rules for the rocking chair contest provide for a prize of 25 per cent of the gross receipts for the entrant who rocks the greatest number of consecutive hours, the rocking time having been set at 50 minutes to the hour. Second prize winner will receive 10 per cent of the gross receipts and five per cent will go to the person who exhibits the most interesting oddity.

A nominal admission fee is to be charged. Those interested in entering the marathon or placing an exhibit should get in touch with Mr. Lippincott at the Lyric theatre or leave their name and address at the box office.

Teacher: "Repeat in your own words, 'I see the cow. The cow can run, the cow is pretty'."
