Mrs. John Reich of this City Honored in Statesville

Mrs. John Reich of this city, bride of the early summer, was feted at a charming bridge-luncheon given Wednesday by Mrs. Jack Dillon, at her home in Statesville. Luncheon was served at noon and an enjoyable game of bridge was played afterward. Mrs. Reich received a piece of silver in her wedding pattern as guest of honor. Others from this city enjoying Mrs. Dillon's hospitality, were: Mrs. E. F. McNeer, Mrs. Alden Hunt and Miss Ruth Gwyn.

Eight of Clubs Meets With Miss Ruth Gwyn

Miss Ruth Gwyn delightfully entertained the members of the Eight of Clubs Bridge Club at the regular bi-monthly meeting at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. G. Click, on Circle Court Tuesday evening. Lovely summer flowers were used in the living room, where two tables were placed for the games. Mrs. Thomas Roth made the highest score during the progressions and was given a lovely souvenir. Miss Josephine Gorham received a similar prize as runner-up.

Mrs. Reich Hostess at Bridge-Luncheon

One of the loveliest parties of the past week was on Thursday morning when Mrs. John Reich entertained at a bridge-luncheon at her home on Church street. Bridge was played from 10 until 1 o'clock, when a beautifully appointed luncheon was served from the buffet. A color scheme of yellow and pink was carried out in detail in the appointments.

Mrs. Alden Hunt and Mrs. Alex Chatham were awarded attractive gifts for high and low scores at the conclusion of the play. Mrs. E. G. Click and Mrs. W. R. Wellborn were additional guests for luncheon and Mrs. Click drew a box of dusting powder.

Those playing bridge were Mrs. Carl Poindexter, Mrs. R. B. Harrell, Miss Ruth Gwyn, Miss Sarah Click, Mrs. Alden Hunt, Mrs. R. L. Wilmoth, Mrs. Alex Chatham and Mrs. R. G. Smith.

Dr. and Mrs. Harrell Entertain Fortnightly Bridge Club

Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Harrell delightfully entertained the members of the Fortnightly Bridge Club and several additional guests at their home on West Main street Thursday evening. Lovely larkspur and roses made a pretty setting for the three tables, which were placed for the games. Miss Sadie Franklin received the high score prize, a hand-painted picture, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Schaff received the grand high score award, a lovely vase.

When the cards were removed a tempting refreshment course was served.

The following members were present: Dr. and Mrs. Harry L. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Allen, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Armfield, Mrs. Walter R. Schaff and Dr. and Mrs. Harrell. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Poindexter and Miss Sadie Franklin.

Mary Sale Honored On Twelfth Birthday

Honoring her daughter, Mary, on her twelfth birthday anniversary, Mrs. W. S. Sale entertained at a delightful party at her home on Bridge street Friday afternoon from three-thirty until five-thirty. Hearts were played at four tables. Rosamond Neaves scored highest in the games and was given an attractive souvenir. Elizabeth McNeil received a similar gift as booby prize.

When the games were finished the guests were invited into the dining room where they were served a prettily appointed ice course with cake. An attractive birthday scene was effected with garden flowers and a cake bearing twelve lighted candles. Favors were birthday candles.

The guests were Elizabeth McNeil, Betty Lou Evans, Edwina Lawrence, Harvison Smith, Helen Finney, Peggy Royall, Lena Sale, Sarah Lee Griffith, Mary and Frances Crater, Joe and Jerry Barker, Betsy and Nancy Mosley, Rosamond Neaves, Betty Armfield and the hostess.

Elkin Valley Garden Club Meets With Mrs. J. H. Beeson

Mrs. J. H. Beeson was hostess to the Yadkin Valley Garden Club at one of the most enjoyable meetings since the club was organized, at her home on West Main street Thursday afternoon. Mrs. W. W. Whitaker, club president, presided over the brief business session, at which time the new year books were distributed. The program on "Natural Gardens of North Carolina" was under the direction of Mrs. J. S. Atkinson. Mrs. George Royall described the grass sedge bogs in Pender county and Mrs. Atkinson gave a descriptive sketch of the unrivaled beauty of the great forests of the North Carolina mountains. As a final number Mrs. E. G. Click and Mrs. E. F. McNeer sang "The Old North State."

At the conclusion of the program the guests were served a two course supper on the lawn, overlooking the garden of the hostess.

Club members present were Mesdames J. S. Atkinson, W. W. Whitaker, George Royall, E. G. Click, W. R. Wellborn, Mason Lillard, H. P. Graham, Worth Graham, R. L. Harris and H. C. Salmons. Additional guests were Mrs. George Wilson, Mrs. Van Dillon, Mrs. A. L. Griffith and Mrs. T. W. Church of Winston-Salem.

E. H. S. Seniors Feted at Many Parties

The members of the graduating class of Elkin High School, who received their diplomas on Tuesday evening, have been the guests of honor at many social fetes during the past week.

On Wednesday evening Miss Thornburn Lillard entertained for them at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Lillard, on Gwyn Avenue. Attractive prizes were awarded Miss Mary Virginia Barker, a member of the faculty and Sam Neaves, a class member, in drawing for prizes at the close of the games. On Thursday afternoon Miss Mary Elizabeth Harris entertained at a lawn party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Harris, on West Main street. The entertaining hours were from 4:30 until 6:30.

On Friday evening little Miss Cynthia Allen and Harry Johnson, Jr., class mascots, entertained at the home of the latter's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Harry L. Johnson.

Monday evening they were the guests of Abernethy's Pharmacy immediately following the Class Day program at the school auditorium. A color scheme of blue and gold was carried out with lovely blue delphinium and yellow poppies. Sundaes, cakes and salted nuts were served. Miss Margaret Sale drew a memo book and Fred Colhard a Shaeffer pencil in a contest for the prizes. The class mascots were given boxes of candy.

Miss Paul Honors Guest and Bride at Afternoon Party

Honoring her house-guest, Miss Louise McDearman, of Rocky Mount, and Mrs. John Reich, a bride of the summer, Miss Josephine Paul entertained at a lovely party at her home on Terrace Avenue Tuesday afternoon. Bridge was played at five tables. Pink and crimson rambler roses and larkspur were used in the attractive decorations.

Mrs. Thomas Roth received a pair of red hob nail vases for making the highest score during the games and Miss Edith Neaves received a red leather compact as consolation. Miss McDearman was given a compact and Mrs. Reich a piece of linen as guests of honor. Miss Tuttle Perry, of Canton, guest of Mrs. J. N. Freeman and Miss Josephine Gorham, of Rocky Mount, guest of Mrs. Albert Bryan, were given linen handkerchiefs.

A salad course followed by a sweet course was served at the conclusion of the play.

Those making up the tables were: Miss McDearman, Mrs. Reich, Mrs. Thomas Roth, Mrs. Edwin Harris, Miss Ruth Gwyn, Miss Elizabeth Turner, Mrs. Alden Hunt, Mrs. Lorene Snow Whitaker, Mrs. Robert James, Miss Sarah Click, Mrs. Claude Farrell, Miss Josephine Gorham, Miss Mary Virginia Barker, Mrs. J. Dobson Woman's Club In Final Meeting of Club Year

The Dobson Woman's Club met Thursday evening at the club house with a 99 per cent membership attendance. This was the final meeting of the club year, the meetings to be resumed in September. The feature of the meeting was a banquet.

The club house was transformed into a bower of spring flowers. The tables, placed in T shape, were extremely colorful and beautiful. The centerpiece was a Maypole surrounded by miniature dolls and rainbow ribbons. Gorgeous roses graced the long tables at intervals and small bouquets of ragged robins were attached to the place cards. Covers were placed for forty-one members.

The meeting opened with prayer by Mrs. G. E. Mock, which was followed by the club song and collect. The president, Miss Emma Comer, presided over the meeting, and gave an interesting report of the State Federation meeting recently held in Raleigh. Mrs. W. E. Reid gave a report of the social festivities of the convention.

A solo, "Little Brown Bird", by Mrs. M. A. Lewis and a musical reading by Mrs. W. J. Thore, accompanied by Miss Georgia Fulk, were well received.

One new member, Mrs. Rosa Booker, was added to the club roll.

Final reports for the year were given by the secretary and treasurer. Funds in the amount of $423.80 have been raised by the club during the year and expended for civic improvements in the surrounding community.

Old-Time Singing To Be Held at Harmony

There will be an old-time singers' meeting at Harmony, Sunday, June 4th. The services will begin at 9:30 and continue through the day. The old Christian Harmony song book will be used. Special quartets by various singers will be the feature of the day's entertainment. Everyone is most cordially invited to attend, especially those that like the old time songs.
