Mr. and Mrs. Reich Given Farewell Courtesy

As a farewell courtesy to Mr. and Mrs. John Reich, who were recently married and left the latter part of the week for Bethesda, Maryland, to make their home, Miss Edith Neaves entertained at a most enjoyable dance at her home on Bridge street Wednesday evening, having as her guests about forty members of the young social set.

Punch and sandwiches were served from the buffet during intermission.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Poindexter Hosts At Picnic

One of the most delightful and widely attended affairs of the week was on Monday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Carl Poindexter entertained at a picnic in the grove back of their home on Gwyn Avenue. Supper was cooked over the open fire and outdoor games were played. Later in the evening the guests were entertained at bridge. Mrs. C. G. Armfield won the ladies' high score award and R. G. Smith received the gentlemen's prize at the conclusion of the play. About forty guests enjoyed Mr. and Mrs. Poindexter's hospitality.

Misses Margaret and Caroline Lillard Honor Guests at Luncheon

Misses Margaret and Caroline Lillard entertained at a most delightful luncheon at their home on Gwyn Avenue Friday, honoring their guests, Misses Florence Moffett, of Charlotte, and Miss Annabelle Smith, of Dunn. Covers were placed for nine at a lovely table, centered with a bowl of mixed garden flowers.

Other guests were college friends of the Misses Lillard at Queens-Chicora College, Charlotte. They were: Misses Fannie Gregory and Jane Bradley, of Mocksville; Misses Mary and Claudie McCasney, of Woodruff, South Carolina, and Miss Mary Poe Murray, of Evisito Island, South Carolina.

Mrs. Bryan Hostess to Wednesday Bridge Club

Mrs. Albert Bryan entertained the members of her bridge club at a luncheon at her home on West Main Street Wednesday. Lovely mixed garden flowers made a pretty centerpiece for the table. Covers were placed for eight.

Following the luncheon bridge was played at two tables. Mrs. Carl Poindexter scored highest in the progressions and was given an attractive souvenir.

The following members were present: Mesdames Ruohs Pyron, Raymond Chatham, Alex Chatham, Carl Poindexter, Hardin Graham, Thomas Roth, Richard Chatham and Mrs. Bryan.

Mr. and Mrs. James Poindexter Entertain Bridge Club

Mr. and Mrs. James Poindexter entertained the members of their bridge club and several additional guests at their home on Bridge street Thursday evening, complimenting Miss Josephine Gorham, of Rocky Mount, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bryan.

Bridge was played at five tables. The club award was given Dr. and Mrs. B. E. Pulliam and Mrs. Thomas Roth won the visitor's prize. Miss Gorham also received a lovely gift as guest of honor.

With the removal of the cards a tempting refreshment course was served.

Those making up the tables were: Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. Ruohs Pyron, Mr. and Mrs. Errol Hayes, Dr. and Mrs. B. E. Pulliam, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Roth, Mrs. Raymond Chatham, Miss Maude Greenwood, Miss Ruth Gwyn, Miss Edith Neaves, Miss Josephine Gorham, Paul Gwyn, Dr. Hugh Parks, John Sagar and Dick Chatham.

Rev. and Mrs. Eph Whisenhunt Honor Graduates

Rev. and Mrs. Eph Whisenhunt entertained at a delightful party at their home on Church street Thursday evening, honoring the members of their church who received diplomas from the local school. A color scheme of blue and gold, the class colors, was carried out in detail in the decorations of the home. Miss Effie Crater assisted in entertaining the guests.

At the conclusion of the games the guests were invited into the dining room where they were served a beautifully-appointed refreshment course. The dining table was arched with a blue and gold trelis, entwined with flowers in the chosen colors. The table was centered with a miniature lake surrounded by evergreens. On the lake was a doll dressed in a cap and gown in a boat, symbolic of the class motto, "Tonight we launch, where shall we anchor?"

The guests were: Misses Martha Maguire, Mary Elizabeth Harris, Maude Masten, Marguerite Lowery, Margaret Sale, Osa Holyfield and Marvoren Combs. Messrs. Sam Neaves, Thompson Greenwood, Rufus Crater, Billy Wellborn, Odell Lawrence, Fred Harris and Walter Minniss.

Methodist Circles in Interesting Sessions

The circles of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church met Friday afternoon in the following homes:

At the conclusion of the program each hostess served a tempting refreshment course.

Baptist Circles in Regular Group Meetings

The Circles of the Woman's Missionary Union of the First Baptist church met on Monday afternoon in the regular monthly meeting in the following homes:

The Fannie Heck circle met at the home of Mrs. Gurney Hampton, on Elk Spur street, with eight members present. The devotionals were in charge of Mrs. F. A. Brendle and an interesting program from a current issue of Home and Foreign Fields was given by Mrs. Hampton, Mrs. George Chatham and Miss Ella Cockerham.

The Lou Bray circle met at the home of Mrs. L. F. Walker, on Church street, with eleven members and one visitor present. Mrs. W. J. Thurman presided over the meeting and the devotionals were in charge of Mrs. C. R. Alexander.

An article on "Shall Our Mission Work Halt?" by Mrs. Roy West was followed by a paper on "Twenty-five Years of Mexican Mission Work" by Mrs. W. W. Byrd. "A Little Book Called the New Testament", by Mrs. J. G. Gilliam, was the concluding paper.

The Lottie Moon circle met at the home of Mrs. T. V. Cockerham, in Chatham Park, with eight members present. The devotionals were in charge of Mrs. R. L. Poindexter and Mrs. I. S. Gambill directed the program, assisted by Mrs. J. M. Tilley, Mrs. Ida Cockerham and Mrs. Lula Weir.

At the conclusion of the program Mrs. F. M. Norman gave an interesting report of the joint session of the Southern and Northern Baptist Convention recently held in Washington, D. C., which she attended.

The Pearl Johnson Circle met at the home of Miss Mattie Mae Powell on West Main street Tuesday evening with eight members present. The program and devotionals were in charge of Mrs. David Brendle. Mrs. Brendle, assisted by Mrs. T. G. Harris, Mrs. Silas Nichols and Miss Lee Mae Lowery, presented a most instructive and interesting program on "Youth."

At the close of the program each hostess served tempting refreshments.

Windsor Cross Roads News

Miles Vestal is confined to bed on account of rheumatism. He has not been able to be up and about for two weeks. Mr. Vestal is also recovering from a tonsil operation.

Miss Wilma Soine, of Coolee, is visiting Mrs. Pearl Windsor.

The farmers of this section are having a lot of trouble getting a stand of tobacco, due to dry weather. The farmers are rushing to get over their crops for harvest is right at hand.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of dear friend, neighbor and sister, Mrs. Bessie A. Renegar, born September 21st, 1902, died May 7, 1933. Age 30 years, 7 months, 15 days.

Now that the all-wise God, who doeth all things well has seen fit to call from us our dear friend and sister, we submit to His great will. The entire community will mourn its heavy loss, while realizing Heaven's gain.

There is a vacancy in Sunday school and church which no one can fill, although her death was not in vain, for our loss is Heaven's eternal gain.

She was a devoted mother, a good neighbor and was loved by all who knew her. Her body shall know no more pain here. She has put on that immortal body of perfectness to which pain nor sorrow never comes. She has fought a good fight. She has kept the faith, her work is finished here. She has now gone on to receive her crown which the Saviour had prepared for her there.

'Tis hard to break the tender cord when love has bound the heart, 'Tis hard, so hard, to speak the words, "We must forever part."

Dearest loved one we must lay thee in the peaceful grave's embrace, but thy memory will be cherished 'til we see thy Heavenly face.

J. B. Mitchell, M. H. Collins, Mrs. H. D. Woodruff, Mrs. J. L. Darnell, Mrs. E. G. Jordan, Committee.

Prosperity may not be awake, but it seems to be aware that the alarm clock is ringing.—Indianapolis News.

"I'd forgotten how swell it feels to ride on new tires all around"

• No question about it, it certainly feels great to have the sure-gripping, long-wearing, quick-stopping safety of new Goodyears on every wheel. . . . And for less than a single tire cost a few years ago, you can buy a whole set of Goodyear All-Weathers now! So take advantage of present low prices while you can still get them. . . . You can buy the world's best-known safety tread, the Goodyear All-Weather, with grip in the center of the tread where you need it for safety—you can get the protection from blowouts provided by patented Goodyear Supertwist cord—at prices you may never see again. . . . It's smart buying to get set for the summer with new Goodyears all around—and the way prices are headed, if you buy now you stand a chance of getting all four tires for no more than you may later have to pay for three.
