

THE ELKIN TRIBUNE

VOL. No. XXII, No. 42

ELKIN, N. C., THURSDAY, AUGUST 31, 1933

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

LATE NEWS from the State and Nation

Hurry Beer

Richmond, Va., Aug. 29.—Virginia will have legal beer Labor day and will vote on state prohibition repeal October 3.

Arrest Insull

Athens, Aug. 29.—The United States won a victory in the Athens appeal court today when it formally sanctioned the arrest and detention of Samuel Insull pending an extradition hearing.

Repeal Leads

Seattle, Aug. 29.—First returns in Washington's repeal election from widely separated sections of the state tonight showed wet delegates leading by substantial majorities in nearly all districts.

Fight New Disease

St. Louis, Aug. 29.—The government today pitted the full force of its scientific battalions against the mysterious and devastating "sleeping sickness" as eight additional federal experts were ordered to St. Louis by Surgeon General Hugh S. Cumming, of the U. S. Public Health service.

2,000,000 New Jobs

Washington, Aug. 29.—The statement that 2,000,000 people had been given jobs under the NRA employment drive was made tonight by Hugh S. Johnson, national recovery administrator.

In his speech, Johnson said though 2,000,000 persons already had received jobs in the re-employment campaign, the drive had only begun.

Price Disappointing

Raleigh, Aug. 29.—Heavy sales marked the opening of the bright leaf tobacco belt today. Although comparatively few tags were turned, many growers appeared disappointed.

Because of the volume of sales, which were blocked on several markets, few official figures were available tonight but a general average of between 11 and 12 cents a pound was indicated.

Hoey Plays Fool

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 29.—Fresh talcum powder brushed over a two inch cut above his left eye, Senator Huey P. Long of Louisiana today lambasted Milwaukee newspapers, Wall street, and certain policies of the Roosevelt administration.

Newspapers which had commented concerning the source of his injury were termed "skunks and polecats." Wall street was charged with attempting to "make the world safe for plutocracy," and the administration was told to "go to hell with its Louisiana patronage."

JONESVILLE CHURCH TO HOLD REVIVAL

Dr. M. A. Adams, of Jonesville, S. C., To Preach

A series of revival services expected to continue for 10 days or two weeks is to get under way at the Jonesville Baptist church next Sunday, September 3, it was announced Monday by the pastor, Rev. J. L. Martin.

Dr. M. A. Adams, of Jonesville, S. C., will conduct the revival. He is widely known as a preacher of unusual ability.

Morning services will be held at 11:00 o'clock and the evening services will begin at 7:30. Afternoon services will be held each day except Saturdays at 3:00 p. m.

The public is cordially invited to attend the series of services.

Yadkin Schools To Open September 18

All Yadkin county schools will open for the eighth months term on September 18. The county school system is made up of 42 small schools—13 one-teacher, 22 two-teacher and five three-teacher schools and five high schools.

Kidnap and Murder

Above, Harvey Bailey, captured by Federal Agents near Dallas, Tex. Below, Albert Bates, taken at Denver, both charged with being principals in the kidnaping of C. F. Urchel, wealthy Oklahoma oil man for whose release a large ransom was paid. Bailey will likely be tried for murder committed in Kansas City depot machine-gun massacre.

RAYMOND PARDUE FATALLY SCALDED

Dies In Local Hospital As Result of Boiler Blow-Out

Scalded by live steam about 7:30 Wednesday morning while firing a boiler at the W. E. Sale cannery near Little Elkin church, Raymond Pardue, 19, died in Hugh Chatham hospital here about 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

George Poplin, Jr., also an employee of the cannery, was burned and bruised in the explosion, but his hurts did not prove serious.

According to Mr. Sale, the accident occurred when the boiler, steaming too fast for the pop-off valve to take care of the excess steam, gave way directly over the fire box, the live steam blowing open the door and spraying Pardue, who was standing close by. Poplin, he said, was blown approximately 10 feet, but due to the distance he was standing from the boiler, escaped serious injury.

Mr. Sale, who was standing to the rear of the boiler, was also covered with steam and cinders when the rear door was blown off the hinges.

Immediately after the accident Pardue was rushed to the local hospital, but his injuries were beyond medical aid.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon (Thursday), at 2 o'clock from Little Elkin church.

Surviving are the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Pardue, and two sisters and one brother. The deceased was a nephew of Mr. Sale.

Services At Galloway Memorial Church

Rev. Edwin C. Hurst, of Mount Airy, will conduct services at the Galloway Memorial church in this city Sunday afternoon, September 3, at 3:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

Home-Coming Day

There will be a Home-Coming day at Old Center Methodist church, near Mocksville, Davie county, next Sunday, September 6. The services will begin at 10 o'clock in the morning.

There will be an old-time singing during the day with Rev. W. V. Brown, of Cycle, leading the choirs. The public is invited to attend the service.

Dr. White Resigns From County Board Of Education

Dr. Thomas R. White, local dentist, has tendered his resignation to the Surry county board of education of which he is a member, to become effective at the next regularly scheduled meeting, he announced Tuesday morning.

Dr. White declined to discuss the reason for his resignation other than to state that he cannot spare the time from his professional duties.

SURRY COUNTY DRYS PREPARE FOR DRIVE AGAINST WET FOES

Local Man Is Named Vice Chairman Of Organization

TO MEET SUNDAY

Meeting in Dobson Saturday to hear an address by George Burnett, of Raleigh, organizer of the dry forces of North Carolina, a large number of Surry citizens who are against the repeal of the 18th amendment organized a central committee as a first step in the county-wide drive to be made in the interest of prohibition.

Elkin, Mount Airy, Dobson, Pilot Mountain and other points of the county were represented. The organization perfected was as follows:

Chairman, W. F. Carter, Mount Airy; vice chairman, E. C. James, of this city; secretary, Mrs. J. L. Woltz, Mount Airy; treasurer, C. C. Pierson, Mount Airy.

Mrs. R. L. Flippin, of Pilot Mountain, was named township chairman of the Pilot Mountain district.

Sunday afternoon, September 2, was set for another meeting at Dobson at which time the organization of the townships of the county will be perfected preparatory for the concerted county-wide drive against repeal. The meeting is to begin at 2 o'clock.

TRAP HILL SCHOOL FACULTY IS NAMED

D. R. Wright Is Re-elected To Serve As Principal

At a meeting of the Trap Hill school district central committee a few days ago, D. R. Wright was re-elected principal of the Trap Hill high school. He has served in that position for the past four years.

The school there will have eight teachers this year. The full faculty as elected by the committee follows:

D. R. Wright, principal; C. M. Dickerson, history; C. P. Farmer, science; Miss Beatrice Holbrook, English.

Elementary teachers: Miss Sallie Belle Yale, sixth and seventh grades; Miss Mildred Holbrook, fourth and fifth grades; Miss Verma McCann, second and third grades; Mrs. Lena T. Billings first grade.

The Trap Hill central committee is composed of J. W. McBride, Wesley Joiner and D. C. Castevens.

FAIR CATALOGUE OFF THE PRESS

Yadkin County Fair To Be Held October 17, 18, 19, 20

The premium list of the eighth Yadkin County Fair has come from the press and is now in process of distribution. The fair will be held at East Bend October 17, 18, 19 and 20.

Plans have been made to feature a wide variety of exhibits this year and an extremely attractive premium list has been provided.

In addition to the exhibits the fair will feature a midway made up of rides, shows and all other attractions to be found at an event of this kind.

It has been announced that the annual beauty contest conducted by The Yadkin Ripple will again be a feature.

Dr. Albert Keiser Is Visitor Here

Dr. Albert Keiser, head of the English Department of Lenoir-Rhyne College, Hickory, North Carolina, visited with superintendent Walter R. Schaff yesterday. Dr. Keiser plans to spend several days at Roaring Gap.

Dr. Keiser has traveled widely in both America and Europe and has written several books. His latest work, "The Indian in American Literature," will be published in October by the Oxford University Press, New York City.

NRA Drive Is On Here To Bring Every Person Under the Blue Eagle

Final Meeting Is Held At Hotel Elkin Monday Night Preparatory To Drive. Every Employer And Every Consumer Is Expected To Have Joined By End Of Week. S. P. U. And Furniture Company Under Code.

The NRA drive to bring every employer and every consumer of Elkin and vicinity under the banner of the Blue Eagle got under way here Tuesday following a final meeting of the local NRA committee at Hotel Elkin Monday night, at which time final plans for the drive—which is also under way throughout the nation—were completed.

Late Wednesday afternoon it was reported by C. G. Armfield, chairman of the committee, that gratifying success was being attained and that by the end of the drive it was expected to have Elkin 100 per cent in support of the NRA.

At the meeting Monday, Mrs. Carl Poindexter was named to serve as Lieut.-General to replace Mrs. Harry L. Johnson, who declined to serve following her appointment at the organization meeting of the committee. Working under the direction of Mrs. Poindexter are a large number of volunteers whose object is to get the signature of every consumers' agreement to patronize only those establishments which are members of NRA.

Thus far, it is understood, only two consumers have declined to sign the agreement one, a woman, stating that she must first consult her attorney, and the other, a man, stating that "it might cramp me in my operations." It is generally thought that only those not under the NRA will be cramped in their operations.

The manpower brigade, under the direction of Colonel A. O. Bryan, is

(Continued on Last Page)

YADKIN TO APPLY FOR FEDERAL FUNDS

Needed To Finance Ambitious School Building Program

Application will be made to the federal government within the next few days for funds with which to provide adequate school buildings for Yadkin county, according to J. T. Reece, superintendent of schools in that county.

It is expected that Yadkin's will be the first application filed for aid from the federal public works fund for school purposes. This is the result of prompt action by the Yadkin board of county commissioners, which voted two to one sometime ago to proceed with a building program to house the children of the county who are at present underprivileged in the matter of school buildings, as compared with other counties in the state.

It is expected that the necessary funds will be obtained from the government at four per cent interest and that the government will make a grant to the county of 30 per cent of the required amount.

Elkin Fair Catalog Will Be Ready Soon

The premium list and catalog of the Elkin Community Fair will probably be ready for distribution the first of next week. This is the second annual event of this nature staged here and an attractive list of prizes is offered as well as a varied and attractive program of entertainment for the two nights and one day of the fair.

S. P. U. Employee Is Blinded By Flame

Ed Gray, an employee of the Southern Public Utilities company received serious injury to his eyes Tuesday when wires upon which he was working "shorted," throwing flame into his face.

At last reports Mr. Gray had not regained his vision, but it is hoped that his injuries will not permanently affect his sight.

Jeffress' Letter Revives Hope That Road May Be Built

Receipt of a letter by a local man from E. B. Jeffress, chairman of the state highway commission, has revived hope here that the proposed and long sought for Elkin-North Wilkesboro highway may eventually be constructed.

Mr. Jeffress' letter was as follows: "I am in receipt of yours of August eighth with reference to Elkin-Wilkesboro road."

"I shall be very glad to urge this matter for early construction after we have made a definite location. I am hopeful of having a survey party complete this location soon."

May Be Ambassador

Jefferson Caffrey, above, is the man slated to be the new U. S. Ambassador to Cuba, to relieve Sumner Welles, who it is reported will come home to be Assistant Secretary of State.

WILLIAM H. BARNES FATALLY INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Accident Occurs Near Harmony In Iredell County

DIES IN HOSPITAL

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the First Baptist church in this city for William Harrison Barnes, 20, who was fatally injured in an automobile accident near Harmony Sunday morning. Barnes was injured when a truck owned by Thomas Rose and driven by James Shumate left the highway, struck a telephone pole and then veered into the yard of a nearby home and struck a tree, turning over and pinning Barnes underneath.

The party was returning from Cherryville when the accident occurred, they having carried a load of the Lee riding devices there late Saturday night.

Both Shumate and Rose were injured but not badly enough for hospital treatment. Barnes, in addition to a crushed skull also received a broken jaw and a badly lacerated eye as well as lacerations of the body.

Rushed to Hugh Chatham hospital the young man lived until Sunday night, although he did not regain consciousness.

An investigation of the accident by Policeman J. L. Darnell and Highway Patrol Corporal W. B. Lentz, who went to the scene of the accident, disclosed that the accident was purely accidental and no blame has been attached to the driver of the truck or his companion.

The deceased was the son of Mrs. Mary Sprinkle Hutchinson and W. F. Barbes, the latter of Johnson City, Tenn., who survive in addition to a half-brother, Carlton Day, of Elkin.

The services were in charge of Rev. Eph Whisenant, pastor of the church and interment was in the Jonesville cemetery.

ANNUAL PICNIC IS SUCCESS AS USUAL

Hon. Tam Bowie Makes Fine Address; Good Crowd Present

Ideal weather and a good program including everything from speeches to baseball and concerts to hobby horses made the annual Surry-Yadkin-Wilkes Masonic picnic, held here last Thursday, a big success, with a goodly crowd in attendance.

The feature of the morning program, which was held at the picnic grounds, was an inspiring address by Hon. Tam C. Bowie, of West Jefferson, and a short talk by Judge J. W. Padgett, grand master of the Grand Lodge of Virginia.

Other fine features of the program included a concert by the singing class of the Oxford Orphanage and a band concert by the Mt. Airy band.

Two baseball games, a free-for-all boxing bout and the Lee riding devices furnished further entertainment and enjoyment for those attending the picnic.

Judge Bowie was introduced by Marion Allen, local attorney, who stated something to the effect that one of these days Judge Bowie

(Continued On Last Page)

Tax Books Are Turned Over To Deputy Hurt

Tax books for Elkin township for the years 1930-31 and 32 have been turned over to Deputy Sheriff Crawford Hurt, it was announced last week by Sheriff John D. Thompson, who stated that those desiring to pay their taxes would be accommodated by Mr. Hurt at any time they might see him. On Saturdays Mr. Hurt will be found at the Snow Clothing company.

Otis Sprinkle Gets 6 Months On Roads

Otis Sprinkle, of Elkin, charged with manslaughter in connection with the recent death of Eb Sprinkle a relative, also of Elkin, was found guilty in Wilkes superior court and sentenced to serve six months on the roads.