Wood-Hayes

A wedding of cordial interest to friends of the contracting parties here and in Yadkin county is that of Miss Maude Wood of this city to Hugh Hayes of Cycle, which was solemnized at Independence, Virginia, Saturday, October 7, with T. R. Windsor officiating.

Transou and Wood Families in Reunion

The members of the families of H. D. and Walter Transou and Paul Wood met in a reunion on the Shoe Factory grounds Sunday, October 8. About thirty-five members of the three families were present for the event. A bountiful dinner was served picnic style from a large table erected on the grounds. The afternoon was spent in exchanging reminiscences. It was decided to make the event an annual affair and invite all members of the families to participate in the celebration.

Mrs. Spainhour Two-Four Club Hostess

Mrs. Eugene Spainhour was hostess to the members of the Two-Four Bridge Club at the regular fortnightly meeting on Thursday. Following a beautifully appointed luncheon which was served upon the arrival of the guests at one o'clock, bridge was played at two tables. Mrs. Paul Gwyn received a pair of hose at the conclusion of the play for scoring highest during the progressions.

Those making up the tables were Mrs. Paul Gwyn, Miss Maude Greenwood, Mrs. E. C. Grier, Mrs. James Poindexter, Mrs. Albert Bryan, Mrs. R. G. Smith, Mrs. B. E. Pulliam of Winston-Salem, and Mrs. Spainhour.

Dan Woodruff Honored On 66th Birthday Anniversary

Dan Woodruff was honored on his 66th birthday anniversary Sunday at the home of his son, Brady Woodruff when Mrs. Woodruff and their children tendered him a surprise birthday dinner.

Only the immediate family of the honor guest was present for the event. They were: Mr. and Mrs. Dan Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. Brady Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. William Bostic and Mr. Bostic, all of Elkin.

A bountiful dinner was served from a large table, centered with a beautifully-decorated birthday cake, bearing 66 lighted candles.

Mesdames O. E. and R. G. Boles Hostesses to W. M. U.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Jonesville Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. R. G. Boles in Jonesville Wednesday evening, with Mrs. O. E. Boles associate hostess. Fourteen members and two visitors were present.

Mrs. J. D. Compton, program chairman, presented an interesting program, using as her topic, "Winning Japan Through Education." The devotionals were in charge of Miss Clara Bell. Miss Mildred Ingram, president of the society, presided over the business meeting.

which was followed by a pleasant social hour, during which the hostesses served tempting refreshments.

Jonathan Hunt Chapter of D. A. R. in Club Meeting

A call business meeting of the Jonathan Hunt Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was held at the home of Mrs. Joe Bivins in Gwyn Avenue Wednesday afternoon. Plans were made for work to be done during the coming year and Mrs. W. R. Wellborn, Mrs. Joe Bivins, Mrs. Herbert H. Stevens and Miss Sadie Franklin were elected delegates to attend the district meeting to be held in Lenoir next week.

During a social hour at the conclusion of the business session tempting refreshments were served the following members: Mrs. Eph Whisenant, Mrs. H. T. Brown, Mrs. R. G. Smith, Mrs. Herbert H. Stevens, Miss Sadie Franklin and Mrs. Bivins.

Miller-Rogers

A wedding of interest to friends here and in Boone is that of Miss Dollie Miller and Thomas Rogers, which was recently solemnized at Independence, Virginia. Miss Hazel Osborne attended the bride as maid of honor and Ray Pannel served as best man.

The bride was dressed in a becoming ensemble of blue satin, with matching accessories. She is the daughter of Mrs. E. W. Walker, of Boone, but has been making her home in this city for several months.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Rogers, of Asheville, and has been connected with the rug department of Chatham Manufacturing company for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers will reside in Asheville.

Mrs. Poindexter Hostess to Wednesday Bridge Club

Mrs. Carl Poindexter delightfully entertained the members of the Wednesday Bridge Club at the regular meeting at her home on Gwyn Avenue Wednesday of last week. The guests were invited for luncheon at one o'clock. During the afternoon bridge was played at two tables. Mrs. Richard Chatham won the club prize for scoring the most points during the progressions. Mrs. Oscar Merritt and Mrs. Natt Smith, of Mt. Airy, and Mrs. W. H. Bolling, of Roaring Gap, out-of-town guests, were given attractive souvenirs.

Those enjoying Mrs. Poindexter's hospitality were: Mesdames Merritt, Smith and Bolling, Mrs. Richard Chatham, Mrs. Raymond Chatham, Mrs. Albert Bryan, Mrs. Alex Chatham, Mrs. Thomas Roth and Mrs. Hardin Graham.

Fortnightly Bridge Club Enjoys Progressive Supper

The members of the Fortnightly Bridge club enjoyed a progressive supper, followed by an interesting series of games on Thursday evening. The members were first invited to the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Harrell on West Main street, where they were served a delicious squirrel stew, with numerous accessories. Later they went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Allen where they were served a tempting dessert. They remained at the Allen home where bridge was played at three tables, with Mrs. C. H. Brewer winning the high score award for the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Allen were given the grand club award for making the most points during a series of meetings.

Members enjoying the event were: Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brewer, Dr. and Mrs. Harry L. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Schaff, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Allen and Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Armfield.

Parent-Teachers Hold Annual Reception

The Parent-Teachers Association held its annual reception in the main hall of the school building on Monday evening, complimenting the teachers of the local school. A receiving line, composed of the members of the faculty members of the school board, and Mrs. H. P. Graham president of the Parent-Teacher Association, was formed at the entrance of the hall. The guests were presented to the receiving line, after which they were served delicious punch and wafers. Gorgeous dahlias in tall floor baskets were used throughout the hall and the punch bowl was surrounded by lovely flowers in brilliant autumn colors.

Mrs. E. G. Click, in her usual charming manner gave "Alice Blue Gown," from the opera, "Irene" as a vocal solo and Mrs. George Wilson delighted the audience with two numbers, "Jean" (Burleigh) and "Cuckoo," (Lehman). Mrs. Albert Bryan played the accompaniments.

No, Alphonse, we do not think it was wise for you to tell your wife exactly what you thought of her relatives.
