Parent-Teachers To Meet Tuesday
The Parent-Teacher Association will meet in the school building Tuesday afternoon, November 28, at 3:30. All members are requested to attend.

Stag Dinner Honoring Dr. Click's Birthday
Complimenting Dr. E. G. Click on his birthday anniversary, Mrs. Click entertained at a stag dinner at their home on Circle Court Friday evening, having as guests Dr. W. F. Clayton, of High Point, Dr. L. G. Coble of Greensboro and Dr. J. I. Gardner, of Blacksburg, Virginia.

Norman-Cockerham
Interesting to friends here is the announcement of the wedding of Miss Myrtle Norman to Foley Cockerham, which was solemnized at North Wilkesboro Saturday, with Miss Gall Bumgarner officiating. Mrs. Cockerham is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Norman, of near Traphill and is well known here, having spent some time in the home of her aunt, Mrs. Blanche Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. Mosley Entertain Adult B. Y. P. U.
Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Mosley entertained at a delightful party at their home in West Elkin, Friday evening, having as their guests the members of the Adult B. Y. P. U. of the First Baptist church.

Following a medley of old-fashioned games a tempting refreshment course was served the twenty-five members present.

Miss Kimball Honored by Mrs. Poindexter
Mrs. Carl Poindexter entertained at a charming party at her home on Gwyn Avenue Tuesday afternoon, complimenting Mrs. D. Boyd Kimball, Jr., of Henderson, who is the guest of Mrs. C. H. Brewer. Bridge was played at two tables.

Mrs. Eugene Spainhour received the high score award at the conclusion of the play and Mrs. Kimball, guest of honor, was given an attractive memento.

When the cards were removed a tempting refreshment course was served.

Sprinkle-Couch

Interesting to friends here and the surrounding counties is the marriage of Miss Thelma Sprinkle to Grady Couch, which was solemnized at Independence, Va., Saturday, November 18, with Rev. B. A. Poole, pastor of the Methodist church, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Sprinkle and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Couch, both of Roaring River. Mr. Couch is employed in this city.

Mrs. Roth Hostess to Eight of Clubs
Mrs. Thomas Roth entertained the members of the Eight of Clubs bridge club and two additional guests at her home on Terrace Avenue Friday evening, with two tables in play. Mrs. Edwin Harris received the club award for scoring highest during the progressions.

Those making up the tables were Mrs. J. H. Allred, Miss Josephine Paul, Miss Ruth Gwyn, Mrs. Edwin Harris, Mrs. J. N. Freeman, Miss Norma Cawthon, Miss Edith Neaves and Mrs. Jones Holcomb.

When the cards were removed a tempting refreshment course was served.

O. B. H. Club Meets Thursday

The members of the O. B. H. Club were guests of Miss Clara Bell at the home of her sister, Mrs. George Royall, on Church street, Thursday evening, at a most enjoyable meeting. Games suggestive of the Thanksgiving season were enjoyed. A lovely prize was given Miss Grace Cockerham at the close of the games for scoring the highest number of points.

Sandwiches and tea were served late in the evening to the following guests: Misses Blanche Dixon, Elizabeth Anderson, Maude Greenwood, Sadie Franklin, Ophelia Paul, Elizabeth Turner, Margaret Lillard, Ruth Eads, Betty Harris and Mary Virginia Barker.

Methodist W. M. U. Elects Officers
The regular group meeting of the circles of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church met in the church Friday afternoon at 3:30, with the president, Mrs. Mason

Lillard, presiding, with 17 members present. Mrs. J. S. Atkinson conducted the devotionals and interesting papers on "World Peace" and "Christian Citizens" were read by Mrs. Mason Lillard and Mrs. R. C. Freeman.

During the business meeting Mrs. Mason Lillard was re-elected as president; Mrs. J. S. Atkinson, vice-president and Mrs. H. P. Graham, secretary. The following circle leaders were also appointed: Circle No. 1, Mrs. Worth Graham; Circle No. 2, Mrs. J. G. Abernethy; Circle No. 3, Mrs. A. L. Griffith and Circle No. 4, Mrs. J. A. Carpenter.

Miss Chatham to Sponsor Club Royale Dance

The Club Royale of Statesville will give a dance celebrating its first anniversary at the Statesville Armory, Statesville, Tuesday evening, November 28th.

Miss Frances Chatham has been selected as the representative girl of this city as sponsor for this dance.

Music will be furnished by Joe Sanders and his Kansas City Night Hawks (formerly known as Coon Sanders) and special amplifiers will be installed so that the music will be evenly distributed throughout the hall.

Announcements have been mailed throughout the state. This dance promises to be one of the most delightful of the season.

Pearl Johnson Circle Meets With Mrs. Brendle

The Pearl Johnson Circle of the First Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. David Brendle Thursday evening, with thirteen members present. Routine business and the appointment of a nominating committee to elect officers for the coming year featured the business session.

The devotionals were in charge of Mrs. T. G. Harris and Mrs. Silas Nichols, assisted by Misses Effie Crater and Lee Mae Lowery, presented an interesting program on "Tithing."

During a pleasant social hour tempting refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Brewer Compliment Guest at Bridge-Dinner

Complimenting their guest, Mrs. D. Boyd Kimball, Jr., of Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brewer entertained at dinner followed by bridge at Hotel Elkin Monday evening. The banquet hall of the hotel was effectively decorated with a profusion of autumn leaves and yellow chrysanthemums. A turkey dinner, with numerous accessories, was served, after which bridge was played at eight tables. Mrs. E. C. Grier and Paul Gwyn were awarded high score prizes at the conclusion of the play and Miss Maude Greenwood and E. S. Spainhour received the consolation prizes. Mrs. Kimball, the guest of honor, was presented with an attractive souvenir.

Baptist Inspirational Meeting Held Monday

The inspirational meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union of the First Baptist church was held in the church Monday afternoon, with 26 members present. The meeting opened with a hymn, followed by a Thanksgiving prayer by Miss Ella Cockerham and the watchword repeated in unison.

Mrs. T. G. Harris, president of the Union, presided over the business meeting at which time a nominating committee, composed of Mrs. W. J. Thurman, chairman; Mrs. W. F. Reece and Miss Mattie Mae Powell, was appointed to nominate officers for the ensuing year.

The program was under the direction of the Lou Bray circle, Mrs. E. B. Lawrence, chairman. Mrs. Lawrence, assisted by Mrs. Roy West, Mrs. J. H. Tharpe, Mrs. C. R. Alexander and Miss Beatrice Burcham, presented an inspirational study on "Stewards of The Word."

Sue Tharpe Y. W. A. Meets With Misses Phillips

The Sue Tharpe Auxillary of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church met Tuesday evening with Misses Gaynell and Hazel Phillips on West Main street, with thirteen members and one visitor present. Three new members, Misses Virginia Ray, Lorene Long and Hazel Phillips, were welcomed into the auxillary.

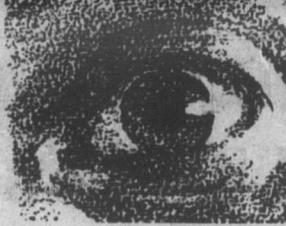

Miss Louise Transou conducted the devotionals and directed the program, using as her topic, "Money—A Force." She was assisted by Misses Blendon Byrd, Lucy Gray, Willie Guyer, Gaynell Phillips, Emma Cooke, Kathleen Reece, Mattie Brendle and Mary Maguire.

During a brief business meeting a nominating committee was appointed to select officers for the coming year and plans were made to assist some needy family to have a cheerful Christmas.

During a pleasant social hour a salad course was served.

"I Am Your Eyes"

If I am neglected I suffer, and must cause you to suffer. Once I am gone, I can never be replaced! That is the message of your eyes—heed it, and protect them with proper lighting in your home.

Glaring, direct light—shadows and dim lighting are enemies of good sight. Why subject your eyes to these weakening conditions when good indirect lighting can be had for so little?

The Miller Indirect Lamp gives correct lighting for the entire room for only 1c per hour on our new low residential rate No. 1.
