Mrs. Johnson Is Hostess To Two-Four Club at Luncheon
Mrs. Harry L. Johnson entertained at a delightful luncheon at her home Thursday at one o'clock, having as her guests the members of the Two-Four Bridge Club. Lovely summer flowers were used effectively in the decorations of the home. Following the luncheon bridge was played at two tables. The club award for high score fell to Mrs. James Poindexter.

Those making up the tables were Mrs. E. C. Grier, Mrs. R. G. Smith, Miss Maude Greenwood, Mrs. James Poindexter, Mrs. Paul Gwyn, Mrs. Eugene Spainhour and her guest, Mrs. W. R. Spainhour, of Hickory, a former member of the club, and Mrs. Johnson.

Kansas Visitor Honored at Party Friday

Honoring their guests, Misses Mae Crouse and Eleanor Knipp, of Lyons, Kansas, Misses Emma Hudspeth and Pauline Masten entertained at an enjoyable party at the home of Miss Hudspeth Friday evening. Progressive hearts were played at four tables. Mrs. R. D. Roscoe and Carl Young were awarded the high score awards at the conclusion of the play. Misses Crouse and Knipp were given linen handkerchiefs as guests of honor.

At the conclusion of the games a tempting refreshment course was served the following guests: Misses Crouse and Knipp, Miss Estelle Powers, Miss Lucy Gray, Mrs. Boyd Stanley of Bowling Green, Ky., Mrs. R. D. Roscoe of Chapel Hill, Miss Willie Guyer, Miss Betty Mae Masten and Mrs. John Hudspeth. Ed Gray, Eugene Eller, Charles Munday, Carl Young, Bob Robbins, Alex Hudspeth, Gilbert Mead and Ed Maxwell.

Sunshine Philathea Class Meets Friday Evening

The Sunshine Philathea Class of Elkin Valley Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. Clyde Cummings Friday evening, with fourteen members and one visitor present. The meeting opened with a hymn, followed by the devotional period. Miss Nancy Hanks, class president, presided over the business meeting, which featured routine reports.

The program for the evening was under the direction of Misses Beatrice Bates and Mary Bell Davis. At the close of the program the members were invited into the dining room, where they were served a tempting refreshment course by the hostess, assisted by Miss Ruth Willey.

Mrs. Whitaker Honored on Birthday Anniversary

Honoring her mother, Mrs. W. W. Whitaker, on her birthday anniversary, Mrs. Errol Hayes entertained at a delightful luncheon at her home on church street Friday. The beautifully appointed luncheon table was centered with a bouquet of pink gladioli. A handsomely decorated birthday cake marked the place of the honor guest. The affair came as a complete surprise to Mrs. Whitaker.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Whitaker, Mrs. E. C. James and her guest, Mrs. J. A. Johnston of Weldon. Mrs. R. B. Harrell, Mrs. George Royall, Mrs. George H. Wilson, Mrs. Roy Graham of Durham, guest of Mrs. Hayes, and the hostess.

Thursday Afternoon Bridge Club Meets With Mrs. R. B. Harrell

Mrs. R. B. Harrell was hostess to the members of the Thursday Afternoon Bridge Club at a delightful morning party at her home on West Main street Thursday. A profusion of brilliantly colored zinnias were used in the decorations of the home, and small zinnias of the same brilliant hues were used as a centerpiece for the luncheon table, where a three course collation was served at one o'clock.

The club award fell to Mrs. Conrad Hock at the conclusion of several interesting progressions.

Those making up the tables were: Mrs. Carl Poindexter, Mrs. Alex Chatham, Mrs. Marion Allen, Mrs. Conrad Hock, Mrs. Walter R. Schaff, Mrs. George H. Wilson, Mrs. R. C. Freeman and Mrs. Harrell.

Miss Atkinson Honors Guests at Party Wednesday Evening

Complimenting her guests, Mrs. James Strader and Miss Lillian Miller, of Winston-Salem, Miss Ruth Atkinson entertained at a lovely party at her home on West Main street Wednesday evening. A profusion of summer flowers were used in the reception rooms, where four tables were placed for bridge. Miss Catherine Hall held the highest score at the conclusion of the play and was presented a lovely piece of lingerie. Mrs. Strader and Miss Miller were given similar gifts as guests of honor and Mrs. LeRoy Martin of Raleigh, and Mrs. Paul Price, a recent bride, were also given remembrances.

When the cards were laid aside a beautifully appointed collation was served the following guests: Mrs. Strader, Miss Miller, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Price, Miss Catherine Hall, Miss Kathleen Bailey, Miss Janie Hall, Miss Josephine Paul, Mrs. Edwin Harris, Mrs. Ruth Byrd Crater, Mrs. Robert James, Miss Ola Church, Mrs. Clyde Eller, Mrs. John Evans, Mrs. Claude Farrell and Mrs. Alden Hunt.

Mrs. Graham is Hostess to Garden Club Thursday

Mrs. H. P. Graham was a charming hostess at her home on Gwyn Avenue Thursday, having as her guests the members of the Yadkin Valley Garden Club. The program for the afternoon was under the direction of Mrs. J. H. Beeson, who used "Gardens" as her subject. Mrs. George Royall gave an interesting paper on the development of a garden and Mrs. W. W. Whitaker continued with a descriptive sketch of the H. H. Hill Memorial Garden in New York. Mrs. Beeson told of developing civic interest in gardens by awarding national prizes and gave a brief sketch of some national prize gardens. The concluding number, a poem, "Poor Man's Garden", was given by Mrs. W. R. Wellborn.

The hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Lesbia Graham, served a beautifully appointed collation in two courses, to the following members: Mesdames J. S. Atkinson, W. W. Whitaker, W. R. Wellborn, J. H. Beeson, George Royall and H. C. Salmons. Mrs. W. E. Jones of North Wilkesboro, who was the guest of Mrs. George Royall, was a special guest.

Friendship Church Will Have Home-Coming

Home-Coming Day will be observed next Sunday, July 29, at Friendship Baptist church, four miles east of Elkin on state highway. All day services will be held with dinner on the grounds. The public is cordially invited to attend and bring well-filled baskets.

This celebration will mark the close of a revival meeting at the church, which is being conducted by Rev. Scales Draughan, assisted by Rev. M. Jordan.

Kiwanis Club Enjoys Outing Friday P. M.

The Elkin Kiwanis club met Friday evening on the shoe factory lawn, where a picnic supper of barbecue and all that goes with it was served by Hotel Elkin. Following the supper, horseshoe pitching and other sports were enjoyed.
