Wedding of Miss Helen Long to William Rae Wall Is Announced

Announcements reading as follows have been issued:

"Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Long announce the marriage of their daughter, Helen, to William Poe Wall Saturday, July 28, 1934, at Burlington, Va."

The marriage of Miss Long and Mr. Wall will be of interest here, where the bride has many friends. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Long, of Tobaccoville, and was graduated from Old Richmond High School and the Nurses' Training School of Lawrence Hospital. For the past three years she has been a member of the staff of Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital at Elkin.

Mr. Wall is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Wall, of Tobaccoville. He also graduated from the Old Richmond High School and is an alumnus of the University of North Carolina where he received his B. A. and M. A. degrees, excelling in mathematics. He is a former member of the Old Town high school faculty and is now connected with the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company at the home office in Greensboro.

After January 1st Mr. and Mrs. Wall will be at home to their friends at 324 Greenway street, Greensboro.

Miss Hall Honors Guest and Visitors at Tea Saturday afternoon

One of the loveliest parties of the season was on Saturday afternoon when Miss Janie Hall entertained at a formal tea at her home on West Main street in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Bernard Hall, Miss Anna Atkinson and Mrs. John Reich, all of Washington, D. C., and Miss Atkinson's guest, Miss Vivian Drennen, of Havre de Grace, Maryland.

The guests were greeted at the door by Miss Catherine Hall and presented to the receiving line which was composed of the hostess and the honor guests. Mrs. French Graham directed the guests to the dining room, where Mrs. J. L. Hall, mother of the hostess, and Mrs. Edworth Harris served a tempting refreshment course, buffet style.

The lovely home was elaborately decorated with evergreens and candles, tall lighted tapers being used to light the living room, dining room and music room, which were thrown ensuite for the entertainment of the guests. The dining room table was covered with a handsome lace cloth and centered with a silver star, which held a tall red taper in either point.

About fifty guests called during the afternoon. Goodbyes were said to Mrs. Clyde Hall.

Miss Maguire and Mr. Harris Are Married in Private Ceremony

In a quiet but impressive service Friday evening at eight o'clock Miss Mary Alice Maguire and Fred Martin Harris, both of this city, were married at the home of the bride's parents, former Senator and Mrs. S. O. Maguire, on Gwyn Avenue. Rev. E. W. Fox, pastor of the Methodist church and Rev. Eph Whisenhunt, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated, using the impressive ring ceremony. Only the immediate families witnessed the service.

The bride and bridegroom entered together, unattended. Miss Effie Crater rendered the wedding music, playing as a professional "The Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin and as a "recessional Mendelssohn's "Wedding March." To a Wild Rose (McDowell) was softly played during the ceremony. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for a brief honeymoon through the Valley of Virginia.

For her wedding the bride, who is a striking blonde, wore a gown of peacock blue crepe, with brown accessories, and a shoulder corsage of valley lilies and sweetheart roses. For traveling she changed to a brown cloth suit with matching accessories.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Maguire. She was educated at Appalachian State Teachers College, Boone, and since her graduation has taught in the Surry county schools. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Harris, also of this city. He attended the University of North Carolina and at present holds a position with Elkin Furniture company.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris are now at home at the Poindexter apartments on West Main street.

Formal announcements of the wedding have been issued.

BLACK-DRAUGHT

"Such a Good Laxative," Says Nurse
Writing from her home in Pegasus, Mo., Mrs. Anna LaPianta says: "I am a practical nurse and I recommend to some of my patients that they take Black-Draught, for it is such a good laxative. I took it for constipation, headache and a dull feeling that I had so much. A few doses of Black-Draught—and I felt just fine."
Because so many people know from having used it that Theford's Black-Draught is a good, purely vegetable laxative, millions of packages of it are sold every year.
