Dobson, April 15.—Miss Edythe Reece was hostess to a group of friends on last Thursday evening at a dinner-bridge of three tables. Spring flowers and the old southern favorite, sprays of lilac, were effectively used as decoration throughout the home, while pink rose buds and princess fern, in green vases formed the center piece of the tables, where covers were laid for 12, and a three, course dinner was served. Dainty little place cards, touched with spring and held in place by Easter chicks, marked the places of the guests. Easter colors were attractively noticeable in every detail. After the dinner accessories were removed progressive bridge was played. Chocolate mints were used as a convenient diversion. Miss Minnie Chandler won the ladies' high score prize and R. C. Lewellyn captured the men's prize. Miss Reece's guests included Misses Eva Hancock, Jo Swanson, Pauline Bingham, Thelma Shore, Bertha Byrd, Emma Comer and Minnie Chandler. Messrs. R. C.
