The Divorce Court MURDER

by Milton Propper

The trouble started in Mr. Dawson's private law office.

Six people were discussing the case of Rowland vs. Rowland and four of those people were angry.

Mrs. Rowland and her lawyer objected to the introduction of new evidence and a new witness.

The battle raged until Mr. Dawson, Divorce Court Master, ordered the new witness to be brought in.

She was in the next room, but they could not bring her in.

She was dead. Then started a sensational investigation which involved one of Philadelphia's most respected families.

It led to scandal, intrigue, a sordid affair in a road house . . . and, finally to a startling solution.

The Divorce Court Murder is a thrilling mystery story by a prolific young American author, Milton Propper. It is a story packed full of action from beginning to end with startling surprises for the reader at every turn.

Milton Propper is one of America's foremost writers of mystery thrillers. Other popular stories he has written are: The Student Fraternity Murder, The Strange Disappearance of Mary Young, The Boudoir Murder, The Family Burial Murders, The Ticket Tape Murder, etc., etc.

The Divorce Court Murder will start in this newspaper next week. It is one of Milton Propper's best stories. We urge our readers not to miss a single instalment.
