

News of Jonesville

Mrs. Gurney Wagoner, Editor

Phone 48-W

Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Grier, of Thomasville, spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Holloway.

Mrs. P. H. Underwood spent the week-end in Boonville visiting her brother, John Mock, who has been very sick but is some better at this writing.

Miss Margaret Mayberry, of Hamptonville, visited Miss Ruth Mayberry on Saturday night.

There will be a birthday dinner at the home of Marvin Rose next Sunday. The public is invited to come and bring a well-filled basket.

Thomas Rose had as his guests last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Roberson and son, Luther, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Shutt, of Winston-Salem.

Mrs. Ada Swain spent the week-end in Greensboro visiting Mrs. Ruth Swain Messick.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Holcomb spent Sunday afternoon visiting Mrs. Holcomb's mother, Mrs. W. E. Macey, near Buck Shoals.

Mrs. Bill Hudspeth entered Hugh Chatham hospital on Monday for treatment.

Miss Fannie Nicholson, of High Point, spent last week here visiting her sisters, Mrs. Julia Wagoner and Mrs. J. C. Chapel.

Mrs. Odell Holcomb and little son, Perry, spent last Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Church, near Shady Grove church.

The many friends of Mrs. Myrtle Brown will regret to learn that she is critically ill at Hugh Chatham hospital.

Misses Helen and Betty Jean Slattery had as their guest over the week-end their grandfather, W. A. Slattery, of Hendersonville.

Finn Wagoner spent the week-end with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Dan Wagoner, in the Swan Creek community.

Messrs. Web Darnell, Buddie Martin, Vern Swain and Gilmer Evridge who are in the CCC camp in Wilkes county, spent the week-end with their parents here.

Miss Eva Hancock, of Dobson, visited Misses Hazel and Gaynell Phillips last Thursday night.

Master Weaver Green is sick with influenza this week. His little friends wish him a speedy recovery.

Miss Lora Mae Bobbitt returned to her home at Hendersonville after visiting her sister, Mrs. J. R. Kelly, for several weeks. Master J. R. Kelly, Jr., and Martin Kelly accompanied Miss Bobbitt home to spend a few weeks.

Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Green have as their guest this week the former's nephew, James C. Green, of Winston-Salem.

A number of relatives and friends gathered at the home of Markus Chubb last Sunday and gave him a surprise birthday dinner in honor of his 31st birthday. There were about 75 of his friends present.

The W. M. U. societies of the Jonesville Baptist church visited the county home on last Wednesday and held a short song and prayer service for the inmates.

Mrs. W. M. Dickerson and daughter,

WANTS

Girls Wanted—Competent beauty operators wanted everywhere. Earn while you learn this highest paid profession at the Continental College, High Point, N. C. Write for free information. 1t-p

For Sale—$125 order for new Chevrolet. Will sell for $45. Apply at Tribune Office. 7-25p

If you are ambitious you can make good money with a Rawleigh Route. We help you get started. No capital or experience needed. Steady work for right man. Write Rawleigh's, Box NCG-64-2, Richmond, Va.

We have in storage in this locality fine Baby Grand Piano. Will sacrifice rather than box and ship back to our factory. Weaver Piano Co., York, Pa. 7-25-p

McClung's Business College, Greensboro, N. C. Fall term opens Sept. 2. Some free commercial courses offered in fall session. Write or call for Special Offer. 8-29-c

Man Wanted for Lawleigh Route of 800 families. Write today. Rawleigh, Dept. NCG-64-SA, Richmond, Va. 7-25

Real Estate

West Elkin Extension—Attractive new 5-room brick bungalow, one acre lot, price reasonable and terms can be arranged. Call 17, Bridge street.

For Sale or Rent, on corner Main and Bridge streets, one of the best business retail properties in Elkin.

50-acre Farm, 9 miles west of Elkin. Well located. Price reasonable, with good terms.

North Elkin—12-room house nearly new. Attractive home. Call phone 17.

Rent, Buy or Sell—Homes, Apartments and business property.

D. C. MARTIN and W. S. REICH Phone 17

ters, of State Road, visited Mrs. J. C. Chapel on Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Chapel continues very ill.

John Pruitt, of Leaksville spent the week-end here with his mother, Mrs. Nancy Pruitt.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McBride and son, Billy, spent Sunday in Winston-Salem, visiting Mrs. Pruitt's father, W. F. Stroud, who is a patient in the Baptist hospital there.

Little Miss Helen Slattery has returned to her home here from Purlear, where she has been on an extended visit to Miss Hazel Hayes.

Miss Underwood Entertains In Honor of Dumont Eskridge

Miss Elizabeth Underwood entertained at two tables of bingo Friday evening in honor of Dumont Eskridge, who is to open a law office in Hillsboro in a few days. A special gift was presented to the honor guest while bingo prizes for high and low score went to Olene Arnold and Phillip Wilkins.

Refreshments were served to the following guests: Misses Catherine Boles, Doris Thompson, Olene Arnold and the hostess; Messrs. Dumont Eskridge, Leon Martin, Phillip Wilkins and Ivory Johnson.

Peacock-Triplett

Wearing a white crepe ensemble with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias, Miss Irene Triplett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Triplett, 324 Southwest Street, Maywood, Cal., was married to W. R. Peacock, of Los Angeles at the Mission Inn in Riverside, on Wednesday morning, July 3, 1935. Although they had been engaged for several months their marriage was a complete surprise.

The newlyweds are spending a week in San Diego where they will attend the exposition. On their return they will be at home to their friends at 5511 Gifford Avenue, Maywood, California.

Mr. Peacock is employed with the U. S. Rubber Company, where he has worked for the past ten years.

The bride is a graduate of Anaheim high school and has been, previous to her marriage, employed with the J. J. Newberry Company.

Friendship News

Due to the fact that the church is in a more suitable location than the homes in this community and is in easy access to all, the Bible study class has been moved to the church. Since its organization the book of Acts has been studied and discussed and as a result much enlightenment has been derived from it. The leader, Mrs. Della Holbrook, is presenting certificates of faithfulness to those who attend regularly.

Roy Dowell has been elected to take charge of the prayer services each Sunday night at church. Miss Katherine Greenwood is serving as assistant leader.

The Willing Workers class met Saturday night, July 13, 1935, at eight o'clock in the home of Mrs. Ervin Greenwood, with Marjorie Felts in charge of the program. The meeting was opened with a song, "Leave It There", accompanied at the piano by Mary Greenwood. The Lord's Prayer, led by Mrs. Ervin Greenwood, was repeated in unison. Katherine Greenwood read the first and twenty-third Psalm for the scripture lesson. A theme entitled "As We Journey", was read by Marjorie Felts. Alice Mounce gave an appropriate poem. A contest of writing the books of the Bible was conducted with Alice Wall and Gilbert Felts winning and receiving the prizes. Refreshments were served in the living room by Misses Louise Felts and Mary Greenwood to the twenty class members and seven visitors. The place of the next meeting will be decided upon later.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Harmon was a scene of enjoyment Sunday when a crowd of friends and relatives gathered there for dinner and a pleasant evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Burdette Gentry and family, of Elkin; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gentry and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Park and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Gentry and two children and Misses Katherine Greenwood and Alice Mounce.

Revival Services Are In Progress At Mt. View

Rev. W. V. Brown, of Cycle, Rev. F. W. Fry, of Landis, and Rev. T. W. Hearne, of Rockingham, were in Elkin Wednesday. The above named ministers are in a revival service at Mountain View church, in Yadkin county. Services are being held twice daily, at 2 and 8 p. m., and Rev. Hearne, who is one of the outstanding evangelists in this section, is bringing wonderful and inspiring messages at each service.

The meeting will continue through Wednesday of next week. The public is extended a cordial invitation to attend.

The Alps mountains cover an area equal to that of England, Scotland and Wales all put together.

News From the COUNTY CAPITAL

Dobson, July 15.—The Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Grady Cooper. Devotionals were led by the President, Mrs. J. O. Cox. Miss Elizabeth Booker was program leader. The subject was "Missionaries in Korea." Those who contributed to the program were Mrs. Cooper and Mrs. Maude Freeman.

Dr. Paul Vestal, specialist in surgery, of New Haven, Conn., visited the family of his uncle, W. L. Reece, Saturday. Dr. Vestal served as surgeon in the World War. After practicing in Washington D. C. for a few years, he located in New Haven, Conn., and enjoys a lucrative practice there. He is the son of the late Dr. and Mrs. Nella Reece Vestal, and brother of Mrs. Sidney Jones, of Yadkinville.

In response to a wire message from Norfolk, Va., Rev. and Mrs. J. O. Cox and son Andre, went to Norfolk Friday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Cox's nephew, Wm. Allen Harper.

Only those directly concerned attended court the past week. The farmers are very busy at this season. The recent showers have been worth thousands of dollars to Surry county farmers. Tobacco and corn crops are very promising.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Stone had as week-end guests Mr. and Mrs. Kemp Mills and children, of Wilkesboro, and Mrs. W. B. Martin and son, of Polkton. Master Ed Stone accompanied his aunt, Mrs. Martin, home for a six weeks' visit.

Mrs. J. M. Norman and children, Mary Sue and Thomas and Mrs. Lettie Edwards have gone to Detroit, Mich., to spend a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Taylor, of Sparta, spent the week-end with the family of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Taylor.

Mrs. Sidney Jones and little daughter, Mary Ann, were in Dobson Saturday visiting Mrs. Jones' uncle, Attorney W. L. Reece.

Miss Jo Swanson, of Pilot Mountain, spent a few days here last week with Miss Eva Hancock, at the Brady Hotel.

Judge Clayton Moore left Friday to spend the week-end with his family in Williamston. Court convened again Monday.

Miss Enzella Smart, of the Relief Office at North Wilkesboro, visited the office here Friday.

Mrs. P. B. Folger and children returned last week from Knoxville, Tenn., where they spent some time with friends.

Lon Folger, Jr., is recovering nicely from influenza. Mrs. Bill Beamer who has been nursing him, returned to her home in Mount Airy Sunday evening.

Mrs. Mary Folger, who has been suffering for a week with sciatica rheumatism, is improving slightly.

Mrs. Carl Folger and children returned Monday from Tennessee after spending a week with Mrs. Folger's sister.

Luke Ball returned home Wednesday from the Mount Airy hospital where he had to consent to an appendicitis operation.

Miss Julia Comer is spending this week with friends in Mount Airy.

Swan Creek News

The crops are looking considerably better after the frequent showers we have been having for the past several days.

Mrs. Vina Swain and family attended a birthday dinner near Dobson last Sunday given in honor of their son and brother, Herman Swain.

Worth Vestal, of Winston-Salem, spent last week-end here the guests of his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Swain and children spent last Sunday in Galax, Virginia visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Cooter.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Osborne and children, of Elkin, spent last Sunday with Mrs. Osborne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Swain.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Swain spent last week-end in Durham visiting Mr. Swain's sister, Mrs. T. L. Swain and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vestal and son, Kenneth, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Myers and daughter, Peggy, spent last Sunday in Galax, Virginia.

H. C. Cook spent last Sunday the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Claude Sale, near Union.

The hum of the Myers and Hogger threshing machine is being heard in and around this community.

Miss Mannie Mae Cooter, of Galax, Virginia, returned to her home last Sunday after spending two weeks here visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Cook, of Jonesville, spent last Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Henry Weatherman, and Mr. Weatherman.

Dewey Myers, of Knightown, Ind., visited relatives and friends here last week-end.

It is estimated that on this earth there are 10,000 species of birds.

OUR STORE

HAS SERVED the people of this community for years. Today we are better equipped than ever before to continue this service.

OUR PRESCRIPTION department is located in the rear of the store with three large windows furnishing light by which we work. You are always welcome to watch your medicine compounded. We have no secrets.

OUR FOUNTAIN is one of the finest to be found anywhere. It is equipped with hot running water so that we may keep it clean and sanitary and thereby make the kind of drink you want.

OUR STOCK of drugs, while not as large as some, is always fresh and pure. We have the celebrated Rexall line of which there is none better.

ALL IN ALL we try to run a Drug Store that will meet the demands of this trade territory. Give us a trial and then let our Drug Store be YOUR Drug Store.

Abernethy's

A GOOD DRUG STORE

ELKIN, N. C.

We've Planned Great Things FOR MEN This Fall!

Three Complete Lines of Men's Clothing and Top Coats at Prices Within Reach of All

In keeping with our policy of offering our customers the very best and latest the market affords at the very lowest possible prices, McDaniels is proud to announce three complete lines of men's suits and top coats which will soon be on display for fall—and at a price range that will appeal to all.

We extend you a cordial invitation to attend a special exhibition of the latest styles and materials for well dressed men in fall and winter fabrics for suits, top coats and overcoats. H. E. Kimel, special representative of the Globe Tailoring Co., will be at our store July 22 to 24 to show what's new and to correctly measure you for your fall clothing.

It is with pride we announce our new line of English-American tailor-made suits which may be obtained for as low as $20. Expertly tailored of guaranteed 100 per cent wool in correct fall and winter fabrics. Visit our men's department on the balcony and see our sample swatches now on display.

Watch for our fall opening of Merit Suits and Topcoats. These nationally known, ready-to-wear suits and topcoats are the very latest thing for fall and winter. Many attractive new shades and fabrics for dress and business wear.

McDANIEL'S

DEPARTMENT STORE

ELKIN, N. C.