

PLANS ANNOUNCED FOR FARMERS' DAY

Mount Airy Merchants and Tobacco Men To Act As Hosts

Mount Airy, Aug. 7.—Plans for the Mount Airy "Farmers' Day" celebration Saturday, at which farmers of Surry and adjoining counties will be the guests of the Mount Airy merchants and tobacco warehousemen, are complete, members of the entertainment committee stated yesterday afternoon.

Around 5,000 free tickets have been distributed to farmers of Surry, Stokes, Yadkin and Wilkes counties in this state and Patrick and Carroll counties in Virginia. The tickets provide admission to Riverside Park, the Bi-State baseball diamond at the Mount Airy fair grounds, where the Mount Airy Reds meet Reidsville in what should be an outstanding encounter of the Bi-State season.

The baseball contest will provide the main feature of the day's entertainment which will also include field day stunts by members of the two teams and local athletes and other amusement features arranged by the committee. The entertainment will take place at the fair grounds, although some features may be presented in the business part of town. It has not been possible to reach all farmers with invitations, but those who do not have tickets to the baseball game and entertainment are urged to come regardless of whether they have tickets, for they may obtain free tickets at any of the three tobacco warehouses or at the ball park.

ERRORS COST GAME; CHATHAM LOSES 7-6

Defeat Adams - Millis Here Saturday 11 to 1; Go to S. C.

Developing a bad case of butterflies in the ninth, the Chatham Blanketeers last Thursday night dropped a game to White Oak at Greensboro by the score of 7-6. Errors on the part of locals were responsible for the defeat.

Saturday the Blanketeers defeated Adams-Millis, of High Point 11 to 1 in a game played here.

Chatham had led White Oak 6 to 3 up until the ninth when Rumples was met with a series of singles that pulled the game out of the fire for the Greensboro team. However, Rumples pitched a fine game with the exception of two bad innings, the first and ninth.

Cornelius led both teams in hitting, collecting a homer, a double and a single out of four trips up.

Saturday at Chester, S. C., the Blanketeers play the last of a three-game series with Dunean Mills, of Greenville, in the Charlotte Observer semi-pro tournament. Each team has won one game. Loss of this game will mean that Chatham will be eliminated while if they win they stand a good chance of winning the tournament.

Sunday the Blanketeers go to North Wilkesboro. They were playing North Wilkesboro here Wednesday afternoon as The Tribune went to press.

OLDEST FILLING STATION DOOMED

Constructed in 1914 When Gasoline Was Dispensed Only From Curbside Pumps

Memphis, Tenn.—The world's oldest drive-in service station has yielded to progress and the tools of the wrecker and is now an ordinary parking lot. The unique distinction of being the first such station was believed to belong to the Esso outlet at the corner of Union and Dudley in this city, which was opened in September of 1914 when gasoline was dispensed only from curbside pumps and such a thing as the service station was unknown. When a special building was erected for this purpose the public thought it was foolish to cater so much to the motorist.

The Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, however, had different ideas about this matter. Its officials determined that this service station would set the pace for others to come later. When it was opened it operated on a 24-hour basis. Five pumpers handled the actual pumping of the gasoline. Five negro porters put in oil and cranked automobiles, which at that time were not yet equipped with self-starters. Two negro maids were also on duty and passed ice water to all customers coming into the station. So unique was the service rendered at this station that it was not unusual for motor cars to be lined up for blocks waiting to get in.

Changing traffic conditions and the erection of new and more modern outlets by the Standard Oil Company in Memphis made necessary the abandonment of this pioneer station.

SALES TAX WARNING

Raleigh, Aug. 4.—A warning to every person selling merchandise at retail in North Carolina that they must file sales tax returns and payments by August 15 or be liable to a 5 per cent penalty was sounded tonight by A. J. Maxwell, state revenue commissioner.

Under the new sales tax law every person selling merchandise at retail must file returns and make tax payments each month for the preceding month, Maxwell pointed out. The July payments will be in arrears after August 15.

Louisiana may some day be the largest state in the union—built up by soil deposits from 26 other states.

Surry Baptists Hold Meeting

Adams and J. A. McMillan before the noon hour, and the morning session was closed by the annual sermon, delivered by Rev. J. H. Hall.

Committees were appointed as follows: On Resolutions: O. H. Hauser, T. S. Draughn and G. A. Tucker; on Time and Place: C. A. Simmons, J. E. Cook and E. C. James; Program Committee: A. V. West, Eph Whisenhunt and W. M. Johnson.

Ordained ministers visiting from other associations were J. P. Davis, Yadkin, and J. A. McCain, Three Fork Association, Watauga county.

The first report of the afternoon session (Friday) was on the Baptist Orphanage, and was given by Mrs. T. W. Church, of this city. The report was followed by a very stirring address on the work of the orphanage given by I. G. Grier, superintendent of the institution.

Then followed two minute reports given by the churches conducted by E. C. James.

Other reports on various phases of the work of the denomination were given during the remaining part of the afternoon session, and spoken to by leaders of the denomination.

The Friday night session was featured by a discussion of a novel plan of church finance for farmers, which is known as "God's Acre Plan." In this plan each farmer sets aside an acre of his land for his church and gives all that is made on that acre of land to the church. This plan of church finance has been used by the farmers of Georgia and South Carolina for a number of years. A committee composed of W. E. Woodruff, Mrs. W. A. Jackson and Mrs. E. C. James was appointed to make a report on this matter at the next annual session.

Again on Saturday morning the delegates assembled at 9:45 and after a brief period of worship the business program was continued.

The morning session was featured by the report on "Women's Work," which was followed by a very inspiring address by Mrs. E. C. James. Then followed reports on Christian Education and Old Ministers' Relief, given by W. E. Woodruff and spoken to by himself, J. H. Hall and J. R. Johnson, pastor of the Mount Airy church.

Dr. Smith Hagaman, superintendent of the Baptist Hospital at Winston-Salem, made an excellent talk on that institution, stating that the hospital has admitted more than 29,000 patients during the 12 years of its service, and that at present one-half of the patients are in the non-pay group.

Just before noon M. O. Alexander, a state denominational worker sent out by the General Board, made an intensely interesting talk on "Our Goal For Next Year."

The Saturday afternoon session was featured by the report on Sunday School, by C. A. Simmons, which was spoken to by him; the report on B. Y. P. U. work given by A. L. Hiatt, which was spoken to by Grady Burgess; and the reports of the various committees. The committee on time and place selected Friendship Baptist church as the place for the 1936 session, and the time is to be Thursday and Friday before the 4th Sunday in July. Rev. J. H. Hatley is to preach the annual sermon.

The closing inspirational address was delivered by Rev. Eph Whisenhunt, pastor of the local church, using as his topic "The World's Greatest Missionary Field—Your Home and Mine."

Mount Airy church proved a very gracious host to the association, providing a sumptuous dinner for each day of the meeting and also meals and lodging for all who wanted to stay overnight.

Local people taking part on the program were Rev. Eph Whisenhunt, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. James, Mrs. T. W. Church and Grady Burgess. Others attending the meeting from time to time were Mrs. W. J. Thurman, Misses Effie Crater, Hazel Byrd, Minnie Ruth McNeill and Margaret Sale; Rev. J. L. Powers, Harvey Wagoner, Lonnie Martin and Jimmie James.

Hudspeth Reunion Held At Brook's Cross Roads

There was a reunion at the home of Mrs. W. L. Hudspeth at Brook's Cross Roads last Sunday, August 4.

A bountiful picnic dinner was served on the lawn and those present to enjoy the day were Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Hudspeth and children, of Yadkinville; Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Hudspeth and children, of Winston-Salem; Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Carson, Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Wagoner and sons, of Jonesville; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Boy Is Recovering From Serious Injury

Buren Farmer, 14, son of W. L. Farmer, of Stratford, was released from Hugh Chatham hospital Monday where he had been a patient for several days. The lad sustained a fractured skull in a fall from a swing when his head struck a rock.

General Grant was once a slave owner.

His wife determined to cure him of his bad ways, and with the aid of a sheet and an electric torch transformed herself into a very fair imitation of a ghost. Then she went to the drunkard and shook him. "Whas that?" murmured the toper. "Satan," came the reply in sepulchral tone. "Shake handsh, old horsh, I married your sister."
