AAA SPENDS ALMOST $3,000,000 IN N. C.

Has Been Poured Into Pockets of Farmers During 3 Months

The Agricultural Adjustment Administration poured almost $3,000,000 into the pockets of North Carolina farmers during the months of July, August and September.

Rental and benefit payments to farmers cooperating in the crop adjustment programs accounted for $2,578,086.79 of the total, said Dean I. O. Schaub, of State College.

The largest sum went to tobacco growers, who received $1,443,792.83. Cotton growers got $997,218.76, corn-hog producers $128,642.57 and wheat growers $8,432.63.

In addition, cotton growers who placed surplus tax-exemption certificates in the national pool received $11,361.73 from the sale of these certificates to other growers.

The $437,904.53 in administrative expenses went largely to pay committees, farmers who help administer the programs locally, Dean Schaub pointed out.

The rental and benefit payments are still flowing to the farmers, he added, but the amount for October and November have not been tabulated to date.

The payments are made from funds raised by processing taxes on the commodities covered by the various adjustment programs.

Benefit payments on all crops in this county for July, August, and September were $39,462.16. Payments to neighbor counties were: Yadkin, $24,621.95; Wilkes, $2,444.99; Alleghany, $1,333.27; Forsyth $12,950.11.
