BURCH

The revival meeting at Little Richmond Baptist church closed Sunday. A special meeting of members of the church is called Saturday afternoon, January 18, 1936, at two o'clock, by the pastor, Rev. L. B. Murray.

I. C. Woodruff returned to his home at Mountain View Sunday following a visit of a week with friends here. He was accompanied by Theodore Chappell.

Miss Edna Jenkins is spending a week in Winston-Salem, the guest of her brother, Virgil Jenkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Evans, of Shady Grove community, were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Carter.

Ola Jean Cockerham, of Elkin, spent the week-end here with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Layne.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Greenwood spent Friday in Mount Airy.

G. P. Gaither, of Winston-Salem, was a business visitor here Tuesday.

T. M. Sneed returned to Winston-Salem the early part of the week, following a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Sneed.

Paul Jenkins returned Saturday from Roanoke, Va., where he spent some time attending to business matters.

Rev. Lester Johnson, of Mountain View, spent a few days here last week, attending the revival.

"WHIRLING JOE"

A widow, whose husband had died some months previously also died and when she came to the pearly gates, asked to see her former husband.

"What's his name?" said Saint Peter.

"Joe Smith," replied the widow.

"You'll have to give me some better identification than that," said St. Peter kindly. "How about his last words? We classify new arrivals by their last words on earth."

"Well," she replied, "just before he died Joe turned to me and said, 'Mary, if you ever kiss another man I'll turn over in my grave.'"

"Oh, sure, I know him," said St. Peter, "we call him 'Whirling Joe' up here!"

WE WELCOME CAREFUL BUYERS!

The furniture buyer who is interested in getting the UTMOST in VALUE and QUALITY for every dollar he spends—he is the man we are glad to see.

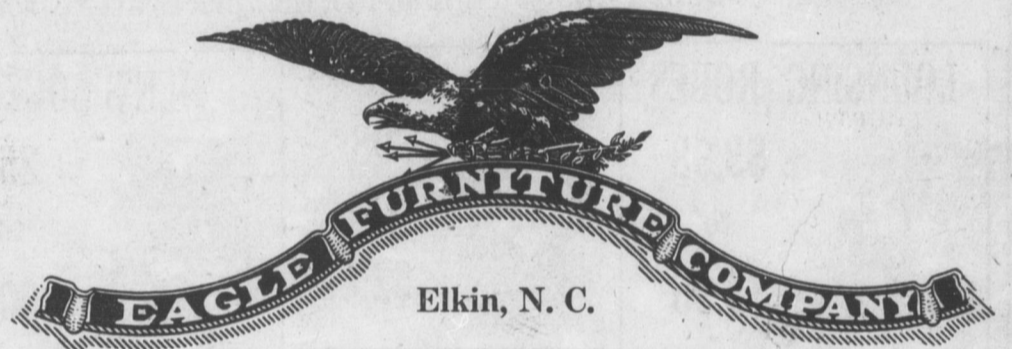

The keener the competition the greater glory if The Eagle wins — AND THE EAGLE always wins, when VALUE is the consideration.

If the buyer obscures his own vision with TERMS rather than VALUE—or on the matter of prices without strict regard for QUALITY . . . then we may lose.

But—Remember—when VALUE, based on QUALITY is the FINAL consideration . . . THE EAGLE LANDS THE ORDER!
