BETHEL

Ronda, Route 2, July 20.—We all feel happy and thankful for the fine rain that fell in this community today, after a long dry period.

Most all the members of the Sunday school here at Bethel enjoyed an outing in the mountains last Sunday. With the fine spirit of cooperation and accommodation, Mr. B. R. Pardue took his big truck and there were seven other cars. All started from here at 9 o'clock, and traveled to the fish hatchery near Roaring Gap.

The superintendent, W. H. Jones, asked all to assemble, where we sang some, the 13th chapter of 1st Cor., discourse of love was read by C. W. Gilliam, Jr., and J. F. Mathis led a prayer. Each class had its lesson at some favorite place, then all gathered at the picnic grounds and we spread out lunch. D. J. Melton returned thanks to our Heavenly Father, who so graciously cares and provides for us. After dinner there were many interesting things, amid the beautiful scenery and pleasant air for the children and all to enjoy. It was a happy day for every one.

Mrs. Oscar Lewis returned to her home here last week, after spending some time in Winston-Salem with her daughter.

Mrs. W. N. Weatherman from North Elkin, visited her daughter and family, from last Tuesday until Friday, Mrs. J. F. Mathis.

The ice cream supper given by Phillip Mauldin and Elmer Morrison last Saturday evening, was a success and a very enjoyable occasion for the large crowd who assembled.

Rev. Mr. Pardue, who passed away at his home at Roaring River last week, has visited our church here, when on a visit to his sister-in-law, Mrs. P. H. Pardue and her family. We feel that his life has been such an inspiration that his works will follow him.

A number of our people attended service at Island Ford church last Sunday evening.

The threshers are at the homes of Messrs John McBride and J. F. Mathis today, (Monday).

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Martin, of Elkin visited Mrs. Martin's mother, Mrs. R. G. Myers and family, last Sunday afternoon.

We learn with sorrow of the illness of Mrs. E. B. Scott, who is at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Pardue of Clingman. Mrs. Scott was a former resident of this section, and has many friends here who wish for her a speedy recovery.

Disappointed
Elsie—Did you have a good time shopping yesterday?
Naomi—No indeed, I found the dress I wanted in the very first store I went into.
