Powers-Collins
Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Ruby Powers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Powers of this city to Edward Collins, also of Elkin, at Independence, Virginia, Sunday, October 17, with Rev. T. R. Windsor officiating.

Parent-Teachers To Meet Tuesday
The October meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association will be held Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 in the elementary school building. All members are requested to attend.
A special meeting of the newly-appointed grade mothers for the schools is called for this afternoon (Thursday) at 3:30, by Mrs. C. E. Nicks, chairman. This meeting will also be held in the elementary school building.

Mrs. Somers is Hostess at Bridge-Luncheon Saturday Morning
Mrs. A. B. Somers was hostess at a lovely morning party, followed by a luncheon at one o'clock Saturday. Four tables were placed for bridge in a pretty setting of autumn flowers and foliage. At the final count of scores the high award went to Miss Josephine Paul and the consolation prize to Mrs. Ruohs Pyron. Miss Frances Chatham, bride-elect of the fall, was presented a lovely gift.
Two additional guests came in for luncheon at one o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Somers Entertain Friday Evening
Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Somers entertained at a delightful bridge-dinner Friday evening. Chrysanthemums and dahlias in autumn colors were used in profusion throughout the reception rooms. Centerpieces of the same flowers were used on the six small tables where covers were placed for twenty-four. Yellow candles were also used in the decorations. Following the dinner six tables were made up for bridge. High score awards went to Mrs. Chas. G. Ashby and Marion Allen at the conclusion of the games.

Mrs. Darnell is Hostess to Book Club Friday Evening
Mrs. J. Walter Darnell entertained members of the Friday Evening Book Club at the regular fortnightly meeting at her home on Gwyn Avenue Friday evening. Halloween decorations were used in the home and in the appointments of the two tables where rummy was enjoyed. Scoring honors went to Mrs. H. B. Holcomb and Mrs. David Brendle at the conclusion of the play.
A beautifully appointed refreshment course, in which the Halloween motif predominated, was served late in the evening.

Wednesday Study Club Meets With Mrs. R. B. Harrell
Mrs. R. B. Harrell entertained members of the Wednesday Afternoon Study Club at her home on West Main street Wednesday afternoon. The program on "Denmark" was in charge of Mrs. Fred Neaves, and featured a study of the political and economic conditions of the country. Current events of interest were given by Mrs. J. H. Beeson.
At the close of the program the guests were invited into the dining room where a tempting collation was served. The lovely table was centered with a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and red snapdragons and lighted with tall red candles.
Members attending were: Mesdames J. H. Beeson, Errol Hayes, Fletcher Harris, C. H. Brewer, Fred Neaves, R. C. Freeman and Howard Hatch. Mrs. Wallace Moses of Philadelphia, guest of Mrs. J. H. Beeson, was a visitor.

Mrs. F. W. Graham is Hostess to Book Club Thursday
Mrs. F. W. Graham entertained members of the Thursday Book Club at the regular monthly meeting at her home on West Main street Thursday. The Halloween motif was carried out in detail in the appointments of the three tables where cubical hearts were played, and the decorations in the rooms were autumn leaves and yellow flowers, effecting a color scheme of brown and yellow.
In the progressions the high score award went to Mrs. H. C. Salmons.
A salad course, followed by a sweet course, was served late in the afternoon.
Members present were: Mesdames W. W. Whitaker, J. P. Pock, T. A. Leeper, J. Mark McAdams, J. G. Abernethy, Mason Lillard, George Royall, Edworth Harris, J. L. Hall, H. C. Salmons and Mrs. E. Carl Boyles. Mrs. L. I. Halsey of Mouth of Wilson, Virginia, was a special guest.

Mrs. Hugh Chatham is Honored At Party Tuesday Evening
Honoring Mrs. Hugh Chatham, a recent bride, Mrs. R. M. Chatham was hostess at a delightful bridge-dinner at her home on East Main street Tuesday evening. The lovely home was decorated throughout with potted plants and Halloween symbols.
Dinner was served upon the arrival of the guests at seven o'clock. During the evening bridge was played at three tables. Scoring honors went to Mrs. Franklin Folger at the conclusion of the play. Mrs. Chatham was presented a beautiful gift as guest of honor, and Miss Frances Chatham, bride-elect of the fall, was also given a remembrance.
Guests were: Mrs. Chatham, honoree, Miss Flora Royall, Miss Norma Cawthon, Mrs. Franklin Folger, Miss Betty Allen, Miss Josephine Paul, Mrs. Fred Rash, Miss Caroline Lillard, Miss Frances Chatham, Miss Thorburn Lillard, Miss Jamie Hall, Miss Frances Grier and Miss Myrtle Mot-singer, the latter of Winston-Salem.

Baptist W. M. U. Celebrates Thirty-Fifth Anniversary
The thirty-fifth anniversary of the organization of the Woman's Missionary Union of the First Baptist church was celebrated at a meeting of all of the auxiliaries of the union at the church Monday evening.
Prior to the social meeting a program was enjoyed. The devotionals were in charge of Mrs. I. C. Yates, and the program featured a resume of the study of China, which has been the subject for study for the month. Mrs. Eph Whisenhunt was in charge of the program and gave an excellent talk. The religions, customs and dress of the people was the subject for her talk, which was illustrated with costumes and handwork of the natives.

At the close of the program the members assembled in the James Bible Class room, where a social hour was enjoyed. A huge birthday cake, adorned with thirty-five lighted candles, was sliced and served with coffee. Mrs. R. L. Poindexter, the only charter member of the organization present, blew out the candles, and Mrs. F. M. Norman, general president of the society, acted as hostess.

New Sunday School Class is Organized
Organization was perfected Tuesday evening of a new Sunday school class for young matrons of the First Baptist church. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. L. M. Stewart on West Main street, with fifteen members and two visitors present.
Mrs. George Adams led the devotional period and T. A. Leeper, superintendent of the Sunday school and temporary teacher of the class, presided over the meeting. Officers elected were: president, Mrs. Fred Eldson; first vice-president, Mrs. Seeman Dobbins; second vice-president, Mrs. Marcus Myers; third vice-president, Mrs. Thurmond Douglass; secretary, Mrs. Sias Nichols; assistant secretary, Mrs. Oscar Darnell; treasurer, Mrs. George Chatham, Jr.
The class was divided into groups and captains selected for a membership campaign and the name "Dorcas" was adopted for the class.

Mr. Leeper offered the closing prayer.
A social hour was enjoyed at the conclusion of the program. A tempting refreshment course was served.

Mrs. McNeer is Hostess to Honor Mrs. Cam Fields
Honoring her sister-in-law, Mrs. Cam Fields of Mouth of Wilson, Virginia, who prior to her recent marriage was Miss Anna Halsey, Mrs. E. F. McNeer entertained at a lovely bridge-luncheon at her home on Church street Thursday. The guests were invited for ten o'clock. Five tables were arranged for bridge. In the final count of scores Mrs. Errol Hayes was awarded the high score trophy.

Mrs. Fields was presented a beautiful lamp as guest of honor and Mrs. Hugh Chatham, a recent bride, and Miss Frances Chatham, bride-elect, were each given remembrances. Mrs. H. P. Graham drew the prize for the extra guests who were invited for luncheon at one o'clock.
A beautifully appointed collation was served buffet style. The luncheon table was covered with lace runners and centered with a silver compote filled with autumn fruits. From the compote were heavily laden boughs of fruit running the full length of the table. Yellow candles in deep orange holders added further to the autumnal scene.

Guests playing bridge in addition to the honoree, Mrs. Fields, were: Mesdames R. B. Harrell, Thomas Roth, H. C. Graham, Marion Allen, R. C. Freeman, Chas. G. Ashby, Errol Hayes, Franklin Folger, Paul Gwyn, C. C. Poindexter, R. G. Smith, Richard Chatham, Hugh Chatham, E. C. Grier, A. B. Somers, Claude Farrell, Misses Frances Chatham, Carolyn Lillard and Delphine Crump, the latter of Winston-Salem.
Additional guests for luncheon were: Mrs. Hoke Fields, Mrs. Lester Halsey and Miss Dorothy Halsey, of Mouth of Wilson, Va.,

Mrs. H. C. Graham and Miss Lucille Cox.
