Brendle-Cook Wedding at Boonville is Announced

Announcement is made of the wedding of Miss Diana Brendle of Boonville, to William J. Cooke of Winston-Salem Thursday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Brendle, at Boonville. Rev. J. P. Davis, pastor of the bride, officiated, using the ring service. Only the immediate families and a few friends were present.

Miss Sudie Belle Palmer of Winston-Salem, pianist, rendered the wedding music. Prior to the ceremony she played Chopin's "Nocture" and "The Sweetest Story Ever Told."

The bride and bridegroom entered the room together to the strains of "The Bridal Chorus" from Wagner's Lohengrin, and took the places before an improvised altar of greenery against which were baskets of white chrysanthemums and twin candelabrae holding white tapers.

The bride was becomingly dressed in a suit of green imported wool, trimmed in racoon. Her accessories were brown and her shoulder corsage was of Talisman roses. Her only ornament was a gold slave bracelet which belonged to her grandmother.

A buffet breakfast was served immediately after the ceremony. Mrs. Cooke is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Brendle. She was educated at Eastern Carolina Teachers Training College, Greenville, and Draughan's Business College, Winston-Salem. She is employed in the Yadkin county agent's office.

Mr. Cooke is the son of the late Joseph Cooke and Mrs. Cooke of Hamptonville. He holds a position with Duke Power company in Winston-Salem.

Following the breakfast the young couple left for a bridal trip to places of interest in the South.
