AVIATOR SENTENCED FOR DRUNK DRIVING

Greenville, Dec. 13.—Bill Michealson, New York barnstorming aviator, arrested in Ayden Saturday on charges of operating an airplane while under the influence of whisky, was today given a 60-day sentence on the roads, suspended upon payment of damages and costs in the case and on condition that he not operate a plane for two years in Ayden or vicinity.

Michealson was tried in municipal court in Ayden this afternoon. He was arrested after his plane, carrying four passengers, crashed after flying low over Ayden, clipping a telephone pole and tops of trees.

CARD OF THANKS
The family of the late Davis Martin express their sincere appreciation for the sympathy and kindness shown them in their bereavement.
