Three More Lucky People Get Free Tickets to Lyric Theatre

You may depend on it that The Tribune candid cameraman will take at least three pictures when he heads out on a snapshot spree, and his pictures for this week appear above. Not only do the three ladies shown get their pictures in the paper, but if they will kindly call in person at The Tribune office, they will be presented with two free tickets each to the Lyric theatre.—Tribune photos.

enjoyed under the direction of Mrs. Dockery, assisted by Miss Virginia Ray.
A tempting picnic lunch was served at the conclusion of the play.
Members present were: Peggy Chatham, Joan Hudspeth, Jerry Ann Brown, Mollie Dobbins, Frances Lovelace, Betty Jo Young and Mary Ellen Dockery, the latter of Winston-Salem.

Miss Barker and Mr. Noe Honored At Cake Cutting
Misses Jennie and Auba Gray honored Miss Margaret Grier Barker and Robert Spillman Noe at a cake cutting at their home on Vine street Friday evening on the eve of their wedding. Miss Barker and Mr. Noe were married in a private ceremony Saturday morning.
A handsome wedding cake, containing all of the traditional symbols, was sliced and served with ices.
Only members of the families and a few close friends attended the delightful affair.
The home was decorated throughout with mixed garden flowers and in the dining room graceful white lilies were used.

Bride and Bridegroom-Elect Honored At Dinner Thursday
Honoring Miss Margaret Grier Barker, of Elkin and Norfolk, and Robert Spillman Noe, of Norfolk, who were married Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Barker entertained at an informal dinner at their home on West Main street Thursday evening.
The table was centered with a mirror plaque surrounded by graceful bouquets of pansies and verbenas in pastel colors. Mixed garden flowers were used throughout the home.
Covers were placed for Miss Barker, Mr. Noe, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barker, Jr., Miss Mary Virginia Barker, Miss Nannie Catherine Jones of Covington, Va., and Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Barker.

Mr. Evans Is Honored on Birthday Anniversary
John Evans was honored with a stag dinner on his birthday anniversary Thursday when Mrs. Evans entertained at a bridge-dinner at their home.
Larkspur and roses were used in the decorations of the home.
Upon the arrival of the guests at 7:30 a three-course dinner was served.
During the evening bridge was played. Scoring honors went to Jack Carter at the conclusion of the play.
Guests were: Jack Carter, Claude Farrell, Van W. Dillon, Roger Carter, Roscoe Poplin, C. L. Davis, LeRoy Campbell, John Kelley, Wilbur Carter, Julius Hall, A. W. Glenn and R. B. Fitzgerald, the latter of Winston-Salem.

Mrs. E. G. Click Is Hostess to Garden Club
Mrs. E. G. Click delightfully entertained members of the Yadkin Valley Garden club at her home on Circle Court Thursday afternoon. Larkspur and roses were used in the decorations of the home.
The program was a discussion of new flowers for 1938 led by Mrs. M. A. Biggs, assisted by Mesdames J. F. Hendren and J. H. Beeson. Mrs. A. G. Click, a special guest, contributed an interesting paper to the discussion. Refreshments were served from the buffet at the close of the program.
Members attending the meeting were: Mesdames W. R. Wellborn, W. W. Whitaker, J. F. Hendren, J. H. Beeson, J. S. Atkinson, E. F. McNeer, M. A. Biggs, H. C. Salmons, George Royall, H. P. Graham, Joe Bivens, Mason Lillard and J. L. Hall.

Holbrook-Brinkley
Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Mildred Holbrook, of Traphill, to Henry Lee Brinkley, of Shelby, which was solemnized at the home of the bridegroom's sister, Miss Betty Brinkley, in Statesville, May 14.
Mrs. Brinkley is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence DeLoss Holbrook, of Traphill. She is an alumna of Tennessee Wesleyan College. For the past several years she has been a member of the Traphill school faculty.
Mr. Brinkley is the son of Samuel Blaine Brinkley and the late Mrs. Lallie Elizabeth Brinkley, of Shelby. He holds a position with the state highway commission.
At present Mr. and Mrs. Brinkley are making their home at Traphill.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Entertain Bridge Club Friday Evening
Mr. and Mrs. Marion Allen entertained members of the Fortnightly Bridge club at an enjoyable bridge-dinner at their home on Church street Friday evening. The home was decorated throughout with garden flowers. Dinner was served upon the arrival of the guests from small tables arranged in the living room.
During the evening bridge was played at three tables. Scoring honors went to Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Harrell at the conclusion of the play.
Members enjoying Mr. and Mrs. Allen's hospitality were: Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Harrell, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Somers, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Poindexter and Paul Gwyn. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Lankford and Miss Betty Allen.

Rev. and Mrs. Whisenhunt Honor Guests At Chinese Luncheon
Honoring their guests, Rev. and Mrs. T. T. Holloway, of Dallas, Texas, the latter a sister of Mrs. Whisenhunt, and a recent bride, Rev. and Mrs. Eph Whisenhunt entertained at a Chinese luncheon at their home on Church street Monday at one o'clock.
The decorations of the home were in red and white, red being the Chinese color for happiness. Red flowers were used in profusion in the rooms and the wedding cake, which centered the table, was inscribed with the Chinese symbols for joy. Other appointments of the table carried out in detail the chosen decorative scheme.
Covers were placed for Rev. and Mrs. Holloway, Mr. and Mrs. Paul P. Davis of Yadkinville, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Herring and Rev. and Mrs. Roy Whisenhunt of Winston-Salem, Rev. and Mrs. Nixon Royall and daughter, Miss Ruth Royall and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Smith of High Point, and Rev. and Mrs. Whisenhunt and daughter, Edith Adair.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham Entertain At Garden Party to Honor Mr. and Mrs. Dortch
Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Graham entertained a lovely garden party at their home on Terrace Avenue Saturday evening at 7 o'clock to honor Mr. and Mrs. Gavin H. Dortch, who were recently married.
The spacious lawn was lighted with Japanese lanterns and the natural beauty of the garden was enhanced by sprays of magnolia blossoms which were arranged on the outside and inside of the summer house.
Mrs. R. B. Harrell and Mrs. E. F. McNeer greeted the guests and directed them to the garden where they were served punch by Mrs. A. O. Bryan and Mrs. Thomas Roth.
In the summer house Mrs. Ruohs Pyron, Mrs. R. M. Chatham, Mrs. R. G. Smith and Mrs. J. R. Poindexter presided at the table, where a delicious supper was served buffet style.

Forty-five guests enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Graham.
Mrs. Dortch was presented a lovely gift as honor guest.

Elkin Valley Y. W. A. Meets; Honor Mrs. Lawrence
The Carrie Woodruff Circle of the Y. W. A. of the Elkin Valley Baptist church met at the home of Miss Bertice Bates Monday evening. Miss Iris Collins, president, presided over the meeting. The program, "Crosses in Brazil", was presented by Misses Ruby McCain and Mozelle Church, assisted by Misses Louise Tulbert, Mildred Lawrence, Alice and Ruby McCain and Frances Martin. Hymns by a trio and quartette were a delightful contribution to the program.
At the close of the program a memorial service was held for the late Mrs. Lester Lawrence, a valuable member of the W.M.U. Miss Mable Davis read a brief biography of Mrs. Lawrence, followed by a poem, "Memories", by Miss Grace Lawrence. Miss Bertice Bates told what the influence of Mrs. Lawrence had meant to her.
Members of the W.M.U. of the church were special guests for the meeting.
Tempting refreshments were served the thirty-five members and visitors present at the conclusion of the service.

Miss Barker and Mr. Noe Are Married in Private Ceremony Saturday
Of much interest to friends in this and other states is the marriage of Miss Margaret Grier Barker and Robert Spillman Noe which was solemnized Saturday morning at nine o'clock at the home of the bride on West Main street. Only the family and a few close friends witnessed the ceremony. Rev. L. B. Abernethy of this city, a former pastor of the bride, officiated, using the ring ritual of the Methodist church.
In the living room an altar was arranged in front of the fireplace. Evergreens were used as a background and tall floor baskets of Madonna lilies were used on either side. White hydrangea blossoms and white candles in a seven-branched candelabra were used on the mantel. In the dining room, hall and library mixed garden flowers were artistically arranged.
For her wedding Miss Barker wore a street dress of navy sheer, with navy and white accessories and a shoulder bouquet of bride's roses and baby's breath.
Mrs. Noe is the second daughter of Harry Henline Barker and the late Mrs. Edith Grier Barker, and a granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Grier, of Charlotte and the late Dr. and Mrs. James Larkin Barker of Jonesville. She is a member of one of the most prominent families in this section. Following her graduation from the local school she entered St. Vincent's school of nursing in Norfolk, where she was graduated in 1937. For the past year she has been a member of the hospital staff there.
Mr. Noe is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Rowland Noe, of Norfolk, and holds a civil service position with the Norfolk fire department.
Following a brief honeymoon to western North Carolina and Tennessee, Mr. and Mrs. Noe are at home at the Chesterfield Heights apartments in Norfolk.
