All members are cordially invited to be present.

Betty Chatham Is Hostess at Party Friday Evening

Miss Betty Chatham was hostess at a delightful dinner party at her home on East Main street having as guests a number of her school friends. Hearts, arrows and Cupids, suggestive of the St. Valentine season, were used in the decorations of the lower floor of the home.

Following the dinner games were enjoyed.

Virginia Visitor Is Honored at Party

Honoring Mrs. F. S. Nuckolls, of Galax, Va., week-end guest of Mrs. Gilbert Meed, Mrs. Carl Young entertained at two tables of bridge at her home on Elk Spur street Saturday evening. St. Valentine symbols were used in the appointments of the two tables, which were placed for the games, and in the delectable refreshments course which was served during the evening. At the final count of scores the high score award went to Mrs. Pauline Masten Pardue. Mrs. Nuckolls was also given a lovely remembrance.

The guest list included Mrs. Nuckolls, Mrs. Meed, Misses Lucy and Agnes Gray, Hazel Phillips, Mayme Blackwood, Mrs. Dick Evans and Mrs. Pauline Masten Pardue.

Mr. and Mrs. Poindexter Entertain At Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Poindexter entertained at an enjoyable bridge-dinner at their home on Gwyn Avenue Tuesday evening. Spring flowers were used in the living room and dining room, where four tables were placed for the games. Scoring honors went to Mrs. Rich Chatham and W. B. Lankford at the conclusion of the play.

Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. Hodel, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hatch, Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Parks, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Lankford, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Folger, Mr. and Mrs. Errol Hayes, Mrs. Rich Chatham, Miss Maude Greenwood and A. B. Somers.

Miss Cooke Is Hostess to Mission Circle

Miss Emma Cooke was hostess to the Edith Adair circle of the W. M. U. of the First Baptist church at her home on Gwyn Avenue Tuesday evening, with 10 members and two visitors present. Miss Beatrice Burcham conducted the devotionals and program. She was assisted in the program by Misses Hazel Byrd,

Winning Friends

Practicing his own axiom of "win friends and influence people," Dale Carnegie, noted lecturer and author, is shown with the bearded Brahmin Ramgoolie Cebala, priest of the ancient Hindu temple at Tunapuna, on the outskirts of Port-of-Spain, Trinidad.

Minnie Ruth McNeill, Violet Pardue, Lucy Gray and Mrs. Jack Terrell.

Miss Lucy Gray was in charge of the business session, which featured routine reports.

A delicious refreshment course was served during a pleasant social half-hour.

Mrs. Chatham Is Hostess To Bridge Club Thursday

Having as guests members of her bridge club and two additional friends, Mrs. Richard G. Chatham entertained at a delightful party at her home on Elk Spur street Thursday. Two tables were made up for bridge. In the games the club award for high score went to Mrs. J. R. Poindexter and the visitor's prize to Mrs. Alex Chatham. Luncheon was served at the conclusion of the play.

Members playing were: Mesdames Raymond Chatham, Paul Gwyn, J. R. Poindexter, Chas. G. Ashby, R. C. Freeman and E. E. Hayes. Additional guests were Mesdames Carl Poindexter and Alex Chatham.

Miss Harmon Is Hostess to Mission Circle

Miss Blanche Harmon was a hostess to the Carrie Woodruff circle of the W. M. U. of the Elkin Valley Baptist church Monday evening, with nine members and one visitor present. Miss Louise Tulbert, president, presided over the meeting and conducted the devotionals. An inspiring program on prayer was presented by Mrs. Orville Lawrence, assisted by Misses Mable and Louise Tulbert, Grace and Mildred Lawrence and Alice and Ruby McCoin.

A highlight of the meeting was a talk by Mrs. Carrie (H. D.) Woodruff, for whom the circle was named.

The hostess, assisted by Miss Mildred Lawrence, served a delectable refreshment course, suggestive of the St. Valentine season.

Jean Parnell Is Honored On Twelfth Birthday Anniversary

Miss Jean Parnell was honored on her twelfth birthday anniversary Tuesday when her mother, Mrs. T. L. Parnell, entertained at a party in the afternoon at their home on Surry Avenue.

Twenty-five children, school friends of the honoree, were invited. Bingo was enjoyed, with the high score prize going to Peggy Lineberry. Betty Ann Combs won the traveling prize and the consolation award went to Glenda Norman. In a true and false contest the prize went to Graham Johnson.

The guests were invited into the dining room for refreshments. A handsomely decorated, two-tier birthday cake was sliced and served with ices, ginger ale and St. Valentine candy. Favors for the little girls were novelty handkerchiefs and the boys were given kites.

Rev. and Mrs. Whisenhunt Entertain At Dinner Tuesday

Having as guests heads of the various departments of the First Baptist church, Rev. and Mrs. Eph Whisenhunt entertained at a Chinese dinner at the pastorium on Church street Tuesday evening. The menu consisted of Chinese food. Decorations were flowering quince and primroses.

Following the dinner plans were outlined for the work of the church during the year.

Those attending were: E. C. James, chairman of the board of deacons; Mrs. C. N. Myers, president W. M. U.; T. A. Leeper, Sunday school superintendent; Miss Estelle Cockerham, president B. Y. P. U.; L. F. Walker, church treasurer; Mrs. J. H. Beeson, choir director; Mrs. E. C. James, mission study chairman; Miss Effie Crater, organist and Mrs. S. T. Ray, mission treasurer.

The dessert course was unique in that the cake, which was sliced and served with ices, was decorated with eleven lighted candles symbolic of the 11 years Rev. Whisenhunt has served as pastor of the local church. Mrs. Whisenhunt was assisted in receiving by their little daughter, Edith Adair Whisenhunt.

Woman's Club To Sponsor Benefit Party Tuesday Evening

The Elkin's Woman's club will sponsor a benefit party Tuesday evening, February 14, at 8 o'clock in the Kiwanis room at Hotel Elkin. Tables will be made up for bridge, rook, rummy, and Chinese checkers. Proceeds of the affair will be used to buy late fiction and books for children for the public library here, which is sponsored by the club.

Those desiring reservations are requested to call members of the following committees: Bridge: Mrs. Errol Hayes, chairman, Mrs. Richard G. Chatham, Mrs. E. Carl Boyles, Mrs. Raymond Chatham, Mrs. Sam Neaves; Rummy: Mrs. J. Walter Darnell, Mrs. L. I. Wade; Chinese Checkers: Mrs. I. C. Yates; Rook: Mrs. David Brendle.

Mrs. George Royall is chairman of the refreshment committee, assisted by Mrs. Marion Allen, Mrs. Hugh H. Chatham and Mrs. H. F. Laffoon.

Mrs. R. B. Harrell and Mrs. L. G. Meed are in charge of the decorations; Mrs. C. H. Brewer, room committee, and Mrs. James Booher and Mrs. P. M. Greene will select the prizes.

Those desiring to attend are requested to bring their own cards or checker boards. Prizes will be awarded in each of the games and refreshments will be served. The affair will be strictly informal. A cordial invitation is extended by the club to the public.
