Boonville Y. W. A. Discusses Prayer

The Boonville Y.W.A. met with Mrs. Thad M. Reece Monday night.

The theme of the night's discussion centered around prayer, and the part that prayer plays in the life of every Christian. Several fine discussions were held on the meaning of prayer, and its influence upon the lives of missionaries and other Christian workers. The central topic was "Such Intercession As Lovers Make."

The program opened with a song, "Take Time to Be Holy," by the group. Devotional taken from Matthew 21:22; John 15:7; James 1:5; and Revelation 3:20, was rendered by Miss Louise Abrams. The topic, "What Is Prayer?" was discussed by Dorothy Coram. Other topics discussed were "Such Intercession As Lovers Make," Mrs. Allan Jessup; "A World Life Through Prayer," Marie Hicks; "Prayer Meets Needs for More Missionaries," Ruby Winkler; "The Prayer Calendar," Katherine Jones; and "An Evening Prayer," a poem by Miss Dorothy Coram.

After the program the hostess served a delicious refreshment course consisting of strawberry shortcake, whipped cream, red candy hearts, and lemonade. The refreshments carried out the Valentine idea. The individual servings of cake were cut in heart shape and displayed the red candy decorations.

The group had as its special guests Mrs. J. H. Reece and Rev. J. P. Davis, pastor of the local Baptist church.

The following ladies were present: Mrs. Roy Reece, Mrs. Watt Deal, Mrs. E. E. Hood, Mrs. Allan Jessup, Misses Ruby Winkler, Katherine Jones, Marie Hicks, Irma Hicks, Marie Finney, Margaret Pardue, Dorothy Coram, Mrs. Thad M. Reece and Mrs. J. H. Reece.

Converted

In the Moody Revivals, Boston, a shop girl was converted. Soon afterwards a purchaser at the store where she worked inquired, "Is this real English lace?" "It was, ma'am, before the Moody meetings—now it's imitation."

COOL SPRINGS

The number in Sunday school stepped back to 112 Sunday morning. However, there was a good increase for the preaching hour. Rev. I. W. Vestal, our pastor, spoke well indeed, with a heart filled with gratitude to God for the returning health of his wife and himself. His theme was "The Mercies of God."

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mathis and children of Durham, were week-end guests of Mr. Mathis' mother, Mrs. Lillie Mathis.

Mr. Richard Morrison of Roaring River, was the guest of Mr. Rufus Tucker Saturday.

Time Hangs Heavy

"Why do you rise so early in the morning?" "I have to get down-town early in order to find a parking-place for my car."

"But do you not then have a good deal of time hanging on your hands?"

"Oh, then I take the street-car home and have breakfast."

Particular Whom He Kissed

A new patient was being presented with the book of rules as he entered the sanatorium.

Nurse: "We don't allow any flirtations or love affairs here and of course that means positively no kissing."

Patient: "Do you suppose I will see anyone around here that I would like to kiss?"
