SWAN CREEK

We are glad to have the beautiful spring-like days after so much rainy weather. People are planting gardens and burning plant beds preparing for another crop.

The Sunday school at Swan Creek had a red letter day last Sunday with an attendance of 169. We met for the first time in our beautiful new church. We feel we have one of the nicest church buildings in this part of the country and the members are grateful to everyone who has had any part in the building or giving or assisting in even the smallest way and we want to say to one and all, we thank you. Everyone in our community is cordially invited to come to the Sunday school. We are organizing some new classes so we have a place for all, both young and old.

Lillian, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Columbus Hayes, was taken to a Statesville hospital last Sunday night with an abscess in her side. We wish her a speedy recovery. She is just recuperating from measles, and there are several more cases of measles in the Hayes home.
