

Elk Theatre Celebrates Its 2nd Anniversary

The Elk Theatre is this week observing its second anniversary here with a week of special shows as a means of expressing the appreciation of the management for the patronage which has been shown on the part of the public.

The anniversary week shows are as follows: today—"Hard to Get," with Dick Powell and Olivia De Havilland; Friday and Saturday—Gene A. Ury in "Rhythm of the Saddle," with Smiley Burnette and Pert Kelton; next Monday and Tuesday—"Trade Winds," with Fredric March and Joan Bennett; next Wednesday—Jackie Cooper in "Gangster's Boy."

The Elk is under the management of Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Reeves.

PLEASANT HILL

Rev. I. W. Vestal filled his regular appointment at Pleasant Hill Sunday and Sunday night.

Rev. D. W. Day preached at White Plains Sunday morning at 11:00, at Buggybo school house Sunday afternoon at 2:00, and at Macedonia Sunday night at 7:00. The Happy Day and the Guiding Star quartets furnished special music.

School has been postponed another week because of measles and mumps.

Miss Mae Cockerham is recovering nicely from a recent operation.

Misses Margaret and Elizabeth Settle were the Sunday guests of Miss Mozell Darnell.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Richerson and Mr. Richerson's sister, of Pineville, W. Va., were the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Couch.

Mrs. Tommy Newman visited Mr. and Mrs. Claude Newman last week-end.

The F. H. C. class held its regular monthly meeting at the church February 23, with the vice-president, Miss Margaret Couch, in charge. After the business hour was over, refreshments were served.

COOL SPRINGS

The Sunday school at Cool Springs is still going strong. People have been kind to Cool Springs. For reasons of sentiment and love of God and His cause here, time and money have been donated freely and today there is no indebtedness against the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Pitts of Winston-Salem, were guests of Mrs. Pitts' mother, Mrs. Lily Mathis, the past week-end.

Jack Holbrook has purchased the Montgomery Mathis farm and Mr. Mathis has purchased the farm belonging to his mother, Mrs. Tom Mathis.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Holbrook have moved to the home of Mrs. Holbrook's grandmother, Mrs. Prudie Pettyjohn.

Misses Reida Ross and Raye Harris attended the young peoples' meeting at Charity Sunday evening. They report a program of interest and variety, with Mr. Marcus Jolly leader.

Also, if we may, we'd like to say "hats off," to our neighbor, Pleasant Ridge, just across the "Big Elkin."

Young peoples' meet each Sunday evening. Join us if you will. The young peoples' chorus has room for more.

STATE ROAD

Mrs. Arnie Smith, of Salisbury, was the Sunday guest of Mrs. Bessie Smith here.

Mrs. L. C. Lowe and daughters, of Mining Ridge, visited relatives here Sunday.

Messrs. Harold and Orville Norman and Howard Pettyjohn were visitors at Oak Ridge Sunday evening.

Messrs. Dock and Sam Gilliam, of Benham, were visitors here Sunday night.

Messrs. Paul and John Smith made a business trip to Yadkinville Monday.

Messrs. J. J. Deffbaugh and L. H. Smith were visitors in the Shoaly Branch community Sunday afternoon.

A meeting of the Young Men's Club is scheduled for Saturday, March 4, 4:30 o'clock, at the home of the vice-president. All members are requested to be present.

There will be a prayer meeting at the home of Mrs. Bessie Smith next Thursday evening at 7:30. Neighbors and friends are cordially invited.
