DOUGHTON

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Gentry and daughters, Sarah, Mary Alice, Johnnie Grace, and son, G. B. Jr., and Mrs. Gentry's sister, Miss Grace Woodruff, all of Hays, N. C., were the guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Gentry of Doughton.

Mrs. I. S. Gambill and children, Nancy Carroll and Johnnie, and niece, Betty Gambill, of Elkin and J. Sam Gentry of Mt. Park, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Gentry.

On Saturday night, March 25 a very enjoyable program was given at Roaring Gap school with "Cliff Carlyle" and his famous Musicians of radio fame furnishing the entertainment. Features of the program was the fine hill billy music, the singing of "Sonny Boy," comedy by "Pappy Doolittle" and "Barnacle Bill the Sailor," and "The Pretty Fair Maiden." The audience was as enthusiastic over seeing old Barnacle Bill again as the "Pretty Fair Maiden," as he had been at sea for sometime. Apparently a most enjoyable time was had by all who attended.

The many friends of Mrs. Andrew Key, D. Blackburn and his sister, Nina Blackburn, who are confined with pneumonia, wish for them a speedy recovery.

The citizens of this community are still hoping to be able to persuade the Duke Power company to extend their line on highway 21 to Doughton. It is generally understood they have agreed to extend it to Mr. Brook's place. If they could be persuaded to extend this line to Doughton it would complete the link on highway 21 in Surry and Wilkes counties.
