Mrs. Dorch Is Club Hostess Wednesday

Having as guests members of her bridge club, Mrs. Gavin Dorch was hostess at a charming bridge-luncheon Wednesday at her home on West Main street. Luncheon was served at one o'clock and bridge was played at two tables during the afternoon. Scoring honors went to Mrs. Clyde Eller at the conclusion of the games.

Those making up the tables were Mesdames Richard G. Chatham, Clyde Eller, Hugh H. Chatham, Edwin Harris, Sam Neaves, John Sagar and Hugh Parks.

Mr. and Mrs. Poindexter Entertain At Bridge-Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Poindexter entertained at a delightful bridge-dinner at their home on Gwyn Avenue Wednesday evening. Spring flowers were used in profusion throughout the home and as centerpieces for the four small tables, where covers were placed for sixteen.

During the evening's play scoring honors went to Mrs. E. C. Grier and Gavin Dorch.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Roth, Dr. and Mrs. Chas. L. Haywood, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Chatham, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Spinhour, Mr. and Mrs. Gavin Dorch, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Bryan, Mrs. Raymond Chatham, Mrs. E. C. Grier and C. J. Hyslop.

Mrs. Jones Is Hostess To Club Tuesday Evening

Members of the Playmakers Club enjoyed a delightful meeting at the home of Mrs. Jake Jones, Tuesday evening. Spring flowers were used in the living room, where three tables were placed for bridge. Appointments of the tables were suggestive of the Easter season.

In the games the high score award went to Miss Agnes Gray and the honor prize to Mrs. Sig Holcomb.

A beautifully appointed salad course was served at the conclusion of the play.

Guests in addition to the club members were Mesdames Sig Holcomb, Ruth Roland and Wayne Phillips.

Mrs. Laffoon Is Club Hostess Friday Evening

Mrs. H. F. Laffoon entertained members of the Round Dozen Book Club and three additional friends at an enjoyable party at her home on Church street Friday evening. In the living room, where three tables were placed for rook, spring flowers were attractively arranged. A dessert course was served upon the arrival of the guests.

Table awards for club members for high scores during the games went to Mrs. L. I. Wade, Mrs. J. Walter Darnell and Mrs. J. P. Ipock. The visitor's prize went to Miss Lucy Gray.

Guests in addition to the club members were: Mrs. C. O. Garland, Mrs. C. A. McNeill and Miss Lucy Gray.

Parent-Teachers Hear C. W. Phillips; Elect Officers

The annual Father's Night program of the Parent-Teacher Association, held at the elementary school auditorium Tuesday evening, featured a talk by C. W. Phillips, head of the public relations department of the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, and secretary of the North Carolina Congress of Parent-Teachers, on a very human subject, "What I Want the School To Do For My Child." Stressing the fact that essentials of the school were teaching the child to think for himself, to use his reasoning powers, also his powers of concentration, and the cultivation of the desire to learn were among the vitally essential points of school room training. The program was in charge of Mrs. J. Mark McAdams, president, and the speaker was introduced by Miss Alice Dixon. Rev. O. V. Caudill, pastor of the Presbyterian church, led the devotional period.

Officers were elected as follows to serve for the 1939-40 school term: President, Mrs. J. Mark McAdams; vice-president, Mrs. J. Harold Click; secretary, Miss Emma Copeck, and treasurer, Mrs. A. O. Bryan.

A social hour was enjoyed at the close of the business session. Numbers by Mary Liles Freeman, Julie Bryan, Mary Vance McAdams, Beulah Yates and Ketchel Adams, tap dancers, accompanied by the piano by Miss Virginia Lineberry, were enjoyed.

An informal reception, under the direction of Mrs. I. C. Yates, concluded the enjoyable session.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Chappell and little daughter, Bonnie, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Chappell attended a birthday dinner honoring D. D. Shore, at Harmony Sunday.

Mrs. E. A. Jenkins, of Winston-Salem, was the guest last week of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Jenkins, the former her son.

J. Lee Layne of Rameur, spent several days here last week the guest of friends and relatives.

E. J. Burch, of Asheville, spent the week-end here with his mother, Mrs. Lillie V. Burch.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Greenwood and daughter, Miss Jennie, and Jim Greenwood were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Banner Greenwood, near Poplar Springs.

Mrs. Joe Gentry, who has been ill for several days at her home near Friendship, is improving, her many friends will be glad to know.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin, of Twin Oaks, announce the birth of a son, Jackie Burgie, Thursday, March 23.

Rev. Mr. Armstrong, of Winston-Salem, will preach at Besie's Chapel Baptist church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Miss Thelma Dodson, of Elkin, spent the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Dodson.

Miss Ellerece Caudill is quite ill at her home at Friendship, her many friends will regret to learn.

Rev. E. G. Jordan, of Elkin Valley, assisted by Rev. E. E. Adams, of Mayodan, will begin a series of revival services at Besie's Chapel Baptist church the fourth Sunday in April. The public is cordially invited to attend the services.

Mrs. Dora Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ashburn and Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery Wood visited Miss Ethel Wood, a student nurse at Burrus Memorial hospital in High Point Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. T. M. Chandler and family, of Kernersville, were the guests Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Carter.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Marion moved here last week from Winston-Salem. Mr. Marion will fill the vacancy of the late W. D. Allen as section foreman for the Southern Railway. We welcome them to this community.

Miss Lucille Martin spent the week-end in Rockford, the guest of friends and relatives.

Webb Hayes, of Elkin Valley, presented a play at Little Richmond Baptist church Sunday evening. The junior quartette rendered special music. The program was greatly enjoyed by those attending.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hampton, of Arlington, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hampton, of Burch, Roger Sprinkle, of Mt. Airy, and Rev. R. W. Calloway, of Mountain Park, were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Sprinkle, at Twin Oaks.

PLEASANT HILL

F. H. C. Class Meets

The F. H. C. class of the Pleasant Hill Baptist church met at the home of Miss Mozelle Darnell Thursday night, March 23.

The meeting was opened by the class president, Miss Mozelle Darnell. The class decided to get class pins and new collection plates for the church.

After the business session an interesting program on "Foreign Missions," was enjoyed by the members present. The class quartet furnished special music.

At the close of the program the guests were invited into the dining room, which was decorated for St. Patrick's Day. Tempting refreshments were served.

Able To

A celebrated violinist was in a motor-car accident. A paper after reporting the accident, added, "We are happy to state that he was able to appear the following evening in three pieces."

COOL SPRINGS

We were agreeably surprised Sunday when our records showed an increase of three over the previous Sunday. With the flu as thick as April rain we had feared an immense reduction in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Holbrook and son, Burette, spent the week-end in Winston-Salem, the guests of their daughter, Mrs. John Burton, and Mr. Burton.

Messrs. Bill Couch, Walter Byrd and Howard Carter and Misses Virginia Carter and Edith Couch were among a group of youngsters who visited Mr. and Mrs. Worth Wishon Saturday evening.

And now we are going to fess up about our Sunday school record. A thorough census, correct, and as complete we believe as four young girls can make it, shows a total population about Cool Springs of three hundred and ninety-eight. Of course many are cradle roll age and many are aged and can't possibly be counted as new possibilities, yet the staggering sum of at least three hundred would remain. We're wondering how long this will remain thus. Not long, if we as a Sunday school can do anything about it.

ST. PAUL

Rev. Mr. Stevens filled his regular appointment last Sunday at St. Paul and delivered an inspiring message.

Mrs. Clay Myers and little daughter, Patricia Ann, spent the week-end near Jonesville, visiting her sister, Mrs. D. C. Swain. Miss Dicie Myers, of New Hope, visited her sister, Mrs. Beveridge Reavis, for several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wellborn and family visited Mrs. Wellborn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hinson, near Yadkinville Sunday.

A number of people from here attended the Epworth League meeting Sunday evening at St. Paul. Nelson Ireland, principal of the West Yadkin school, made an interesting talk, using as his subject "Christianity."
