

SOCIETY.

Mrs. Hayes Is Hostess to Club Thursday

Mrs. Errol Hayes was hostess at a lovely party at her home on Church street Thursday, having as guests members of her bridge club and a few additional friends. Bridge was played during the morning and luncheon was served at one o'clock. The club award for high score went to Mrs. Paul Gwyn and the visitor's prize to Mrs. Rich Chatham.

Miss Masten Is Hostess to Y. W. A.

The Y. W. A. of the W. M. S. of the First Baptist church met at the home of Miss Dorothy Masten Monday evening, with 10 members and two visitors present. Two new members Misses Elizabeth Beddingfield and Betsy Mosley, were enrolled.

The devotionals were in charge of Miss Edith Fox and Miss Mattie Lee Eldson presented the program.

Refreshments were served during a pleasant social hour.

Number Four Circle of Methodist W. M. S. to Meet

Circle number four of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church will meet Friday evening, April 7, at the home of Mrs. John Sagar on Gwyn avenue, with Miss Lucille Young associate hostess.

The meeting has been postponed from Thursday evening on account of the operetta at the elementary school.

All members are cordially invited to attend.

Johnny Church Is Honored on Birthday Anniversary

Honoring her little son on his fourth birthday anniversary, Mrs. Odell Church entertained at an Easter egg hunt at her home on Elk Spur street. Ten children enjoyed the affair with the honor guest. The little guests were given favors of brightly colored eggs.

The decorations were Easter rabbits and eggs. Birthday cake and ices were served.

B. Y. P. U. Members and Guests Are Honored

Members of the Intermediate B. Y. P. U. of the First Baptist church and a number of invited guests were honored with a skating party and bicycle riding contest Tuesday evening by their leaders, Mrs. E. C. James and C. R. Alexander.

A portion of Surry Avenue was roped off from traffic and the guests had full sway of the street. Doughnuts and hot chocolate were served.

Thirty-five guests enjoyed the outing.

Mrs. Sagar and Miss Lillard Honor Visitor Saturday

Honoring Miss Bette Wigton, of Plainfield, N. J., guest of Mrs. Hugh Hill Chatham, Mrs. John Sagar and Miss Carolyn Lillard entertained at a delightful, informal tea Saturday afternoon at their home on Gwyn avenue.

A colorful arrangement of spring flowers adorned the lower floor of the home. A prettily appointed collation was served.

Miss Wigton was presented a remembrance as honor guest.

The guest list included sixteen members of the younger set.

Visitor and Bride Are Honored By Mrs. Chatham

Honoring Mrs. Jack Carter, a bride of the winter, and Miss Bette Wigton, of Plainfield, N. J., guest of Mrs. Hugh Hill Chatham, Mrs. Rich Chatham entertained at a charming luncheon Saturday at her home on East Main street. The lovely home was artistically arranged with bowls of hyacinths and jonquils. Covers were laid for twelve at a beautifully appointed table.

Mrs. Carter was presented a silver card tray and Miss Wigton was presented linen handkerchiefs as guests of honor.

Mrs. Chatham Is Hostess to Fete Guest

Honoring her guest, Miss Bette Wigton, of Plainfield, N. J., Mrs. Hugh Hill Chatham was hostess at a charming luncheon Wednesday at her home on Gwyn avenue.

Covers were placed for fourteen. Appointments were suggestive of the approaching Easter season. Individual favors attached to the place cards were Easter bunny carts of mints. The honoree was presented a remembrance. Mrs. Jack Carter, a bride of the winter, was given a gift and the guest prize was drawn by Mrs. Edwin Harris.

Miss Wigton Is Honored Tuesday Afternoon

Honoring Miss Bette Wigton, of Plainfield, N. J., guest of Mrs. Hugh Hill Chatham, Mrs. Sam Neaves and Miss Emmaline Neaves were hostesses at an afternoon bridge Tuesday at the home of the latter on Bridge street. Spring flowers were used in the living room, where three tables were placed for the games. In the progressions Mrs. Roger Carter won the high score award. Miss Wigton was presented a lovely gift as guest of honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Wagoner Honor Daughter Monday

Honoring their daughter, Angeline, on her thirteenth birthday anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Wagoner, entertained at a dinner party at their home near Jonesville, Monday evening. Following a number of games and contests the guests were invited into the dining room, where a beautifully appointed dinner was served. The table was covered with a handmade lace cloth and centered with a handsomely decorated birthday cake, topped with pink candles. Tulips were artistically arranged throughout the room. The guest list included fourteen school mates of the honoree.

Vanhoy-Bovender Wedding Is Announced

Mrs. Stella Brown Vanhoy of near Jonesville, announces the marriage of her daughter, Blanche, to Johnny Bovender, of Boonville, on March 26, at Independence, Va. Rev. T. R. Windsor heard the vows, using the ring ceremony of the Methodist church.

For her wedding the bride wore a suit of teal blue with matching accessories.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Bovender of Boonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Bovender are making their home in an apartment in the home of the bride's mother, near Jonesville.

Mrs. Chatham Is Hostess to Club Wednesday

Having as guests members of her bridge club and a few additional friends, Mrs. Rich Chatham was hostess at a delightful bridge-luncheon Wednesday at her home on East Main street. Luncheon was served at one o'clock from a table beautifully arranged with spring flowers. Place cards were in the Easter motif.

In the bridge games the club award, a cut glass perfume bottle, went to Mrs. Thomas Roth. The visitor's prize, a crystal ash tray, went to Mrs. E. C. Grier.

Club members playing were: Mesdames A. O. Bryan, Thomas Roth, H. C. Graham, R. G. Smith and Alex Chatham. Additional guests were: Mesdames E. C. Grier, J. R. Poindexter and Charles G. Ashby.

Mr. and Mrs. Holcomb Entertain Monday Evening

Mr. and Mrs. Sig Holcomb entertained at a bridge-dinner at their home on Elk Spur street Monday evening. Forsythia and jonquils were used in the living room and dining room, where four tables were placed for the games. Dinner was served upon the arrival of the guests.

Bridge was played during the evening, with prizes for high scores going to Mrs. Clyde Cothren and Frank Clanton. The honor prize went to Mrs. Jake Jones.

Those enjoying the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Holcomb were: Mr. and Mrs. Jake Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Young, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Guyer, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cothren, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clanton, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Meed.

Carrie Woodruff Circle Meets Monday

The Carrie Woodruff circle of the Y. W. A. of the Elkin Valley Baptist church met at the home of Miss Sarah Cockerham Monday evening, with Miss Ann Newman associate hostess, with 22 members present.

Miss Bertice Bates, president, presided over the meeting and conducted the devotionals. The program was in charge of Miss Alice McCain, assisted by Miss Helen Hayes, Mrs. Jack Simmons, Mrs. Orville Lawrence, Miss Ruby McCain and Miss Grace Lawrence. A quartette, composed of Misses Helen and Opal Hayes, Louise and Mable Tulbert, accompanied by Miss Marguerite Cockerham, gave several selections.

Refreshments, in which the Easter season was suggested, were served buffet style, during a pleasant social hour.

Mrs. Graham Is Guest Speaker For Woman's Club

Mrs. Grover Graham of Lewisville, was guest speaker for the open meeting of the Elkin Woman's Club at Hotel Elkin Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Graham, who is a native Englishwoman, spoke on English gardens and parks. Her talk was highly enjoyed. She was introduced by Mrs. C. H. Brewer, chairman of the Garden Department of the club, who sponsored the program.

A feature of the meeting was two songs, "The Chimes" (Gest) and "Melody of Love" (Engelman), by the vested high school glee club, under the direction of their leader, Mrs. J. H. Beeson. Miss Margaret Settle, a member of the club, played the accompaniments.

Mrs. Paul Gwyn, club president, was in charge of the business session, which followed the program. Routine business was discussed.

The Coiffure of 1939

NEW YORK CITY—Shorter hair and modified up-lines are the characteristics of the hair styles these four girls wear. The "swirl" it is called, and beauty shop owners meeting here in their fifteenth national convention call it the coiffure of 1939. Left to right: Beverly Hosier, Frances Tannehill, Ruth Bond and Dorothea Jackson.

Methodist Circles Meet Monday Afternoon

The circles of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church met Monday afternoon at 3:30 in the following homes:

Circle number one met with Mrs. G. P. Dockery, on Bridge street, with 13 members present. Mrs. Mason Lillard conducted the devotionals and Mrs. J. Mark Adams led the Bible Study.

Circle number two met with Mrs. R. G. Smith, on Gwyn Avenue, with 18 members present. Mrs. Smith conducted the Bible study and the devotionals were in charge of Mrs. E. C. Freeman.

Circle number three met with Mrs. R. L. Harris, on West Main street, with 13 members present. Mrs. Joe Blvins conducted the devotionals and the Bible study was under the direction of Mrs. H. C. Salmons.

Beginning the third Monday afternoon in April at 3:30 a mission study course will begin at the church. All members are requested to attend.

At the close of the group meetings a social hour was enjoyed. Each hostess served a tempting refreshment course.

Baptist Circles Meet Monday

The circles of the Woman's Missionary Union of the First Baptist church met in the following homes Monday afternoon at 3:30:

The Naomi Shell circle met with Mrs. David Brendle on Bridge street with Mrs. T. G. Harris, chairman, presiding. Thirteen members were present. The devotionals were conducted by Mrs. John Gilliam, and Miss Estelle Cockerham, mission study chairman, led the study for the afternoon. During the business session, plans were made for the linen shower for the Baptist hospital.

The Neal C. Young circle met with Mrs. G. L. Hampton on Elk Spur street with 12 members in attendance. Miss Emma Cooke, chairman, presided, and Mrs. I. C. Yates led the devotional. The mission study was conducted by Mrs. E. C. James. Routine reports featured the business hour.

The Emma Leachman circle met with Mrs. J. F. Moseley east of Jonesville, with 17 members, one new member, Mrs. E. T. Reece, and one visitor present. Mrs. W. F. Reece, chairman, presided, and Mrs. F. A. Brendle conducted the devotionals. Mrs. F. M. Norman, mission study chairman, led an interesting discussion of the study for the afternoon. Plans were made for the linen shower for the Baptist hospital for Mother's Day.

Monday evening at 7:30 the Pearl Johnson circle met with Mrs. Frear Adams with Mrs. T. C. Douglas as associate hostess. Nine members were in attendance. Devotionals were led by Mrs. Charles Young followed by prayer by Mrs. Sheffield Graham. The program, Latin America, was in charge of Mrs. George Adams who was assisted by Mrs. Sheffield Graham, Mrs. R. L. Reinhardt, and Mrs. Mary Laster. The closing prayer was offered by R. L. Reinhardt.

The Rosalee Appleby circle met Monday evening with Mrs. Herbert Madison in Arlington with nine members, one new member, and four visitors in attendance. Mrs. Effie Crater, circle chair-

TO SELL BRENDLE LAND AT AUCTION

The property known as the Brendle land, located on highway 21, one and one-half miles north of the Elkin city limits, will be sold at auction Monday, April 10, by the W. R. Weir Auction Co., of Winston-Salem.

The property consists of 60 acres and one 9-room house. It is in walking distance of North Elkin school, and electricity is available. Spring water is also said to be available for every home that may be built on the property.

Once sold, the property will not be left open for upset bids, it was announced.

The first statue of a Chinaman was that of Li Hung Chang unveiled in Shanghai in 1906.

Elegance
FOR EASTER

Archer Hosiery
For Lovely Women

$1.00
to $1.35

Step out front in the Easter Parade clad in the elegance of ARCHER Hosiery, and you'll rival Dame Fashion herself!

SYDNOR-SPAINHOUR
Elkin, N. C.

Your CANCELLED CHECK Is Your RECEIPT

Paying by check is the Safe, Convenient way to meet your obligations. Open a Checking Account at this friendly bank today.

THE BANK OF ELKIN

R. C. Lowellyn, Pres.
Garland Johnson, Vice-Pres.
Franklin Folger, Cashier

NATIONALLY ADVERTISED IN LEADING MAGAZINES

Paris Fashion SHOES

WE BRING YOU AMERICA'S MOST POPULAR STYLE SHOES IN THE NEWEST SPRING COLOR

Japonica

$2.98
AND 3.95

not only many styles, but gorgeous styles in this bright "wear-with-everything" orange-rust color! Styles with a French dash... in PLEATED, DRAPED and PIN-PUNCHED CALE, new WHIRLWIND MESH... toeless... heelless! High or mid-hi heels. Come see them!

Guaranteed as advertised in Good Housekeeping

SYDNOR-SPAINHOUR

Because 12,000 smart women buy them, every day

RED CROSS SHOES ARE AMERICA'S MOST AMAZING SHOE VALUE

Only because so many women buy Red Cross Shoes, is it possible for you to buy this famous footwear at such an incredibly low price. And it's easy to understand why Red Cross Shoes are first choice with so many smart women. For there has been no compromise with quality since the price was reduced from $10. In quality, in fit, in workmanship, in styling—Red Cross Shoes are still $10 shoes in everything but price. Now only $6.50.

SYDNOR-SPAINHOUR
Elkin, N. C.