Gordon Crow Dies Friday Morning

Isaac Gordon Crow, 33, of Hamptonville, died early Friday morning at a Statesville hospital after a few weeks illness with a brain tumor. He was a native of Goldsboro but had made his home in Yadkin county for several years. He was a member of High Point M. E. church.

Survivors include the widow, who was before marriage Miss Versie Jacks, three small sons, his mother, Mrs. Isaac Crow, and one brother, Ray Crow, both of New Orleans; one sister, Mrs. Wright Lynch, of Wilmington, also survives. An uncle, Rev. G. W. Edgerton, resides in Yadkinville.

The funeral was conducted at Flat Rock Baptist church Sunday afternoon at 2:30, with the pastor, Rev. R. L. West, in charge. The body lay in state one hour before the funeral. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Greatest Accomplishment

Teacher: "Johnny, what do you consider the greatest accomplishment of the ancient Romans?"

Johnny: "Speaking Latin."
