

SOCIETY.

Legion Auxiliary to Have Dutch Supper

Members of the Woman's Auxiliary of the George Gray Post of the American Legion will have a Dutch supper Tuesday evening, April 18, at 7 o'clock, at the home of Mesdames T. W. Church and Fannie Salmons on Gwyn Avenue. The regular program will be held following the supper.

All members are cordially invited to attend.

Mission Study Class to Be Held

Monday and Tuesday, April 17 and 18, a spring mission study class will be held at the Methodist church. The meetings will be held at 3:30 in the afternoon and the classes will be taught by Mrs. Harold Click.

All members of the society are urged to attend as an effort is being made to have this a fully accredited class, according to Mrs. J. H. Hall, president of the group.

Egg Hunt Honors B. Y. P. U. Members

Having as guests twenty members of the Junior B. Y. P. U. of the First Baptist church, Mesdames C. R. Alexander, R. L. Reinhardt and George Adams entertained at an Easter egg hunt at the home of Mrs. Alexander on Surry avenue Monday afternoon from 4 until 6 o'clock.

Prizes were awarded Peggy Lineberry and Tip Freeman for finding the most eggs. The guests were given favors of colored eggs.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Honor Visitors Saturday Evening

Mr. and Mrs. Errol Hayes entertained informally at their home on Church street Saturday evening to honor their week-end visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cromwell, of Chester, S. C., and Mr. and Mrs. James Shore, of Burlington. Mr. and Mrs. Cromwell are former residents of Elkin and Mrs. Shore is a sister of Mr. Hayes.

A number of friends called during the evening. Refreshments were served buffet style.

Mrs. Sagar and Miss Young Circle Hostesses

Circle number four of the W. M. S. of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. John Sagar, on Gwyn Avenue, Friday evening, with Miss Lucille Young associate hostess, with 16 members present.

Mrs. Max Boyles conducted the devotionals and the program on "Realization of Democracy in the Local Community," was presented by Miss Ophelia Paul, Miss Carolyn Lillard and Mrs. Harvey Stockton.

A social hour was enjoyed at the close of the program. A delicious refreshment course was served by the hostesses.

Mrs. Eller Is Club Hostess Wednesday

Mrs. Clyde Eller entertained members of her bridge club and three additional friends at an enjoyable luncheon-bridge at her home on Bridge street Wednesday. Pansies were used as centerpieces for the two small tables, where covers were placed for eight. Luncheon was served at one o'clock and during the afternoon bridge was played. Mrs. Hubert Parker won the top score award. Miss Bette Wigton, of Plainfield, N. J., guest of Mrs. Hugh Hill Chatham, was given a remembrance.

Members playing were: Mesdames Hubert Parker, Hugh Parks, Hugh Hill Chatham, Gavin Dorch and Sam Neaves. Special guests were Miss Wigton, Mrs. Claude Farrell and Mrs. James Booher.

Polly Price is Feted on Fourth Birthday Anniversary

Honoring her little daughter, Polly, on her fourth birthday anniversary, Mrs. Paul Price entertained at an enjoyable luncheon at her home on Gwyn Avenue, Monday, having as guests members of the dancing class of the honoree. The table was centered with a birthday cake, decorated in green and white. Easter bunnies and colored eggs were used as place cards.

During the afternoon an egg hunt was enjoyed. Mary Liles Freeman was awarded a prize for finding the most eggs.

Those enjoying the event were: Edna White Dillon, Mary Liles Freeman, Helen Brookshire, Sarah Glenn Boyles, Elizabeth Eller, Mary Gale and Joe Price and Joan Forester, the latter of North Wilkesboro.

Mrs. Gravitte Is Bride of Edward R. Boles

Mrs. Neva Smith Gravitte, of Pilot Mountain, and Edward R. Boles, of Jonesville, were married Tuesday, April 4, at Independence, Va., with Rev. J. D. Greenwood, pastor of the Methodist church, officiating.

The bride wore a light weight suit of blue wool with navy accessories and a shoulder bouquet of gardenias.

Mrs. Boles is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mack R. Smith, of Pilot Mountain. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Boles, of Jonesville.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Boles left for a wedding trip to California and before returning will visit the World's Fair in New York.

The couple will reside in Pilot Mountain, where Mr. Boles is associated in business.

Carter-Darnell Wedding Solemnized Saturday Evening

A wedding of interest to friends throughout this section is that of Miss Epsie Darnell and Gilvin Carter, which was solemnized Saturday evening at 7 o'clock at the home of the bride's father, Click Darnell, in the Cool Springs community.

Rev. I. W. Vestal, pastor of the bride, heard the vows, which were spoken before an improvised altar in the living room. Guests for the wedding included about thirty relatives and close friends.

The bride wore a becoming dress of navy blue with navy accessories and her bouquet was of bride's roses and valley lilies.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding supper was served.

The bride is the daughter of Click Darnell and the late Mrs. Darnell, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carter, of Pleasant Hill. Mr. Carter is an employee of Chatham Manufacturing company.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter will make their home with the bride's father.

BETHEL

"How Can I Help Loving Jesus" was the subject used by Rev. J. A. Gilley at the eleven o'clock service held at Bethel church last Sunday morning, after reading some very impressive scripture of the resurrection. C. W. Gilliam brought the message at the evening meeting, preaching from Luke 20:25, "Render therefore unto Caesar the things which be Caesar's and unto God the things which be God's." The pastor was present at both meetings.

J. Paul Gilliam, of Statesville, was here Monday for a while, visiting his sister, Mrs. J. T. Triplette, and other relatives.

Elmer Morrison and sisters, Misses Louise and Pauline Morrison, and "Jack" Engrim were in Winston-Salem one day last week on business.

Mrs. Luther Gray, of Cycle, has been at the bedside of her father, Mr. J. F. Stroud, much of the time for the past two weeks. Mr. Stroud's condition is grave at this writing. His daughter, Mrs. Robert Swalm, of Swan Creek, who has had illness in her family, has also been with him some and his son, J. M. Stroud, of Elkin.

Miss Huzie Myers attended the sunrise service at Winston-Salem last Sunday morning. Others whom we have learned of going from this place were Eugene Jones and Paul Mathis, all arriving home in time to attend Sunday school and church services.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Walker and little daughter, Linda, of High Point, were the guests of Mrs. Walker's parents during the Easter holidays, Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Green.

Several relatives met with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Armstrong, of Winston-Salem, at their home here last Sunday and had Easter dinner. Two sisters of Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. W. A. Stroud, of Wilkesboro, and Mrs. Louis Ferrazzo, of Winston-Salem, whose birthdays have occurred in the past two weeks, were honor guests. Also, Miss Arbie Fewell, of the Ronda high school faculty, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Gilliam for Easter, was numbered with the honor guests.

Mrs. W. N. Weatherman, of Jonesville, visited her daughter and family last Saturday and Sunday, Mrs. J. F. Mathis. They spent a while at the cemetery at Fall Creek church Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. R. G. Myers has been confined to her room with illness for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hemric had as their guests last Sunday their daughter, Mrs. Thomas Jennings, and children, of Cycle.

Funeral services were held here at Bethel church last Thursday morning for Mr. William Ayers, of Elkin, who formerly made his home in this community. The rites were conducted by the pastor, Rev. R. G. Pardue, Rev. J. Powers, Rev. Mr. Fries and Rev. Lloyd Pardue.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Gilliam, Jr., and children, Charlie and Mary, were the guests for Easter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jones.

Miss Virginia Durham, of Jonesville, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Durham, last Sunday.

Mr. C. F. Stroud, of Jonesville, who is recovering from an illness of several weeks, was able to accompany his daughter, Mrs. W. F. Bride, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gilliam to see his uncle, Mr. J. F. Stroud, here Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Triplette visited his father, Mr. J. C. Triplette, of Jonesville, last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Jones spent last Sunday night and Monday in Winston-Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Melton and daughter, Mrs. C. W. Gilliam, Jr., accompanied by Mr. W. T. Morrison, spent a while at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Groce last Tuesday. Mrs. Groce, who has been ill with flu, is a sister of Mrs. Melton.

Misses Norma Gilliam, Elizabeth Burchette, Kathleen Jones

TO CONDUCT REVIVAL AT PILGRIM CHURCH

Rev. Elmor Hanna, of Urbana, Ill., will begin a series of revival services at the Pilgrim Holiness church in this city on April 18. The services will be held each evening at 7:30 through May 5. A cordial invitation is extended the public to attend.

GLADE VALLEY MUSIC PUPILS IN RECITAL

The music pupils of Glade Valley high school will present a recital in the school auditorium Saturday evening, April 15, at 8 o'clock. The program will consist of both piano and vocal numbers.

A cordial invitation is extended the public to attend.

More Appropriate

A farmer, visiting his son at the university, took the boy downtown to have his photograph taken. The photographer suggested that the son stand with his hand on his father's shoulder.

"It would be more appropriate," remarked the father, "if he stood with his hand in my pocket."
