

YADKIN WOMAN HAS BIRTHDAY

Mrs. M. F. Gough Is One of the Oldest Active Boonville Citizens
IS 76 YEARS OF AGE

Mrs. M. F. Gough, one of the oldest active citizens of the Boonville community celebrated her seventy-sixth birthday at her home here Sunday in the midst of her children, grandchildren, and a number of friends who gathered for the occasion.

The old saying that a person is never any older than he feels is aply borne out in the case of Mrs. Gough. She is very active, both mentally and physically, and is well aware of present day problems and events. She is a voracious reader, and keeps well abreast of what the dictators are doing in Europe. She likes Chamberlain and Daladier, but strings along with King Zog in part in saying that Hitler and Mussolini are surely madmen. Mrs. Gough is very apprehensive of the world situation at the present time and she fears from day to day as she goes to her mail box to get her morning Winston-Salem Journal that it will bring the dreaded news that the great countries of Europe are again entangled in throes of war.

Mrs. Gough was born in Yadkin county on April 15, 1863, and has lived her entire life in and near Boonville. When she was a young girl she united with the Deep Creek church, and has been a member there ever since. In her young womanhood she married Martin F. Gough who died several years ago. He was a Confederate veteran and fought in the regiment with General Joseph E. Johnson. To this union were born nine children, six sons and three daughters. Eight of these children, along with her great number of grandchildren were present Sunday to pay their mother homage.

The children who were present Sunday are as follows: J. C. Gough and E. M. Gough, of Lenoir; Everett Gough, of Boonville; E. W. Gough, C. W. Gough and T. C. Gough, of Winston-Salem; and Mrs. C. E. Smith and Mrs. D. W. Sloan, also of Winston-Salem; 58 grandchildren and 26 great-grandchildren.

COOL SPRINGS

There were 174 present at Sunday school Sunday, with many visitors from various places. Among them were Mrs. W. E. Macy, Mr. James Ross and Mr. M. M. Macy, of Fieldale, Va.; Rev. Pearson Parks, Mr. Council Laster, of Cycle; Mr. and Mrs. John Shore, Miss Laura Wall, Mr. Rob Wall, Mr. Claude Wall, of near Elkin; Mr. and Mrs. Lytle Alexander, of Arlington; Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Gambill, Mr. Scott and Arvil Alexander, of near Elkin; Mrs. Leonard Hanes and sons, Mahlon and Jimmy, and Mr. Ed Moody, of State Road; Mr. Maynard Harris and Todd Kress, of Salisbury.

Many friends of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Casey met at their home and celebrated with a special dinner honoring Mrs. Casey's birthday Sunday.
