Mary Thompson was chosen by the judges, Mrs. D. G. Reece, Mrs. M. A. Holcomb and Rev. Mullis, to represent the high school, at Boonville.

At a short business session it was agreed to sponsor a local talent show under the direction of Leon Martin, the winners having the privilege of going to Winston-Salem and taking part in a half hour broadcast over Station WAIR.

Junior-Senior Banquet Held Friday Evening

In a beautiful setting representing an old-fashioned garden, upper classmen of Jonesville high school held their annual Junior-Senior banquet Friday evening in the banquet hall of Hotel Elkin.

Around the borders of the realistic flower-filled garden, with roses, and a lily pool and rock garden in the center, tables with covers placed for fifty-four were placed. The senior class colors of blue and gold were accentuated in the tall blue candles resting in yellow holders, the graceful baskets of blue violets, the blue and gold garden gate menu and program cards and the small old-fashioned bouquets attached to the place cards.

For an opening number, Mrs. L. S. Weaver, at the piano, played an old-fashioned melody.

Eugene Martin (the man with the hoe) presided as toastmaster. The welcome to the seniors, "Our Gardens," was given by Miss Dorothy Hutchins. The juniors sang "An Old-Fashioned Garden," which was pantomimed by Thelma Quisenberry and Thomas Reece. "A Garland of Roses" was given by Jean Vestal; a piano duet, "A Country Garden," was rendered by Ruth Brown and Edwina Hemric. A talk, "Toads, Snakes and Butterflies," by Magdalene Price, was followed by a musical reading "Grandmother's Patchwork Quilt," by Lorraine Lineberry. Blanche Myers rendered a piano number, "Hearts and Flowers," and Virginia Lineberry sang, "The Last Rose of Summer."

A toast to the faculty, "Our Favorite Flower," by Opal Ingool, was responded to by "A Flower From an Old-Fashioned Bouquet," by J. H. Swaringen. Mrs. A. B. Scroggs introduced speakers of the evening.

Brief talks by superintendent L. Stacey Weaver and County Superintendent J. Thad Reece, and a chorus, "Memories," by the seniors, concluded the program. Special guests were members of the high school faculty and the school board.

Scouts Enjoy Hike Thursday Afternoon

Thursday, April 13, the Jonesville Scout Troop went on a short hike, instead of the regular troop meeting at the school building.

The Scouts assembled about 4:30 and then went up the river bottom for about a mile. The site selected for cooking supper was a tiny spot shaded with a cool spring. Large fires were built and while these were burning down to beds of coals, the Scouts explored the neighborhood. Just before dark, supper was prepared over the beds of coals, some scouts broiling steaks and weiners on forked sticks while others fried pork chops on smooth flat rocks. The delicious aroma arising from this cooking would have stimulated appetites for less robust than that of those famished Scouts and the quantity of food consumed would have shocked even their mothers. It is even rumored that one or two of the boys ate enough to put a horse to shame.

A thoroughly good time was enjoyed by all of the troop and Mr. A. B. Scroggs and son, B. Pratt, and Prof. Stacey Weaver, who were guests of the evening.
