Beta Club Members are Entertained

Misses Ruth Brown, Edwinia Hemric and Opal Ingool were joint hostesses at a Beta Club entertainment Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burgess.

A color scheme of blue and gold was carried out. Chinese checkers and various other games were played during the evening. Those winning prizes were Jean Vestal, Vernell Macemore, Jerry Burgess and J. H. Swaringer. A natural color movie which was previously taken by Walter Burgess was shown as part of the program. A gift was presented to each senior.

Afterwards, punch and cake were served to the following: Misses Polly Vestal, Vernell Macemore, Virginia Lineberry, Blanche Myers, Grace Myers, Jean Vestal, Nonnie Burcham, Jerry Burgess, Mrs. A. B. Scroggs and Messrs. Eugene Martin, A. B. Scroggs, B. Pratt Scroggs, Kemp Reece, Herbert Mayberry, J. H. Swaringer, William Watkins, State Director of Beta Clubs, Tommy Jones, Clyde Phillips, Russell Vestal, Eldon Burgess and the hostesses, Ruth Brown, Edwinia Hemric and Opal Ingool.

Seniors are Entertained

Turner Drug Company entertained members of the senior class Friday evening. They were taken to see the motion picture "Jesse James" first and were entertained at the drug store afterwards. A color scheme of blue and gold was carried out. During the evening a prize was presented to the lucky winner, Herbert Mayberry. Each senior was presented a gift.

Afterwards banana splits, drinks and cakes were served to the following: Misses Virginia Lineberry, Jean Vestal, Ruby Welborn, Vernell Macemore, Hazel Wagoner, Winnie Mae Weatherman, Anna Lee Myers and Messrs. Herbert Mayberry and Russell Vestal.

COOL SPRINGS

Our Sunday school dropped back a bit last Sunday, owing to the earlier hour, and the short session; but we hope it won't be permanent.

Our choir and several others from here attended the singing at Pleasant Home Sunday. There were eight groups participating, Pleasant Home, Little Elkin, Maple Springs, Cool Springs, Pleasant Hill, Yaddin 4, Cockerham Trio, Bradley Duet. Owing to the prevalence of flu so late here we with others failed to do much rehearsal, but the old songs were not so bad heard again and there was a goodly number of new ones.

The next convention will be held at the Old Home church, Cool Springs, and we want all the family, with all the grandchildren and neighbors to join with us in a real old fashioned singing convention. There is no question of your welcome here, and we say, "Thanks to the choir directors that so favored us."

Rev. Cleve Simmons filled his appointment here Sunday evening and Rev. I. W. Vestal, our pastor, was a visitor with him. Cool Springs folks are going to Prospect church near Smithtown Saturday evening, and join the group from Winston-Salem in the service there. They will hold a cottage prayer service with Aunt Lodeem Harpe Wednesday evening, and will go to the home of K. M. Carter Saturday night week.

The young folks' meeting will be as usual Sunday evening, and we hope to have both group leaders, Mrs. Lucy Newman Holbrook and Mr. Carmel Tucker, present. The boys' books have arrived and many have been distributed. We're hoping that they will use them, too. Also it is understood that the boys will soon have a new pianist, thus making them even with the girls.

A Mother's Day program will feature the evening service for Mother's Day, as owing to our communion service we haven't time for that in the morning service, and Little Elkin is expected to join us then.

PLEASANT HILL

The Sunshine quartet sang at Stacy Baptist church in Reidsville Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Simmons had as their week-end guests Mr. Simmons parents, of Thurmond.

The children's choir was taken on a fishing trip and weiner roast Thursday evening in the New Hope community by Rev. D. W. Day. This was promised the children when they did such an excellent job in raising money for our new church building. The "Red" side of the building fund contest won in the finals, but enough money was given to make both the Red and Blue sides tie.

Mr. Gwyn Baugess preached at Pleasant Hill Sunday night, using as his subject, "The Two Ways."

The ladies' chorus attended the fifth Sunday singing convention Sunday afternoon at Pleasant Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Odell Couch had as their guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Luther Byrd and son, Avery, of the Macedonia community.

Miss Mozelle Darnell was the Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. David Darnell.

Mrs. Jack Smoot has returned from the hospital, her friends will be glad to hear.

Miss Dorothy Couch was the week-end guest of Miss Virginia Crabb, of the Mine Ridge community.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Yarboro have moved into their new home in this community.

BOONVILLE

Rev. Howard J. Ford, pastor of Sparta Baptist church, delivered the baccalaureate sermon here Sunday night, April 30. The program opened with the song, "Holy, Holy, Holy" by the audience. Rev. J. P. Davis offered prayer. The girls' chorus of the school rendered the song "Largo" after which Mr. Howard brought his message. The commencement program of the school will come to a close May 5 and 6, at which time the high school will graduate 19 seniors.

Misses Sadie Fleming and Ruby Hinshaw made a trip to Winston-Salem Tuesday.

The Boonville Beta Club held its last meeting of the current school term last Friday night at the home of Mrs. Gennie Lind Brown who acted as hostess to the group.

A short business session was held just after the group assembled. At this session officers for the term of 1939-40 were elected. Curtis Hobson was elected president; Harold Stinson, vice-president, and Miss Cam Shore, secretary.

Misses Irene Coram and Frances Coram, and Messrs. Frank Jones and Ernest Collins, all of Mt. Airy, were visitors in the home of the Misses Coram's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Coram, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan C. Hemmings, of Dobson, were visitors in Boonville Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brooks entertained a number of the Boonville faculty members at their home Tuesday night of this week at a dinner party. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Watt Deal, and Mrs. Allan Jessup.

POPLAR SPRING

Misses Opal and Cecil Adams are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Spencer, of Benham, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. David Gough, of Elkin, visited Mrs. Celia Williams and daughter, Lillie, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Clyde Hayes, of Mt. Airy, spent the week-end with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hayes.

Rev. Richard Day preached a very inspiring sermon Saturday night.

Rev. and Mrs. E. G. Jordan will be at the Poplar Spring Baptist church Sunday night to conduct service. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Laster visited in Mocksville during the week-end.

ROCKFORD

The commencement exercises of the Rockford school will begin Thursday night May 4, with an operetta given by the first five grades entitled "Pandora." Friday night a play will be presented by the six and seventh grades entitled, "For the Love of Mike." The public is cordially invited to attend.

Misses Anna, Geridean and Carrie Elizabeth Bryant, Mrs. Pearl Atkins and son, Sammie, spent the week-end in Burch, as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Marion.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Coe spent Sunday afternoon in Mount Airy as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sweatman.

Rev. D. G. Reece of Jonesville is expected to fill his regular appointment at the Rockford Baptist church Sunday morning. A large crowd is expected to attend as they always have a special service on the first Sunday in May.

Miss Sarah Simmons spent the week-end in Kernersville visiting her sister, Mrs. Adam Jessie.

Miss Doris Mills of Copeland was the week-end guest of Miss Annie Holyfield.
