Monthly Group Meeting of W.M.S. Monday

The monthly group meeting of the circles of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church will be held Monday afternoon at 3:30 at the church. All members are invited to be present.

Roy Johnson Is Honored on Birthday Anniversary

Miss Hazel Johnson entertained at a weiner roast at her home on Virginia Road Saturday evening, honoring her brother, Roy, on his eighteenth birthday anniversary. Following the supper games were enjoyed.

The guest list included a number of friends of the honor guest.

Legion Auxiliary Meeting to Be Held Tuesday

Due to the fact that the regular meeting date of the Woman's Auxiliary of the George Gray post of the American Legion conflicted with the commencement exercises of the local school, the meeting date was postponed until Tuesday evening, May 16, at 8 o'clock. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Fred McNeely on West Main street.

All members are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Holcomb Is Hostess to Round Dozen Club

Mrs. H. B. Holcomb entertained members of the Round Dozen Book Club at the regular fortnightly meeting Friday evening at her home on West Main street. Tulips and pansies were used in the living room, where three tables were placed for rook. In the games the high score award went to Mrs. T. A. Leeper and the runner-up award to Mrs. J. Coke Marion.

A dessert course was served.

Miss Hendren Is Hostess at Supper

Miss Frances Hendren entertained at an informal supper in the garden at her home on West Main street Sunday evening to honor Miss Jane Streetman, of Marion, guest of Miss Lesbia Graham.

The guest list included Misses Streetman, Graham, Betty Armfield and Dorothy Colhard, and Russell Johnson, Frank Osborne, Garland Calton, Jr., and Tom Hendren.

Mrs. Bryan Is Hostess at Luncheon Saturday

Honoring Mrs. W. L. Cawthon, of Jackson, Tenn., guest of Mrs. Thomas Roth, Mrs. A. O. Bryan was hostess at a lovely luncheon Saturday at her home on West Main street. Covers were placed for eight at a beautifully appointed table which was centered with a bouquet of colorful garden flowers. Mrs. Cawthon was presented a gift and Mrs. A. S. Kennickell, Jr., of Winston-Salem, another out-of-town guest, was also given a remembrance.

Mrs. Greene Is Hostess at Luncheon Wednesday

Mrs. P. M. Greene entertained at a lovely luncheon Wednesday in the Kiwanis Room at Hotel Elkin. Spring flowers were used in profusion throughout the room and as centerpieces for the five small tables, where covers were placed for twenty.

Bridge was played following the luncheon at four tables. The high score award went to Mrs. Roger Carter at the conclusion of the progressions and the consolation prize to Mrs. Howard Hatch. Among the non-players Mrs. W. W. Whitaker drew the prize.

Charles G. Ashby, Jr., Is Feted on Birthday

Honoring her son, Charles, Jr., on his fourth birthday anniversary, Mrs. Charles G. Ashby entertained at a party Saturday afternoon at her home on Bridge street.

Outdoor games were enjoyed. Mrs. Ashby was assisted in entertaining by Miss Louise Tranos.

The little girls were given favors of tiny bye-lo dolls and the boys were given horns.

Ices and cake were served during the afternoon.

The guest list included twenty children of a similar age.

Mesdames Royall and Harris Are Circle Hostesses

Mesdames Hugh A. Royall and Edwirth Harris were hostesses to circle number four of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church at the home of Mrs. Royall on West Main street Thursday evening, with nineteen members attending.

Mrs. Max Boyles conducted the devotionals and the program topic "Broadening the Horizons of the Rural Community" was presented by Miss Josephine Paul.

Mrs. Gilbert Meed and Mrs. Ralph Reich.

The hostesses served delicious refreshments during a pleasant social hour.

Mrs. Young Honors Sisters at Party Monday

Honoring her sisters, Mrs. Edward Wells, of Shelby, and Mrs. J. B. Long, of Raleigh, Mrs. Carl Young entertained at a delightful bridge party Monday evening at her home on Elk Spur street. Peonies and irises were used in the living room, where two tables were placed for bridge. In the progressions the high score award went to Mrs. Pauline Masten Pardue and the honor prize went to Mrs. Ted Brown. Each of the honorees was presented a gift.

A prettily appointed salad course was served at the conclusion of the play.

Mrs. Haywood Is Luncheon Hostess Thursday

Having as guests members of the Two-Four Bridge Club and several visitors, Mrs. Charles L. Haywood, Jr., was hostess at a delightful luncheon-bridge Thursday at her home on Hospital Road. Spring flowers were used in an artistic arrangement throughout the rooms. Luncheon was served at one o'clock and during the afternoon bridge was played at two tables. The high score award went to Mrs. E. C. Grier at the conclusion of the play.

Those making up the tables were: Mrs. A. O. Bryan, Mrs. E. C. Grier, Miss Maude Greenwood, Mrs. Paul Gwyn, Mrs. H. C. Graham, Mrs. Thomas Roth, Mrs. W. L. Cawthon, of Jackson, Tenn., and Mrs. Henry Turner, of Campbellsville, Ky.

Senior Class Members Are Feted by Drug Stores and Theatre

Members of the graduating class of the high school were feted Friday evening by the management of the Lyric theatre and following the show they were guests of Turner Drug Company. At the drug store the class colors of red and white were used in the appointments of the tables, where covers were placed for 23. Each guest was presented a souvenir and in drawing for the prize Billy Reece won a Kodak.

Tuesday evening at the close of the graduation exercises the seniors were the guests of Abernethy's. Corsages of iris and lily-of-the-valley marked the places of the girls and red rosebuds marked the places of the boys. In drawing for the prizes Miss Betty Lou Evans won a box of dusting powder and Bill Gambill won a fountain pen.

Mrs. Currier Speaks to Garden Club Thursday

Meeting at the home of Mrs. J. S. Atkinson on West Main street Thursday afternoon, members of the Yadkin Valley Garden Club enjoyed an interesting talk by Mrs. C. S. Currier on native birds. Mrs. Currier, who is a lover of birds and a student of their habits and peculiarities, made a most interesting talk. Another feature of the program was a vocal quartette, "April Eyes," by Mesdames J. H. Beeson, E. G. Click, E. F. McNeer and H. P. Graham. Mrs. McNeer was program chairman for the month, and she introduced the subject with a report of the newly organized North Carolina Bird Club.

Preceding the program newly elected officers were installed as follows: President, Mrs. Mason Lillard; vice-president, Mrs. E. G. Click; secretary, Mrs. J. F. Hendren; treasurer, Mrs. E. F. Mc-

Neer; program chairman, Mrs. E. C. James, Junior Garden Club chairman, Mrs. W. W. Whitaker; roadside beautification chairman, Mrs. E. G. Click; bird and nature chairman, Mrs. E. F. McNeer.

Mrs. E. G. Click gave a report of the Greensboro Garden Club show and Mrs. W. W. Whitaker gave a description of a garden party given in Raleigh to fete delegates to the recent convention of the Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Currier was given a potted plant in appreciation of her delightful talk.

A prettily appointed salad course was served during a social hour to the thirteen members and one guest attending.

MOUNTAIN VIEW

Mountain View Sunday school has on roll 145. That number was present for Sunday school Sunday.

We are glad to know the condition of Mrs. Lee Mathis shows improvement.

Mrs. Millie Tucker and her nephew, Roby Brown, and her grandson, Donald Tucker, spent Thursday visiting Mrs. Tucker's sister, Mrs. George Stokes.

Mrs. Click Stokes returned home Saturday after a week's visit with friends in Virginia. Miss Irene Gray spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Conrad Tucker.

Mr. and Mrs. Cline Cooper and children, of Elkin, visited Mrs. Cooper's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Shore, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earnold Henery and Mr. Luther Stokes were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Henery Stokes.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Redding and Mrs. Millie Tucker were visiting relatives in Winston-Salem Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Riley were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Riley Sunday.

Miss Pauline Shore returned home Saturday after spending two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Staley, of Reidsville. Her cousin, Miss Margaret Everage, accompanied her home and spent the week-end visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Wint Shore, and other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hall had as their dinner guests Sunday

Mrs. Hall's brother, Mr. Buster Pardue.

A large crowd met at the home of Mr. T. N. VanHoy Sunday, honoring Mrs. VanHoy's mother, Mrs. Alma Pardue, of Winston-Salem, on her 70th birthday. A large birthday cake with 70 candles was placed in the center of a well filled table on the lawn. Among the many welcome guests was Aunt Nancy Wild Shore, our beloved aged lady who is now 85 years old. She is widely known throughout this community and loved by all who know her.

REVIVAL COMES TO SUCCESSFUL CLOSE

Rev. Richard Day, of this city, pastor of Hinshaw Street Baptist church, North Wilkesboro, closed a revival there Sunday night with 21 additions to the church and around 30 professions. Rev. J. L. Powers assisted the pastor in the meeting which was the best revival in the history of the church. Rev. Powers preached great, soul-stirring sermons each night, which were highly received by the people at North Wilkesboro.

We Know Best What MOTHER Wants MOST

You'd prefer surprising Mother with a gift that's more luxurious than anything she's had in years! You don't want to ask her point-blank what that certain something is she's wishing for, but you'll please her just as certainly if you rely on us to do the suggesting. We believe in Mother's Day, as you do, because her thoughtfulness, devotion and generosity to us, her children, are certainly deserving of at least one day of tribute. Make this Mother's Day a gay one—bring the blush of excitement to her cheeks—and when she says "Oh, you shouldn't have!" you'll know deep in her heart she's thrilled that you did remember her and did think enough of her, to really go out of your way to buy her something she can proudly show as "My Mother's Day gift!"

Large roomy purses in patents, doeskins, calfs and goat—whites, blacks and all favorite colors—
